July 1st—Mr. Harry Rash from Fairlee to Easton hospital.

July 1st—Mr. James Bramble from Chestertown to Ardmore, Pa. Semi-paralysis.

YACHTSMEN VS. WATERMEN

A race was scheduled for July 4th, between the Chesapeake Bay sailing Canoes Island Blossom and Mayflower, at the time of going to press and excitement was running high.

The Island Blossom Chester River Yacht and Country Club defender for the past three years in canoe races in Chesapeake Bay waters will be manned by yachtsmen, while the Mayflower, owned and recently rebuilt by Mr. Howard Strong will be manned by Greys Inn Creek watermen.

A good breeze will afford spectators plenty of excitement as both boats have proved their ability to upset.

Comparing the two crews, the watermen have been canoe sailors but years have elapsed since canoe racing was a popular sport and it remains to be seen whether they can stage a comeback. The crew of the Island Blossom have had the experience of sailing that craft in races during the past three years.

While the course of the race had not been determined at the time of going to press it was understood that the race will start and end at the Country Club pier. Both boats will sail under the Country Club burgee.

CHESAPEAKE BAY LEAGUE

Kennedyville, after running neck and neck with St. Georges for first place in the league until the last three weeks has dropped out of the running for the winner of the first half of the season which was scheduled to close July 4th.

Galena has the opportunty to uphold the baseball honors of Kent county in the league, being only one game behind St. Georges. St. Georges has won seven games and lost one while Galena has won six and lost two. These two teams were scheduled to meet Friday morning and a win for Galena would tie the two teams. Galena was scheduled to play Kennedyville Friday afternoon and if the up-county teams wins both games Friday and St. Georges loses both games the former will be the winner of the series.

The league series is divided in half and the winner of the first half will play the winner of the second half for the championship.

DEATHS

Colonel John C. W. Brooks, U. S. A., retired, died Friday, June 25th, of pneumonia at the station hospital, Fort Totten, N. Y.. Services were held at 11.30 a. m. Saturday, followed by burial at West Point in the afternoon.

Colonel Brooks was born at Binghamton, N. Y., on July 14, 1862, and was graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1885. After thirty years in the artillery he was retired at his own request in 1912, but returned to active duty in the World War and continued in the service until November 1, 1922. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Frances B. Fletcher of Douglaston, N. Y., and two sisters, Misses Mary andMinnie Brooks, of Kent County.

Colonel Brooks maintained a summer home at Quaker Neck wharf near Chestertown, and had many friends in Chestertown and vicinity.

Mr. Hughes was one of the pioneer orchardists of the state and was prominent in banking and other activities in Washington county.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Dr. H. C. Hughes, of Chestertown, and a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Hoffman, of Washington, D. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Howell, left this week for Alfred, N. Y., where Dr. Howell will teach in the summer school of Alfred University.

Mr. Horace Wheeler, of Betterton, left this week for New York where he will attend the summer school at Columbia University.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, it has pleased an All-Wise providence to remove from our midst the soul of our deceased friend and fellow director, Thomas G. Wroth and Whereas the members of this Board valued in the very highest terms the soupnd business judgment and the careful thought given by the deceased to the interests of the Third National Bank, therefore Be it resolved that we herewith give expression to the high esteem in which he was held by his associate directors, and that we shall ever have in mind that calm and dispassionate consideration which the deceased manifested in his efforts to advance the interests of the bank and endeavoring to emulate the fine spirit which he manifested in his business dealings with his fellowmen, as well as in his attitude to those things which inured to the welfare of the community in which he lived an honored and upright life for so many years.

Be it further resolved, that these resolutions be made a part of the minutes of the Board, that they be published in the county press, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

What a Dollar Does for You

Follow it over an A & P counter

33⅓ cents go wherever the best food is to be found at least cost to you—in your neighborhood, in other parts of the country, or in foreign lands . . . Every cent of this part of your dollar is on the job for you every day. It comes back to you as food—the kind you prefer.

14 cents stay at home—for your landlords, salary and wage earners who live among you, your tax collectors and community activities, your light, heat, power, and water companies; your newspapers for advertising that tells you special bargain news.

97½ cents, the sum of these items, keeps an A & P store going, doing its full share in your community's business life.

2½ cents, slightly more than the cost of a postage stamp, is the only charge you pay A & P for all this service.

FOURTH ANNUAL RAM SALE

Many of Maryland's best flocks of purebred sheep will be represented in the Fourth Annual Eastern Shore Ram Sale to be held in Centreville, July 29th. A list of consignors, includes the following breeders: Mr. W. P. Evans, and Son, Pocomoke; Mr. Geo. F. Adkins, Parsonburg; Mr. M. C. Sherman, Queenstown; Mr. Stanley M. Cox, Oxford; Mr. Hobart G. Hutton, Brighton; Mr. Wm. Grelck, Woodlawn; Mr. John E. Muncaster, Jr., Derwood; Mr. G. B. Fenwick, Glydon; Mr. E. D. Stotlemyer, Boonsboro; Mr. R. C. F. Weagly, Hagerstown; the University of Maryland, College Park; and the St. Amour Company, Mortonville, Pennsylvania. The sale will be made up of 23 Hampshire rams, 10 Shropshire rams, and 2 Southdown rams. It is interesting to note that a number of these good flocks are situated on the Eastern Shore.

A show of all the rams in the sale will be held at eleven o'clock. This is a new departure. It is the hope of the management this will prove to be an attraction of much educational value. Ribbons will be awarded to the first and second prize winners in each breed.

The sale will be held as usual on the court house lawn at Centreville and will start promptly at one o'clock. Terms of the sale are cash. The pedigrees will be transferred to the new owners without cost. Buyers from distant points can have their newly purchased rams crated and delivered at the express station for a charge of $2.50 each.

Sheepmen from all the counties on the Eastern Shore are making plans to attend the sale and other events of the day according to County Agent J. D. McVean. Several tours and excursions from distant points are being arranged. Mr. K. A. Clark manager of the event, is anxious to have every sheep man in the whole section present, and invites you all to come.
