LOCAL MATTER

—Harry Beck, who last week, was arrested in Chester and brought to Chestertown on a charge of driving a stolen automobile was taken back to Chester Monday where he is facing a more serious charge.

—The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company voted at its regular meeting last Monday evening, Dec. 9, to hold its annual banquet earlier than usual and set an approximate date for the dinner at the latter part of January or early in February.

—In the account last week of the accident at Urieville hill it was stated that Miss Ethel Hartman was driving the automobile of Mrs. Leonard. This was an error as the car was driven by Mrs. Rex Beasley, a daughter of Mrs. Leonard.

—An all star basket ball team composed of Kibler, Fox, Carrington, Jacobs, Russell and Beatty were no match for the Washington College five last Friday evening, losing 54 to 26. The Washington team under the direction of Coach J. T. Kibler, showed that they have filled in the places of Jacobs and Carrington made vacant by graduation last year. The game tonight between Washington College and St. Joseph's College, of Philadelphia, should be an interesting affair.

—Damon Rollison died Monday at his home at Bustleton, Pa., after a long illness. The deceased was a son of the late Charles Rollison, of Rock Hall, and his wife was Miss Jennie Rodney of the same place. He leaves her and two sons besides a sister, Mrs. William Beck, and a brother, Norris Rollison, of Pennsylvania. Interment was made at noon Wednesday in Wesley Chapel cemetery.

DEATHS

Ethel E. Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Coleman, of Crumpton, died last Friday in Wilmington of dyphtheria, after an illness of one day. The death occurred at 1008 West Tenth Street, Wilmington, where Miss Coleman was teaching at The Friends School. She was in her twenty third year.

She is survived by her parents and the following brothers and sisters: William R. Coleman, of Church Hill; Norman Coleman, of Smyrna, Del.; Wright Coleman, of Richardson Park; Pa.; Mrs. Louise Meisel, of St. Mary's Pa.; Hodge Coleman, of Church Hill; Graham Coleman, of Crumpton; Howard Coleman, of Phiuadelphia; Edna Coleman, of Crumpton; Mrs. Mary Montheis, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Miss Pauline Coleman, of Atlantic City, and Elva Coleman, of Pittsburg.

Services were held early Monday morning at the Friends Meeting House, Wilmington, and a further service was held in Crumpton in the afternoon, in which the Revs. Bradley, Jefferson and Clark officiated. Mr. Bush of the Friends School where Miss Coleman had been teaching made a short address. The Board of Education of Queen Anne's county sent a special representative to attend the services, as Miss Coleman had for many years been a teacher in that county.

Interment was made in the Crumpton Cemetery.

Rev. Henry K. Miller, of Worton, a retired Methodist Minister, who had several chares in New York State, a large Kent County land owner, a former student at Washington College and a widely known citizen of this county, died at a Washington Hospital Friday morning aged 75 years. Funeral services will be held at the home of his sister, Mrs. George T. Bacon, Chestertown at 2 p. m. Sunday December 15, 1929, Rev. Dr. Sexsmith, officiating.

The bearers will be: Harrison Cornelius, Lester Carter, George Cooper, Alen Jones, Charles N. Satterfield and Arthur Bacon. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

WEDDING NOTES

THOMPSON—KIRBY

Miss Eunice Loraine Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Thompson, of near Chestertown, and Mr. Lambert Planner Kirby, of Chestertown, will be married tonight, Saturday, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jesse Downey, Rock Hall, at 7.30 p. m.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Barnes, former pastor of Wesley Chapel, under an arch of flowers. The bride will be attended by Miss Virginia Thompson as maid of honor, and Misses Dorothy Thompson and Virginia Kirby as brides maids. The grooms attendants will be Mr. Thomas Parsons, best man, and Messrs. Harry Thompson, Jr., and Harry Kirby. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, Mr. Harry A. Thompson.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held. The bride and groom will reside on Mill Street, Chestertown. The groom is employed at Truslow Poultry Farm, and the bride is secretary at the firm of Jones & Satterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trott, of Norfolk, Va., formerly, of Still Pond, Md., announced the engagement of their daughter, Clara Mae Trott, to Mr. Robert Thomas. The wedding will take place on Christmas Day, December 25, 1929. On January 1st they will go to San Diego, California, their future home.

SHERIFF CLEARED

The charges against Sheriff G. Clinton Logan for the recent unfortunate killing of the young man, Harvey Crew, who it was stated was trying to escape after having been put under arrest, were ignored by the Grand Jury. That body, however, severely consured the sheriff for shooting Mr. Crew.

RESSOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Inexpressibly saddened by the death of their fellow-member, William Janvier, and desiring to place on permanent record their sense of loss in the passing of this Christian gentleman, the Wardens and Vestry of Shrewsbury Parish have this day caused a page in the book of minutes of their body to be set aside to bear this record.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His divine wisdom to call to his eternal rest the soul of our dear friend, William Janvier, therefore be it.

Resolved, That in the passing of William Janvier, the Parish has lost a dear friend, a wise counseller, a faithful steward, and a devout Churchman. Kindly and sympathetic to all, firm in his opinions, but always ready to see the point of view of others with honest opinions, the wisdom of his counsel made it a pleasure to be associated with him.

Shrewsbury Parish will sorely miss his wise counsel and generous help. He walked with us for a time, to give us of his kindly service and advice, and their God called him to Himself to enter into that greater life and service wth His saints above. "Let light perpetual shine upon him," O God.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this be sent to his sister, and a copy be published in the Kent County papers and the Eastern Shore Churchman and also that it be spread upon the minutes of the Vestry.

Committee,
JOSEPH R. BAIRD, Rector,
WILLIAM R. CROW,
B. R. SUTTON.

STEPHEN R. COLLINS, Attorney.
