DEMOCRATIC MEETING

AT

KENNEDYVILLE

ON

FRIDAY, AUG. 1, 1930

at 7.30 p. m.
On the lawn of
JAMES H. GROVES, JR.
near Kennedyville

All Democrats are invited to this meeting, both ladies and gentlemen.

THE DEMOCRATIC GATHERING at Tolchester on Tuesday last demonstrates the favor in which Governor Ritchie is held by the people of the Eastern Shore as well as throughout the State. It was estimated that about 5,000 Easternshoremen were present at the gathering. A long string of cars passed over Chester River bridge at Chestertown bound for Tolchester to participate in the Democratic meeting held at that popular Bay shore resort and to give their approval to the selection of the Democratic State Candidates and to the selection of Hon. T. Alen Goldsborough as the Democratic Candidate for Congress from this Congressional District. We can find no information for much of the propaganda this is being circulated about the dissatisfaction with Governor Ritchie for his fourth consecutive term. Where could the Democratic party, or any other party, get a better executive than Governor Ritchie has proven to be? If there is a man in this State who can handle the affairs of State as well or any better than our present Governor we would be glad for some one to suggest that man and give us their reasons for their belief. That Governor Ritchie has attracted national attention was evidenced last week when a representative of a syndicate of some of the largest and most influential dailies in this country visited our office seeking information that led us to believe that that syndicate was interested in our Governor.
