SATURDAY, JUNE 21st IS CHILDREN'S DAY

A nationally observed day for the health and happiness of children. Children's Day is part of the movement of today to give more attention to the child - the man and woman of tomorrow. Help to mold the character of the child into an honest, upright man or woman and you are helping to strengthen the country which we all cherish and love.

You can bring loads of sunshine and happiness to your children. The summer season is just getting under way. Equip them with the proper outfits and playthings that they may derive the greatest benefit from the out-of-doors. Noland's is headquarters for Children's Day needs.
