LOCAL MATTER

—A crew of sainhaulers made a haul at Piney Point one day this week and caught over 100 Hardheads and a large number of Rock Fish.

—Crabs have made their appearance in large quantities in Chester River and have caused net fishermen to take up their nets as the crabs were cutting them.

—Traffic was held up on the Chester River bridge Wednesday evening for about an hour when a tug and two large barges experienced difficulty in getting through the draw.

—The Eastern Shore District Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its next meeting, Thursday, May 15th, 1930, at Cambridge, Maryland, in the Baptist Church, the meeting will convene at 11 a. m.

—Howard Turner, of Betterton, a member of the recently appointed Eastern Shore Almshouse Commission, attended the meeting of that body held last Friday at Easton. The meeting was called by W. Hopper Gibson, of Centreville, chairman of the body.

—The Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36, American Legion, are planning an appropriate Memorial Day program on the morning of May 30th. The program includes a parade to the cemetary and decorating the graves of ex-service men. Rev. Harry Wright, of the Chestertown M. E. Church, will deliver the address at the cemetary.

—Vera Martin, 16, was awarded damages of $8,750 for injuries received June 25, 1927, in an automobile collision near St. Georges, Delaware. The award was made by a Kent County Circuit Court Jury late Friday evening after six hours of deliberation. The verdict was against Wilmer Davis, owner of a trucking line which operates out of Federalsburg, Md.

CHILD'S BODY FOUND IN RIVER

The body of an infant boy was found on the shore of Mr. W. Irvin Walker by young Needles of Chestertown Thursday of this week. A corners jury rendered a verdict that the child came to its death from causes unknown to the jury. Dr. Fisher, of Centreville, examined the body and said the child was dead before placed in the water. That it was well developed and no marks of violence were visible to show that it had met death by foul play. It was wrapped in an old cloth.

WEDDING NOTES

A very beautiful wedding took place on last Saturday evening, May 3, in Emmanuel Church when Miss Anna Edwards Perkins daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Perkins became the bride of Mr. Henry Harrison Cooke, of Elizabeth, N. J. The old historic church was ablaze with candles while the chancel was dressed in white flowers and ferns. The bride, dressed in white with a long lace veil, and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley came into the church on the arm of her father. She was preceded by her ushers and her maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Owens Perkins. The bride was met at the chancel by the groom and his best man, Mr. H. Norton Eldridge, Jr., of Brooklyn, N. Y. Rev. C. L. Atwater performed the ceremony. The maid of honor wore a dress of green chiffon with a large garden hat and carried a bouqut of roses. The ushers were: Messrs. Eben F. Perkins, 3rd, of Baltimore, Talbot W. Jenkins, of New York; Edmund T. Stubbe, of Elizabeth, N. J.; Lewis Whiting, of Northport, L. I.

A large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after the marriage, and then the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Canada and other points of interest.

BANKERS ORGANIZE

W. ROBERT HUEY, OF THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK, MADE SECRETARY-TREASURER

One hundred bankers, representing both state and national banks in Queen Annes, Talbot, Kent and Caroline counties met in Easton last Thursday evening and organized Group Five of the Maryland State Bankers Association.

J. Lemuel Roberts, cashier of the Queen Annes National Bank of Centreville was elected vice-president. Roland Chaffinch, of Denton National Bank, was elected president and Robert Huey, of the Chestertown National Bank of Chestertown named secretary and treasurer.

Daniel Henry, of Easton, spoke on "Investment Problems of Country Banks." It was a very thoughtful and helpful address. Mr. Sloane vice-president of the First National Bank of Baltimore, spoke on "Co-operation among Banks." Both of the addresses were declared to be exceptional and contained much that was of advantage to the bankers present.
