VOL. LXXIV---NO. 6 | CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1930 | $1.50 PER ANNUM

CENSUS SHOW TOWNS GROWING

A preliminary report of the Fifteenth Census refutes the persistant statement that the small towns are doomed as Kent towns show an increase in popuplation with but few exceptions.

During the past ten years the population of Chestertown has increased from 2,537 to 2,809 of which 843 are negroes.

The increase is 272.

Millington shows an increase of three people the figures being 368 in 1920 and 371 in 1930.

Galena showed a decrease of 34 residents in the ten year period the figures being 298 in 1920 and 264 in 1930.

The figures show an increase in Rock Hall of 127. The 1920 census was 572 as against 699 in 1930.

The rural sections show a decrease in all sections.

NOW AND THEN

MOTHER'S DAY TOMORROW

Do not let us forget it. There is no one who appreciates an act of thoughtfulness and love as much as a mother. And after all a mother is made up of just those, thoughtfulness and love for her offspring.

"MOTHER-PRAYER."
By Margaret Widdemer.

"Lord, make my loving a guard for them
Day and night,
Let never pathway be hard for them;
Keep all bright!
Let not harsh touch of a thorn for them
Wound their ease—
All of the pain I have borne for them
Spare to these!"

So I would pray for them
Kneeling to God
Night and day for them.

"Lord, let the pain life must bring to them
Make them strong,
Keep their hearts white though grief cling to them
All life long,
Let all the joys Thou dost keep from them
At Thy will
Give to them power to reap from them
Courage still!"

So I must ask for them,
Leaving to God
His own task for them.

We were reading in a magazine a few days ago of an experience in a convent somewhere in the state of Ohio. The nuns' only cow died and they resolved to ask St. Joseph, their patron saint to send them another. One of them drew a picture of a cow which they all said looked more like a cat than a cow, but they placed it at the foot of St. Joseph's Shrine. The next day there was a ring at the the gate, saw a girl with a cat. She had come to tell them she was going away for a few days, and asked them to care for the cat but the nun was so overcome with laughter that others had to help her to explain.

So the story went around and the Nuns secured their cow.

What a dreadful time does the president have with his congress. Likely as not they will not sign the three pact treaty. And poor Judge Parker! What are they going to do with him. At home he is honored and esteemed. Will they turn him down?

The warlike Nations, playing
Brother,
Agree around the Treaty table
Not to be scared of one another,
At least as far as they are able.

convent gate and a nun, on opening
While Daffodillies bloom delighting
And Apple Boughs are pink and
lacy,
A Black Frost settles, very blighting,
On poor Judge Parker's candi-dacy.

Our Yankees disappoint the Clients
And start the season in the Cellar,
But see our little early Giants
Rapping the Apple on the Smeller!

The garden parties are doing much for out of doors. Even they are influencing the styles. Look at the hat, broad and airy, ready for out of doors, the flounced skirt long and graceful. What helped to bring it about but the garden parties. Travelers speak of the many beautiful gardens which are restored through their influence.

Crowds in the garden calling,
calling—
Rain on the arbor falling,
falling—
Buds are sprouting
on every tree—
A rainbow ties the sky to the sea.
Torrents rush down
the rock gorge—
Glints of gold that
the sea can forge.
Cover the whole with a mantle of blue,
And all of a sudden the sun shines
through!
—Mary Wilson Thompson.

PROTEST SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION

Delegations of patrons from the schools of Sasafras, St. Paul's, Swan Creek and Lankford appeared before the Kent County School Board on Tuesday of this week and protested against the consolidation of the country schools as advocated by Mr. Louis C. Robinson, Superintendant of Schools.

The School Board decided against the consolidation of the county schools, and action was deferred on the proposed consolidation of high schools.

PAINFULLY INJURED

Bob Bansman, grand son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clendaniel, of Chestertown, and son of Prof. and Mrs. Ruth Bansman, of Newark, Del, met with quite a painful and peculiar accident one day this week. Bob and a boy playmate were playing with an old pistol when some one took the pistol from them. Young Bob put a number of cartridge in his pocket, which had a hole in it, and the cartridge went through the hole lodging in his pants leg at his knee. He tripped falling on his knee on a cement pavement which exploded the cartridges painfully injuring his knee and blowing a hole in his pants leg.

INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Mr. Rolph Townshend is in Emergency hospital, Baltimore, suffering with a broken knee cap received in an automobile accident Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Townshend is State District Road Engineer for Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline and Talbot Counties, and was driving on the dirt road cut off between Browns Corner and the Sudlersville road when he collided with an asparagus truck at the cross road on that stretch. Mr. P. G. Wilmer, who came along shortly after the accidnt brought him to the office of Dr. Frank B. Hines and he was taken to Baltimore the folowing morning and operated on Friday morning. He is expected to return to his home here within th next two weeks.

P. E. GENERAL CONVENTION

MET AT SALISBURY THIS WEEK. BISHOP DAVENPORT HONORED

Two hundred and fifty members of the laity and clergy, representing forty Episcopal parishes on the Eastern Shore, attended the annual laymen's dinner in the parish house of St. Peter's Church, Salisbury, Monday, when tributes were paid to the Rt. Rev. George Williams Davenport, bishop of the diocese of Easton, in observance of the tenth anniversary of his consecration as bishop.

On behalf of the clergy, Bishop Davenport was presented with an Episcopal ring, a stone of amethyst set in gold and engraved with the coat of arms of the diocese. A purse of gold of over $1000 was the gift of the laity of the diocese.

The presentation on behalf of the clergy was by the Rev. Charles L. Atwater, rector of Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, and that of the laity by Henry J. Waters, chancellor of the diocese, of Princess Anne. Mrs. Davenport was the recipient of a basket of roses, testimonial of esteem from the Salisbury parish. Bishop Davenport responded to the tributes to himself and Mrs. Davenport.

The Bishop will attend the Lambeth conference in London, England.

The Bishops annual address showed a healthy growth in the diocese both materially and spiritually in the last decade. Six churches that have been closed for a long period have recently been opened.

Contributions in the past ten years totaled $1,067,192.

In1920 there were 3,437 communicants in this diocese while now there are 4,034, and 2,174 persons have been confirmed.

Cities Disrespect For Laws

"In those things which make for material culture, there has been remarkable progress," the speaker asserted. "On the other hand, we have witnessed an increasing disrespect for laws with its attending evil."

"Education," he said, "can accomplish much, provided it is linked with religion."

Speculating on why churches today are not better attended, Bishop Davenport said:

"No doubt many people lack a sense of worship, but it is doubtful whether this will be developed until the pulpits of our land sound a note of religious truth which will satisfy the natural religious longings of people seeking a better way of life."

Bishop Davenport suggested to his clergy that in the days to come "we give greater attention to our preaching mission."

WOOL GROWERS TO RECEIVE FEDERAL AID

FIRST GROUP IN MARYLAND TO GET DEFINITE AID FROM FEDERAL FARM BOARD

Word has just been received by County Agent McVean that the wool growers of Maryland and nearby States are to receive an opportunity for service from the Agricultural Marketing Act and the Federal Farm Board. This group of farmers will be the first to have opportunity to get service or relief in the marketing of the present wool clip.

Mr. H. E Holsinger, of Caroline County, will supervise the wool marketing on the Eastern Shore.

Maryland will join the National Wool Marketing Corporation and will be represented by a regional wool association known as the United Wool Growers Association, Inc. The Maryland Farm Bureau is the cooperating Agency in this State, having membership in the Regional Corporation.

A meeting will be held at the Court House at 8.00 p. m., Monday night, May 12th at which the details of the wool marketing plan will be presented This should be of interest to many people, whether they intend to market their wool through this channel or not.

90 per cent. of the value of the wool will be advanced at time of delivery to warehouse, the balance when the wool is sold.

BOYS' CLUB MEETINGS

The Cliff City school-house was the scene of an interesting meeting of the Boy's Club on Tuesday night.

The attendance was double that of any previous meeting. President Thomas Legge Spoke on the raising of chicks. Questions on this subject were answered and a talk by Gus Startt on Poland Chinas given. Each club-member spoke about his project.

Five boys from other clubs attended. Howard Moffett of the Progressive Poultry Club and Walter Rees of the Calf Club both gave good talks.

The local leader of this club, Mr. Jester, deserves credit for his interest in and work with these boys.

4-H CLUBS

The Progressive Poultry Club met on Monday night at the home of Clarence Sutton.

After the short business session, quiz sheets o n"Knowledge of Brooding and Rearing Chicks" were passed out. These were answered in writing, returned and graded. The results will determine who gets a prize cockerel. Two more tests are to be taken.

Nine members reported on the progress of their projects. Clarence Sutton from 300 White Leghorn chicks has raised one hundred and fifteen cockerels and one hundred and thirty five pullets. The cost he says is 32 cents each. The average weight is two pounds at ten weeks.

This club intends to raise its membership thru better programs and a greater activity of its members.
