Down the Road to Christmastime

Down the road to Christmastime
We gaily roll along;
In our hearts is merriment
And on our lips a song.
Down the road to Christmastime—
And all along the way
We greet our friends and wish for them
A jolly Christmas Day.

Down the road to Christmastime—
The old, old road of cheer,
Where every neighbor is a friend
And every friend is dear;
Where joy is found on every hand
And brightens every mile;
Where kindness calls in every voice
And glows in every smile.

Down the road to Christmastime—
Oh, what a pleasant ride
With friends and strangers greeting us
And loved ones at our side!
Our hearts are filled with happiness
And all the world is gay,
As down the road to Christmastime
We find our merry way.

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me and my brother two bicycles and two pair of gloves, and stockings and candy, nuts and oranges.
Edwin and Billy Taylor.
