IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear Husband, Wm. H. Taylor, who departed this life June 29, 1926.

I have tried oh, so hard, in the years that has passed
To silence the cry, from my heart, till at last
I found 'twas no use, for the ache will remain
As long as I live, and my living's the same.

When smiles hide the tears and the sorrow and woe
When I laugh and I joke
So that strangers won't know
When I sing and have fun
I know in the end
T'is just the same feeling
I've lost my best friend, my husband.

HEART TO HEART TALK ABOUT WATER

Just at this time we are compelled to inform the water users of the Chestertown Water Department the TRUE situation. The water is colored near white. This is because the water is low in the wells. No rain, dry, no water. We have pumped 24 hours per day for 2 weeks, 14 days, with no relief in sight.

Therefore we request every water user to conserve the water. Don't waste. Do not use the HOSE. Better let the shrubbery burn than your HOME. We hope you will assist us, because your property is a part of the Water Department.

NOW AND THEN

MY THOUGHTS ARE GYPSIES STRAYING

My hands are servants doing
Dull tasks they can't abide,
My thoughts are gypsies straying
Across the countryside.

The hawthorn must be blooming
In a glen that I know of,
The wood-thrush must be singing
His wooing to his love.

The meadow-stream's gay waters
Are sparkling crystal-green,
And on the hill the sunlight
Falls warm and sweetly clean.

And if I burn my bread loaves
And forget that noon is near
Or neglect to dust the chair-rungs
Am I indeed so queer?

ANNE ABBOT DOVER.

So there is a son and heir born to the Lone Eagle and his wife. He was born on his mother's birthday and as a child inherits the characteristics of its parents he will surely be a high flyer.

We are wondering if Byrd standing in the hot sun and listening to speeches in his honor, or sitting in hot audience rooms does not sometimes long for antarctica and the penguins.

Most people who have read the decision of the Georgia Court that a woman has a right to be a back seat driver, are convinced that the jury must ride on bicycles.

"Albumen" was the word that won the girl from the west the $1000 prize. Lawyers editors and business men all failed to spell it. One young man's definition of the word was, "A book where the family's pictures are kept."

The bears are still in the ascendency over the bulls in Wall street.

"The stock-market bear
Is a beast to beware;
His greed, he can't seem to command it.
I'd classify him
With the highwayman grim
If it wasn't so rough on the bandit."

Yesterday was the fiftieth birthday of that remarkable woman, Helen Keller. What handicaps she has had being totally deaf and blind. Yet in spite of these she graduated at college and had done more for the blind than any one person.

Her wonderful teacher, Mrs. Macky. has taught her by writing the words on the palms of her hands, and she understands readily what is said to her by placing her hand on the speaker's throat. Her sense of touch is so keen that she enjoys music by placing her hand on the instrument and feeling the vibrations. She has travelled North, East, South and West for the purpose of establishing a foundation for the blind and no one has ever been more fortunate in collecting funds for the same. She has certainly accomplished more than most people who have been blessed with sight and hearing.

And Who Would Write the Columns?

Most people use only 25 per cent. of their brain power, says Dr. Frederick Tilney.

"We all are smarter than we know,
We all might cut more dashes.
Suppose we all were wonders, though,
Then who'd collect the ashes?

We all are able, unawares,
To put across our wishes;
We all could soon be milionaires—
But who would wash the dishes?

FIRE DESTROYS TURKEY HOUSE

Fire destroyed a turkey house on "Stoneton," the farm of Miss Nan Price on Tuesday evening of this week.

Thirty six young turkeys were reported to have been killed in the fire. The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company responded to a call but the building was a complete loss when the firemen arrived at the scene.

APPOINTED MATRON AT W. C.

Mrs. Allan Willson, of Rock Hall, has been appointed Matron of Reid Hall, Washington College to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Miss Margaret Brewer, former matron, to associate Dean of Women.

Dr. Esther M. Dole will fill the vacancy of Dean of Women caused by the resignation of Miss Genevieve Boland.

HOSPITAL PLANS READY

The detailed plans and specifications for the Kent and Upper Queen Anne's hospital were submitted by the architect, Mr. Henry Hopkins, of Baltimore, to the building committee in Chestertown yesterday.

It is understood that specifications will be submitted to bidders immediately and if the bids are satisfactory, construction work will start within a very short time.

RECEIVE CERTIFICAAES FOR SHORT COURSE

Mrs. G. A. Carroll, of Chestertown, and Mrs. Clarence Thompson, of Rock Hall, were among the seventy-eight women to receive certificates for four years attendance at the Rural Women's Short Course at the University of Maryland.

Attendance at the Rural Women's Short Course was greater than in any previous year and maintained the record of showing an increase every year since it was started. A total of 573 rural women registered for the entire course, and almost one-hundred additional women were present one or more days.

CHESTERTOWN WINS FROM DOVER

The golf team of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club easily defeated the golf team of the Dover Country Club on the local course Saturday afternoon. The score of the match was Chestertown 29 1-2 points, Dover 6 1-2 points.

Those playing on the team of the local club were: W. J. Stenger, H. S. Russell, C. E. Truslow, R. H. Collins, Jr., Don T. Falls, Jr., E. H. Strong, J. T. Kibler, E. L. Clark, Horace Beck, J. S. Metcalfe, B. R. Bartley and Brown Metcalfe.

The local team will have a return match with Dover on the Dover course July 12th.

BUS GOES OVER EMBANKMENT

A bus carrying about 14 colored people while returning from Betterton last Saturday evening crashed into a team, traveling in the same direction, and occupied by Joseph and Pearl Graves.

The horse, team, bus and occupants went over a ten foot embankment, the horse and team landing on the bottom. When everything was cleared away the bus riders were all accounted for without a scratch but the horse and team did not fare so well. The horse was thought to be dead but when he was cut loose from the harness he kicked himself clear of the wreckage and was last seen making a record dash for home. The bus and carriage were damaged.

Joseph Graves received a broken leg and was the only injured.

Kent County has the honor of having two of these five progressive rural women in the state so honored. Mrs. L. A. Sutton was awarded the honor last year.

HOSPITAL TO BE CONTINUED

At a meeting of the Kent County Public Health Association and the physicians of Kent County held at the Halth Center Tuesday evening of this week, it was decided to postpone the closing of the small hospital in Chestertown until September 1st. This postponement was due to the demand of a suitable place to perform minor operations on children of Kent county and part of Queen Annes county.

Since the opening of this hospital in September, 1928, there have been 220 operations performed by local and visiting physicians, and while a few of the patients have been adults, the large majority have been school and pre-school children. The continuation of the hospital will afford an opportunity for parents to have their children cared for locally before school opens in September.

The burden of rent and maintenance of this small institution has been born by the Kent County Public Health Association and as the treasury of this organization is very limited an effort will be made during the next two months to make it self supporting.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to fill the position of rural carrier at Chestertown, Md.

The examination will be held at Chestertown, Md., and receipt of applications will close on July 11, 1930.

The salary of a rural carrier on a standard daily wagon route of 24 miles is $1,800 per annum, with an additional $30 per mile per annum for each mile or major fraction thereof in excess of 24 miles. Certain allowances are also made for the maintenance of equipment. THE EXAMINATION WILL BE OPEN ONLY TO CITIZENS WHO ARE ACTUALLY DOMICILED IN THE TERRITORY OF THE POST OFFICE WHERE THE VACANCY EXISTS and who meet the other requirments set forth in Form 1977. Both men and women, if qualified, may enter this examination, but appointing officers have the legal right to specify the sex desired in requesting certification of eligibles. Form 1977 and application blanks can be obtained from the vacancy office mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications must be on file with the Commission at Washington, D. C., prior to the close of business on the date specified above. At the examination, applicants must furnish unmounted photographs of themselves taken within two years.

The vacancy on this Route was caused by the promotion of Mr. Fred S. Russell to Assistant Postmaster.

This route was scheduled to be discontinued on June 1st, but vigorous protests by patrons prevented the change and a carrier will be appointed following the examination.

TO DISCUSS NEW CHARTER

A meeting of the Chestertown Mercantile section of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce was held on Tuesday of this week for the purpose of discussing the advisability of promoting a move to have a new charter drawn up for Chestertown.

The present charter of Chestertown is antiquated and is not sufficient for the proper management of a town in modern times. The method of electing Commissioners always brings up a controversey on election day. The merchants took no definite action but appointed a committee who will call a public meeting for the purpose of determining the attitude of the citizens of the town toward the matter.

The establishing of a new charter can only come through an act of the Maryland Legislature which will meet in 1931, but immediate action is urged so that everything can be in readiness when the Legislature meets.

BOY SCOUTS RESCUE DROWNING YOUTH

JAMES ANTHONY AND PHILIP BROOKS SAVE LIFE OF RAYFIELD REED

Rayfield Reed, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reed, was rescued from drowning on Wednesday morning through the heroic efforts of Boy Scouts, James Anthony and Philip "Sonny", Brooks when he fell from the Chester River bridge while crabbing.

Rayfield was perched on an old abandoned pile of the bridge when part of it gave way throwing him into the water. His cries for help were heard by James Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey Anthony, who threw his clothing off and jumped overboard, catching young Reed as he was going down the third time. A strong ebb tide carried both boys down the river and Philip Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brooks, seeing the plight of the boys jumped overboard and went to their rescue.

Young Anthony clung to the lifeless form of young Reed but was unable to keep the lad's head above water and was tiring fast when young Brooks came to his assistance. The three boys drifted down with the tide and were about three hunderd yards from the bridge before they were pulled in a boat by Mr. Nelsie Nelson, an employee on the new bridge.

Resusitation efforts were started by bridge employees and the boy was then rushed to the office of Dr. Frank B. Hines where Mrs. Hines, assisted by Mrs. Eben F. Perkins revived the boy and he was then taken to his home on Maple Ave., in the local ambulance.

Young Anthony and Brooks are both members of the Boy Scout Troupe, of Chestertown and are in line for a life saving medal, something that is the dream of every Boy Scout.

FIRE COMPANY BAND WINS CUP

The thirty-eight piece band of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company won the Emerich cup for the best band in the parade held in Baltimore recently in connection with the State Firemen's Convention.

This honor designates the local band as the best fire company band in the state as it was in competition with practically every company in the state. This band under the leadership of Professor C. A. Bacon is a great credit to Chestertown.

Band to Broadcast Tomorrow

The band has been invited to broadcast over W F B R, Baltimore tomorrow afternoon, Sunday, and radio fans will hear the locals in action between 1 and 2 p. m. standard time.

STORM HITS KENT

The dry spell that has held Kent county in its grip for several weeks, was broken Thursday evening when a storm broke and reached cloud-burst proportions for several minutes. The gutters on he north side of High St. were unable to carry off the storm water and the pavement was flooded.

The rain was accompanied by a heavy electrical storm and lightening struck the home of Mr. William Masin, in Quaker Neck but no damage was done.

Lighting struck the barn on the Farm of Mr. James Brown at Brown's Corner, setting it on fire, and completely destroying it. Two calves and farming implements were also destroyed in the fire.

Shade trees throughout the county were damaged by the heavy wind which accompanied the storm.

—Traffic on the Chester River bridge was held about an hour on Friday of last week when a barge knocked the drawer seat off on the Queen Anne's side.

MORE HOMES NEEDED FOR FRESH AIRS

Kent County homes are preparing to care for ten children from the New York slums, known as "Fresh Airs," for two weeks during the last of July and the first part of August.

The committee in charge of making Kent a "friendly community" is hoping more people will open their hearts and doors so that at least twenty children may enjoy the much-needed change.

The majority of children listed for Kent are small girls, six years of age. A few boys are listed, however. The host and hostess may select the sex and age of the child-guests. The ages range from six to sixteen years.

With the intense heat of this past week it is easy to imagine the suffering among the poor in the crowded tenement districts of New York City.

All children undergo a thorough physical examination and are sent out only in the best of health and their cleanliness is assured. This is done by the Tribune Fresh Air Fund to protect the families to which the children go for their short vacation. Every precaution is taken. Any accident or illness requiring a physicians care while the child is a guest is paid for by the Tribune Fund.

Kent Countains desiring to bring two weeks of health and happiness to such children are urged to communicate with Mrs. Thomas Massey, Chairman or Mrs. Nell C. Westcott, Secretary, before July 1, in order that the list may be sent to headquarters and the children assigned according to age and sex to the prospective hosts.

CHAMBER PLANS PRODUCTS SHOW DINNER

The Kent County Chamber of Commerce has set July 9 for its Sixth Semi-Annual Dinner which will be held at the Hotel Chesapeake, Betterton. Mr. Jack Owens, proprietor of the hotel has planned a fine menu of Maryland delicacies and is said to have the finest cocks in Maryland.

The theme of the dinner will be the proposed Products Show of Kent County products. This Show has been discussed for a year or more by the Chamber and began to crystalize early this year when Mr. McVean was appointed general chairman. Mr. McVean called several meetings of representatives of various Kent organizations but they were poorly attended. The Chamber then decided to devote its regular semi-annual get-to-gether to gathering county people at Betterton for a county-wide discussion of the plan. If the response is good from the agricultural interests the show will be staged sometime in September.

Speakers qualified to talk on County Shows will address the meeting, telling of the management of similar events and the benefits reaped therefrom. The Chamber feels that the young farmers and the young women club members are to be encouraged in the splendid work of farm and home making. Exhibits will cover grains, fruits, flowers, vegetables, canned goods, poultry, cattle, farm machinery for he home and for the farm, itself as well as other exhibits that add to the comfort and ease of living.

Tickets will be on sale for the dinner at $1.50 a plate at the office of the Chamber and other centers throughout the County. The public is cordially invited to attend and express an opinion for or against the Products Show.

BRIDGE WORKER DROWNED

Dan Baker, colored, was drowned yesterday morning when he fell from one of the bent on the new Chester River bridge on the Queen Anne side of the drawer. Being unable to swim he soon sank below the surface and the body was recovered in about ten minutes.

Dr. Frank B. Hines, assisted by the ambulance unit of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company with their inhalator and members of the National Detachment of the Maryland National Guard worked on the drowned man for an hour before hope was abandoned.

Baker came to Kent county two years ago from Wilson, N. C., to work on the farm of Mr. Wm. Bell and has been in this section since that time. He was reported to be one of the best laborers on the bridge.

Following the drowning a number of the colored help quit work. This was the first accident among the workers on the bridge.

RECEIVES DAMAGES FROM U. S.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to pay to Mrs. Evelyn Harris, of Kent county, Md., $1,250 for damage to her pear orchard, caused by a fire, under a bill passed by the Senate today, sponsored by Senator Goldsborough.

The blaze was caused by the alleged negligence of an employe of the Aberdeen Proving Ground observation tower at Howell's Point, in 1925.
