NURSING REPORTS FOR JANUARY

At a time of year when contagious diseases frequently run riot it is particularly gratifying to not the absence of any communicable types to any degree among the school children of Kent County. The preventive work of the nurses and the Deputy State Health Officer is doing wonders in reducing children's illnesses to a minimum.

In January an isolated case of diphtheria was reported at Millington the case was visited and instruction given for the care of patient and protection of the other members of the family.

Intensive examination of the school children in the county was continued throughout the month. Pres-School Clinic were held in Chestertown Elementary Schools in Chestertown and motion pictures were shown in connection with the clinics and also at Fairlee.

Motion pictures of an educational hygienic nature were shown to nearly one hundred colored men and boys and to a large number at a lalter showing.

No new cases were reported at the T. B. Clinic held at the Health Center by Dr. O'Neill. One death was reported from Sabilasville of a resident of Golt, Maryland.

The Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Clinic was unusually well attended. One five year old chilld was sent to a Baltimore hospital for treatment of the eyes and another six-year old girl was admitted to Union Memorial Hospital for cleft-palate and hair-lip.

Three children were operated upon at the local hospital for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. All were discharged in good condition.

Eleven births were reported for the month all of which were delivered by physicians.

Marjorie Forte addressed the Civic League of Chestertown on "How To Better Health Conditions of the Town."
