FASHION NOTES

BARE ARMS RETURN; CAPELETS DISAPPEAR

Bare arms are coming to the fore again in Washington as hot days arrive. The beguiling little capelet and suggestion of sleeve which inaugurated the Summer have fallen away to mere nothingness.

Tanned young Amazons swing into fashionable tea rooms with arms bare to the shoulder. Necks of the simplest frocks are cut quite low and soft bands of silk are often worn around the head in place of hats. White head bands are worn with the all white costumes which are more popular than ever.

All Paris is wearing black and white in combination, New York is adopting it as its own, and the whole country will be following. There may be nothing new about a black dress, but when it is accented by white suede gloves (and who has dared wear white gloves in years?), a white hat, a white gilet or a white flower or two, it becomes outstandingly chic.

Raffia toys are the newcomers in exclusive Paris nursery circles.

Shops which set the styles in playthings are showing raffia made toys which will withstand almost everything in the way of wear, tear and water.

Giraffes, snails, hottentots and snakes are in the collection.

LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

The Building Committee, after receiving bids from 12 general contractors, 18 Electric wiring, heating and plumbing bidders amounting to $63,519.03, realized that a hospital to meet the needs of Kent and Upper Queen Anne'sCounties, as outlined by the physicians and general public, could not be constructed for the originally estimated amount. The general committee, before whom the entire matter was submitted, has therefore decided to call a public meeting of all subscribers to the original fund and of all other friends of the hospital on Thursday, August 14, 1930, at 8 o'clock p. m. at the Court House, Chestertown to seek advice with reference to the wisdom of limiting expenditures to the sum in hand and as to the course to be pursued in order to obtain additional funds, so that the community may have a hospital that really meets its requirements and needs. A full attendance at this meeting is earnestly requested and it is hoped that all will come prepared for a frank expression of opinion.

HEART TO HEART TALK ABOUT WATER

Just at this time we are compelled to inform the water users of the Chestertown Water Department the TRUE situation. The water is colored near white. This is because the water is low in the wells. No rain, dry, no water. We have pumped 24 hours per day for 2 weeks, 14 days, with no relief in sight.

Therefore we request every water user to conserve the water. Don't waste. Do not use the HOSE. Better let the shrubbery burn than your HOME. We hope you will assist us, because your property is a part of the Water Department.

NOW AND THEN

OLD HOUSE

There's a house across the hilltop that no one's living in,
With rotten rafters falling and windows hollow-eyed,
With weeds upon the threshold and nothing left within
But the ruins of a bedstead where the last possessor died.
The goldenrod is nothing dilapidated pickets
That protected the dooryard where the children played,
And the cow pasture's tangled with encroaching alder thickets
That obliterate the paths that the cattle made.

Strange incongruities the garden hedge encloses,
With rows of careful gardening obscured by random seeds,
With wild things from the meadows in the shadows of the roses,
And little Johnny-jump-ups that hardly top the weeds.
Birds in the dawn of day, dropping from the elm trees,
Call for the children that have wandered long ago;
And summer awakens it with riotous fertilities,
And winter makes it silent with a covering of snow.

—Atlantic Monthly

The weather bureau which has been in existence for sixty years, gives out the information that July, 1930, is the hottest month on record. And August seems to be following in its wake. Uncomfortable as it makes us, the drought which is the worst in the memory of man is drying up crops and slaughtering cattle. It seems that the planet Pluto must be aiding the sun in its efforts to dry us up. Isn't there a verse in the bible. "A fruitful land maketh he barren, because of the evil of the inhabitants thereof?" Let us all take heed of our ways.

Isnt' it strange how our ambitions grow less and less as the heat advances.

SUMMER AMBITIONS

"I'd like to be a polar bear
And loll on icebergs blue—
And not do very much of that Unless I wanted to.

I'd like to be a playful seal,
Quite cool and full of vim—
And never have to change my clothes
When going for a swim!

Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll, who is a member of the Pennsylvania of Minature painters, one of the most exclusive organizations in the country, has in a short period painted fifty-five miniatures. She has exhibited in Baltimore, Chicago and New York, where only the very best are accepted. It is a pleasure to know that the same Mrs. Ingersoll is living in our midst.

In the scarcity of enlivening news, interest is aroused in the warfare of Mrs. Patterson, one time princess, and Princess Alice Longworth the not to be put down daughter of the late President Roosevelt and the wife of the speaker of the house. The country has been long aware of the dispute between Mrs. Gann and Mrs. Longworth about the question of prestige. Now Mrs. Patterson comes out on the front page of a Washington paper making sport of her attempting to aid her friend, Mrs. McCormick in her race for the senate.

As Mrs. Longworth has plenty of repartee at her command it promises to be an interesting war of words. Quoting some of Mrs. Longworth witty sayings. When asked by a friend to send her an antique bureau, she replied that she could find none in Washington, but that there was an oil stained cabinet which they wished to dispose of.

Another time when asked what was Mrs. Gann's favorite color, she replied. She supposed it was gan—grene.

Truly the drouth is heavy in the land. Never in the memory of the oldest inhabitant has such a devastating drouth visited our land especially the fair fields of the Eastern Shore.

Garden trucks has dried up and corn and tomatoes are threatened. The pastures offer no sustenance for the cattle and the supply of milk is growing less and less. In many parts of the country cattle are dying for lack of water and in some places the washing of clothes is forbidden on account of lack of water.

A desolation equaling the destruction of floods, tornadoes or earthquakes was described to the President in a telegram for aid despatched last night by Governor Sampson of Kentucky.

A plea for a proclamation for nation-wide prayer meetings to ask divine aid for rain came to the Chief Executive from Alexandria, just across the Potomac from the capital.

—Work on surveying the site to be used for the construction of the new Chestertown Armory was completed last week.

HORSE SHOW ON FRENCH FARM

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20TH

CHESTERTOWN VOLUNTEER FIRE COMPANY BAND TO PLAY

At a meeting of the Committee held on Monday it was finally decided to hold the Sixth Annual Kent County Horse Show on the farm where Mr. William J. French lives, on Wednesday, August 20th.

Last years show was held on this farm but the field used then is now in corn. The field selected for this year is somewhat smaller than the committee would like to have, but it seems that it is the best that can be obtained. All of the other fields which have been offered or looked at by members of the committee on the Show Grounds have been found to be too rough, and full of ravines or too far from the places where most of the horses are stabled, or not on a State road.

The Chestertown Fire Company band which has been so successful recently, will play at the show.

The officers of the Horse Show Association are the same as those last year, they are as follows:

Wilbur Ross Hubbard, President.
C. M. Newcomb, Secretary.
Stephen R. Collins, Treasurer.
Show Ring Committee:
Harry Nichols, William J. French, William Toulson, Grover Coleman, Frank Coleman.
Marshall, Edward Hurtt.
Announcer, Stockton Startt.

The Kent County Horse Show has always aroused a great deal of interest throughout the County and has drawn horses and spectators from the neighboring counties and some people from Baltimore, Wilmington, and Philadelphia.

This year it is expected that there will be given a larger crowd than usual, for many people who live in other Counties and who have never attended our shows before, have expressed a desire to attend this year and have asked to be notified of the date and place of the Show.

There will be no entry fees charged for horses in any of the events, but a charge of fifty cents will be made for every person who attends the Show including those who are holding or showing horses.

KENT BOYS WIN AT CAMBRIDGE

At the Dorchester County Fair the 5-County 4-H Judging Contest on Wednesday, August 6, was won for the third successive time by the Kent County 4-H Boys. The Nathan cup becomes a permanent possession of the Boys.

Kent's score was 3285 points; Dorchester County 3050 points; Caroline County 2935 points. Norman Sutton was the high scoring individual with a total score of 725. A Dorchester County boy was 2nd, a Caroline County boy 3rd. Edwin McCrea, of Rock Hall was in a virtual tie for 3rd place. A Talbot County boy was 5th.

The Kent County boys ranked as follows:

Norman Sutton, 1st.; Edwin McCrea, 2nd.; Walter Rees 3rd; William Carroll, 4th; Stephen McCrea 5th.

It is very gratifying to all to have the cup won permanently by the 4-H boys.

Older Club Boys, no longer eligible to compete, deserve credit for their assistance and the enthusiasm they impart to the younger members.

Stanley Sutton, Walter Morris and Wilbur Morris rendered valuable assistance to County Agents McVean and King in coaching the Club Boys for this contest.

Albert Nicholson, who was indisposed, did not compete at Cambridge but is hoped that he will be on the Kent County Team competing at the State Fair.

Louise Ackerman and Barbara Bigelow, of Fairlee Club, represented the Girls 4-H Clubs of Kent County in the 5-County judging contest. The results of this contest are not yet available but these girls made a very creditable showing for Kent County.

Kent Woman Leads Way

The first advance registration for the Farmers' Marketing Conference, which will be held at the University of Maryland on August 12 to 15, was sent in by Mrs. H. M. Baker, of Kent County. Mrs. Baker was one of the first in this State to raise turkeys on a nextensive scale and is still a prominent breeder and grower of that kind of birds.

In commetning upon the interest shown by Mrs. Baker in the Marketing Conference, Dr. T. B. Symons, Director of Extension, points out that the farm women are as vitally interested as the men in finding satisfactory solutions for the problems connected with marketing farm products.

The yachts owned by Messrs. P. M. Brooks, R. H. Rogers, and Neal A. Truslow left for the races on Thursday.

BANTUM CAR ON DISPLAY

A. S. Turner & Sons, local dealers, have on display an American Austin Bantum Car which has created considerable interest on the streets of Chestertown.

This automobile, which is about half the size of other makes of automobiles has a 75 in. wheel base and is 115 over all. It is powered by a 8 H. P. motor and its specifications state that it will average 40 miles to a gallon of gasoline and 1000 miles on 2 1-2galso o nf it is also capable of attaining a speed of 55 miles an hour. It is equipped with 4 wheel brakes and an alunimum base and transmission.

One of its features is a short turning radius and easy parking.

ROCK HALL CARNIVAL TO CONTINUE

The Rock Hall firemen's carnival, scheduled to close tonight, will continue until Monday night and the usual closing night program will be held Monday.

The carnival has been a success and has been marked by a number of special features.

The firemen's parade drew a large crowd Wednesday evening, although conflicting carnivals kept a number of fire companies away.

Prizes were awarded as follows:
Best band, Chestertown.
Most men, Church Hill.
Longest distance, Millington.
Best appearance, Sudlersville.

LARGE CATCHES OF FISH REPORTED

It is reported that local net fishermen are catching large quantities of Rock and other table fish near Tolchester. A four pound Pampano was caught there this week and was purchased by Rev. John White who states that it was the most delicious fish he ever ate. It is a rare fish in these waters and is said to be the only one caught here for many years.

Some of our local line fishermen report fine catches between Ringgold's Point and Queenstown also on Shell Bar near Quaker Neck. There are said to be more Chesapeake Bay White Perch in Chester River this year than for many years, and they are affording fine sport for our hook and line sportsmen.

TO JUDGE AT CAMBRIDGE FAIR

On August 6th the following group from Kent County will journey to Cambridge to compete in judging 4-H exhibits: Louise Ackerman, Barbara Bigelow, Albert Nicholson, Norman Sutton, Walter Rees, Dale Rees, Clarence Sutton, Herschel Carroll, Wilbur Morris, William Carroll, Stephen McCrea, Edwin McCrea.

The County Agent, and Assistant County Agent, Mrs. McCrea and M. P. Edwards will attend the Fair with this party of boys and girls.

Our Calf Club Boys have won the Nathan Cup two years in succession. If successful in judging this year, the cup will premanently remain with Kent County. Scores of the five highest boys will be considered.

Louise Ackerman and Barbara Bigelow will judge in the exhibits by 4-H Club Girls.

CALL MEETING OF HOSPITAL CONTRIBUTORS

The general committee of the proposed new Kent and Upper Queen Anne's General Hospital met at the Health Center Monday afternoon for the purpose of receiving the report of the building committee.

Following the report of the building committee, which showed the bids for the hospital building, heating, plumbing and wiring amounted to $63,519.03, the general committee decided to place the matter before the contributors and all others interested in the hospital, as this sum exceeds the amount of money in hand.

This meeting has been set for next Thursday evening, August 14th at 8 p. m., and all those interested are requested to attend the meeting and be prepared to express themselves with reference to limiting expenditures to the sum in hand or to the course to be pursued to obtain additional funds.

HEALTH NOTES.

PRECAUTIONS FOR SWIMMERS

Because of the large number of drownings that have occurred recently in the State, Mr. W. Perry Bradley, Secretary and Executive of the local organization of Boy Scouts, has outlined, at the request of Dr. R. H. Riley, Director of the State Department of Health, precautions which should be taken by all swimmers and bathers. Mr. Bradley's recommendations follow:

"From the standpoint of health, there is probably no exercise better calculated to keep th body in good condition than swimming. But certain necessary rules should be observed: First of all, have an examination made by an experienced physician to be sure you have no heart condition or organic defect that would make indulgence in the sport dangerous. If your physician says that it is safe for you to go into the water, lose no time in learning to swim.

"But Don't swim right after eating. Wait about two hours.

"Don't swim while overheated. Wait until you have cooled off.

"Don't swim until you are completely exhausted. Stop before you are all tired out.

"Don't dive unless you are sure the water is deep enough. Serious injury or death is likely to result from foolhardiness in this respect.

"Don't go into the water if you are not well. Think of the other fellow as well as yourself. Colds, pink eye, eye, ear, nose and throat infections and other communicable diseases are spread through swimming pools and bathing beaches.

"Last year there were 152 deaths from drowning in Maryland. This year n the month of June alone, 24 persons lost their lives unnecessarily in this way. Each week end as the crowds throng to the shores, we hear of risks foolishly taken and of lives lost as a consequence.

"Observance of the precautions mentioned above will help greatly to reduce the danger of accidents.

"In addition, there are certain hazards that should be avoided. Underwater swimming has proved decidedly dangerous and is known to have been the cause of many deaths. It is of little practical value and should be discouraged.

"Long distance swimming, overtasking one's strength and endurance is often a direct cause of trouble. A properly manned boat should always accompany the swimmer.

"The danger from diving into unknown water cannot be over emphasized.

"Ring buoys should be conspicuously displayed wherever people assemble for the purpose of bathing or swimming. Docks, floats, piers and life boats should all be equipped with this valuable piece of ilfe-saving apparatus.

"Qualified guards should be in charge of every public swimming pool. Inexperienced bathers or swimmers should not be permitted to enter the pools when the guards are not on duty.

SHEEP KILLED BY DOGS

Israel Heller, Chestertown stock dealer, who placed a large flock of sheep on Airy Hill farm, three miles from here, appeared before the Board of County Commissioners at their weekly meeting yesterday and filed a claim for damages for the loss of twenty-seven sheep and marketable lambs which were killed on Monday night by stray dogs.

This is the heaviest loss that has been sustained by anyone in Kent county from this cause for a number of years.

The commissioners allowed the owner $6 for each animal killed, which is paid from a fund created for the purpose by a board through annual taxes collected by the county on dogs.

FARMER'S PICNIC AUGUST 21

The annual farmer's picnic under the auspices of the Kent County Farm Bureau, will be held at Tolchester on Thursday, August 21st.

A full days program, which includes games and novelties of all kinds, has been arranged. An effort is being made to stage a baseball game between Howard county farmers and Kent county farmers which will prove a very interesting event in the days program. The long speaking program will be eliminated this year. It is understood that a few remarks will be made by Messrs. Davis and Stuart, president and secretary of the State organization. The detailed program will be published next week.

CHAMPIONSHIP NEXT WEEK

The qualifying round for the club golf championship of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club will be held on Sunday of next week, August 17th.

Following the qualifying round, which will be medal play, the tournament will continue with match play for the next four weeks.
