LOCAL MATTER

—It has been observed by some sportsmen that the muskrats are building their houses on the north side of the crekse and coves instead of on the south side as usual, and that the size of the houses, which are made of rushes and reeds with long "leads" running out into the water, are much larger than usual. These actions on the part of the water rodents are taken by many observers to indicate a severe winter.

—Washington College foot ball team closed its season last Saturday when they lost to Mt. St. Mary's by a score of 14 to 0. Both touchdowns made by the visitors came as breaks in the game. This first touchdown was scored in the first quarter when the mountaineers blocked a punt and one of their fellow players picked the ball up and ran for a touch down. The second score was the result of a 45 yard run.

1930 AUTO PLATES READY MONDAY

Application blanks for 1930 automobile license tags were mailed to motorists yesterday (Friday) and markers may be obtained beginning Monday, according to E. Austin Baughman, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.

The new tags, which have white numerals on a green background, may be placed on automobiles December 15 and must be displayed after midnight, December 31.

Urges Use Of Mails

"I wish to urge motorists to take advantage of the mails in obtaining tags," Mr. Baughman said, "This will avoid the last-minute rush of previous years and eliminate the discomfort and danger to health of standing in line for hours.

"The application blanks for 1930 tags are easy to fill in. All that is required is the cost of markers—which may be obtained by multiplying the number of horsepower of the car by 32 cents—and the applicant's signature.

"Then it should be mailed to this office, accompanied by a money order or check covering the cost of the license, in addition to ten cents for postage.

Tax Check Made

"Automobile owners who have paid their taxes will receive cards perforated with the stamp of the City Collector, or if they live in the counties, the County Collector. Those county seat of the county in which they live. Taxes must be paid before tags will be issued.

DEATHS

After a long illness Col. Ivers Leonard, U. S. A., retired, World War veteran, died at his country home on Lankford Bay, near Rock Hall last Sunday evening.

Colonel Leonard had recently returned from the private sanatorium of Dr. Arthur E. Davis, of Scranton, Pa., where he underwent treatment. He was conveyed to the sanatorium several weeks ago in an amphibian hospital plane of the United States Navy. The plane was flown by Lieut. C. S. Harper, who landed on the waters of Lankford Bay, took his passenger-patient on board and flew to Scranton, alighting on a resovoir, near the hospital.

Colonel Leonard went to the sanatorium with the expectation of undergoing an operation, but it was found that the ailment from which he suffered had progressed to such a stage that it was deemed best for him not to undergo the ordeal.

He served with distinction during the Spanish American and World War and was retired after the Armistice was signed. He then came to Kent county to make his home on Lankford Bay.

Colonel Leonard is survived by his widow, four daughters, Miss Ruth Leonard, Mrs. Arthur M. Holmes, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Rex Beasley, West Point, N. Y.; Mrs. J. S. Laird, Dearborn, Mich.; and two sisters, Mrs. Hattie L. Wright, Fort Dodge, Iowa, and Miss Mary Leonard, Detroit.

Funeral services were held at his home at 2.30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon conducted by Rev. John White, rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church of which Col. Leonard was a member. Burial was in St. Paul's Cemetery.

The bearers were: Messrs. Edward Leary, John Leary, John Farringer, Charles Shriley, William Shriley, John Dowling and Marion T. Miller. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Helen Medders Massey, wife of Mr. Josiah Massey, died at her home, near Chestertown, on Sunday evening, November 24th. Mrs. Massey has been an invalid for four years and bore her suffering with Christian patience. The beautiful flowers were mute tokens of the love that was hers from a large circle of friends. Surviving her are her husband, four sons, Josiah, Rawlings, Eugene, John Evans, one sister, Mrs. Harvey Moore, of Betterton; and two brothers, J. Hough and Eugene Gooding, of Baltimore.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. D. Short, of Betterton, M. E. Church, officiating. Interment in Chester cemetery. Charles L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were: Messrs. Wm. Medders, Jesse Ireland, Paul Massey, Julian Jones, Thomas Bryan, and Elmer Jarman.

Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battle fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.

James A. Huey, 78, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ralph S. Brown, at Lewes, Delaware, late last Saturday. He was the father of W. Robert Huey, cashier of the Third National Bank, Chestertown.

Tilghman Holliday, of Baltimore, aged 56 years, died on Monday, November 25th. He was born at Edesville, Kent County, where his father, the late George T. Holliday, kept a general store. He moved to Baltimore when a boy and became connected with the firm of R. S. Jackson, commission merchants. At the time of his death, he was owner of this firm. He was well known in Baltimore for his generosity and kindness for the poor and just before his death he had arranged for the distribution of Thanksgiving turkeys among the poor people of that city.

Funeral services were held Thursday. He was a devoted member of the M. E. Church and is survived by his widow and one daughter. He was a cousin of Miss Laura and Mr. Wilbur Thomas, of Chestertown.

William Janvier, one of the most prominent and widely known residents of the upper section of this county, died from heart trouble at his late home on Turner's Creek, in the Second Election District, on Monday, November 25, 1929, aged 70 years. Mr. Janvier had been sick for several weeks, prior to his death.

He was the son of the late William and Mary Wethered Janvier. The family have long been prominent in the agricultural and social life of this county, and was noted for their gentlemanly and courteous manners. He is survived by a sister, Miss Mary Janvier. He was a cousin of Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, and Dr. John Wethered, of Chestertown.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11.30 a. m. (today) Saturday morning from his late home by the rector of Shrewsbury P. E. Church, Rev. J. R. Baird.

The pall bearers will be P. A. M. Brooks, L. W. Wickes, Wm. Crow, George Sutton, Wethered Barroll, John Barroll. Interment in Shrewsbury cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker in charge of funeral arrangement.

Miss Mary E. Middleton died last week at the home of her niece, Mrs. Ruby Ford, in Baltimore. The deceased was the daughter of the late Joseph Middleton, of Rock Hall. The remains were brought to Wesley Chapel cemetery for interment Friday afternoon where the service was read by Rev. W. S. Grant, of Rock Hall M. E. Church. The bearers were: Messrs. Melvin and Carroll Middletown, William and Charles Ford, of Baltimore, and James Taylor and Mark Pettibone, of Rock Hall.

Daisy E. Dadds, 44, wife of William A. Dadds, of near Claymont, Del., died at the Hahneman Hospital, Philadelphia, on Tuesday, November 19th, after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held from her late home at 8 p. m., on Thursday and at 1 p. m., on Friday from the home of George P. Latham in Chestertown. Inter ment was made in the Chester cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, a son, Robert O. Dadds, and six sisters, Mrs. McKendrie Patrick, Mrs. Oliver White, Mrs. William Patrick, and Mrs. George P. Latham. Mrs. William A. Bexley, of Chestertown and Miss Lillie Truitt, of Washington, are half sisters.

Hiram Bland, 75, died at his late home here on Monday. He was the father of Captain Thomas Bland, well known waterman. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday by the Reverend J. Harry Wright. Interment was made in the Church Hill cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving remembrance of our dear father and husband, Thomas H. Jones, who departed this life, November 27, 1926.

Weary and heavy hearted,
Thus we pass each lonely day.
For my dear father and husband.
Gone before to show the way.

Just three years of saddest longing
For the smiles that greeted us,
It is veiled in that bright dawning,
Where faith leads on to our rest.

Oh the latest pressure of that hand!
The look of that closing eye
Grief which the heart must understand,
The long last goodby.

Thus it is but a step to heaven
The home of dear ones gone beyond,
This blessed assurance to us is given,
Therefore I pray, "Thy will be done."

By his loving wife and children.

STYLE--- or FAD?

Occasionally we see some peculiar product of eccentric designing, advertised as new style. Generally it is short-lived and passes out with little notice—why?—because it is not style but merely a fad—and between these two there lies a vast difference.

A gentleman is always Stylish—never Faddish. His clothes are selected with discriminating taste and reflect the judgment and work of the Expert Designer.
