FEDERAL RESERVE ADVISES.
RED HATS, COMING.
CALVIN COOLIDGE SAYS.
PSYCHOLOGICAL PROSPERITY.

The Federal Reserve chief tells business to go ahead boldly, showing more initiative, less hesitancy.

Excellent advice. Business will advise the Federal Reserve, when and if prosperity booms again, to be less enthusiastic about promoting usury, and run the Federal Reserve more like a banking institution, less like a pawnshop.

Reserve Board financiers that forced 15 and 20 per cent interest rates, handing hundreds of millions of money lenders and adding billions in value, temporarily, to inflated bank stocks, need advice as much as any business man needs it.

Interesting sight on the United Aircraft flying field at Burbank, at the edge of Los Angeles.

W. E. Boeing, upon whose air genius C. E. Mitchell of the National City Bank built his biggest air craft company, was on hand, trying a new machine, not yet named.

All metal, monoplane, with fuselage above the short wings, it flew 170 miles an hour, and climbed almost as straight as an elevator shaft.

It has a Pratt-Whitney Wasp engine and Hamilton propeller. Eddy Bellandi, the pilot, said he could start it in a 100-foot lot. Mr. Boeing, who knows more about airplanes than most men, thinks there is something new for fliers in that machine.

Two hundred intelligent members of the Retail Clothiers' and Hatters' Association gathered at San Diego, California, to discuss an important question, "Can American men be persuaded to buy and wear bright red felt hats?"

Of course they can. Women wear every color, and men are much vainer than women, although they hide it.

A red hat is best to wear in the woods, shooting, to avoid being mistaken for a deer.

That will give American men an excuse for the red felt.

Calvin Coolidge says little, but often says much in a few words. At Mr. Hearst's ranch on the edge of the Pacific Mr. Coolidge listened with interest to the propounding of various puzzles, mathematical problems, etc., by Senator Hitchcock, a guest with him. For instance, "If a bottle and a cork cost one dollar and five cents, and if the bottle costs one dollar more than the cork, how much does the cork cost?" That's a Ripley puzzle.

The answer, to save you trouble, is two and one-half cents.

Mr. Coolidge, listening, offering no solutions, remarked finally, "Senator, I suppose in the Senate you all have plenty of time to work out such problems." Senator Hitchcock tells that.

In these days of birth control, ladies will be interested in Mrs. Chris Back, who lives at Whitesburg, New York.

She has had six children in eleven months—two sets of triplets, all alive.

All honor to Mrs. Back and congratulations to mothers that are more moderate. If every woman had six children in eleven months the earth would eventually be overpopulated, although not soon.

Texas alone, intensively cultivated, would feed all the present inhabitants of the globe, with room left for baseball fields and golf courses.

Gangsters are not kind to each other.

John "Billiken" Rito, described by police as "a bootleg racketeer," member of the "Bugs" Moran gang, lies in the morgue. Wires with which his arms, hands and ankles were bound, when he was taken out of the Chicago River, have been removed. The police wonder who burned the tip ends of his fingers in the process of torturing him before he was murdered, and why they did it. They will never know.

Racketeers kill and don't talk.

Golf links, daily dozens, radio setting up exercises and other devices are designed for the man who leads a sedentary life physically.

Edison wants to know "what about the man mentally sedentary and inactive. Who will plan something for him?" Many millions need to be called early on the radio with this question "How long is it since you have exercised your mind? How much reading worth while do you do, and how much do you think as you read? It is mental, not physical inactivity, that hurts a nation.

What people think decides what they are. Prosperity is to a considerable extent a matter of psychology.

Once a man was fastened in a chair, his feet put in warm water, and, as a practical joke, he was shown a razor, of which the blunt end was drawn across the soles of his bare foot. He was told, "You will bleed to death painlessly in this warm water." He didn't lose a drop of blood, but he died.

Don't let prosperity die in that fashion, killed by imagination.

Although not yet prepared to put their full force of employees at work, the new button factory began operation in Federalsburg a few days ago and already quite a number of workers are employed in this interesting occupation. As fast as the workers can be instructed in the operation of the machinery, the force of employees will be increased until shortly the plant will be operating to its full capacity and giving steady employment to a large number of workers, both men and women.
