CLOSED SEASON ON SUMMER DUCKS

It is unlawful to hunt, pursue or kill wood duck (summer duck) at any time under Federal Regulations. Section 38 or Article 99 of the Public Code of General Laws of the State of Maryland provides it to be unlawful to hunt, pursue, catch or kill any species of wild duck in Maryland between the first day of February and the 31st day of October in any year. Therefore, the open season for the hunting of wildfowl in Maryland is November 1st to January 31st, inclusive. The Federal regulations prohibit the hunting, pursuing or killing of wood duck (summer duck) at any time and as the Federal law supersedes our State law, it is unlawful to hunt or kill wood duck (summer duck) in Maryland at any time. Under a closed season as provided by the Federal regulations, wood ducks in Maryland territory have shown a 100 per cent. increase in the past five years. Reports from the breeding areas of this species of wildfowl this season are to the effect that they are more numerous than they have been for the past ten years in any on season.

In the first place, the wood duck or summer duck does not associate closely with other species. For the benefit of the public, we call their attention to rule which can be used for identification of the wood duck.

The wood duck (summer duck) has four prominent characteristics:

1. They are brilliantly colored and when flying display very plainly the white coloring of the lower part of the body. Their high-colored crest and cheeks are easily seen when they rest on land or water.

2. Due to the protection which has been given the wood duck, it has become more or less tame. It rises slowly from the water and is likely to fly closer to the hunter than other ducks.

3. In flying, wood ducks move their heads constanly from side to side. We advise the hunter to pay attention and not shoot a duck that wig-wags its head.

4. Wood ducks on rising from the water make a peculiar noise. "It is like a combination between a whir-r-r and a shrill whistle which, while not very loud, rarries distinctly."

The wood duck is without question the most beautiful of all our waterfowl and is protected by the United States and Canadian governments and the sportsmen of Maryland are requested to asist in further protecting this species of beautiful game bird from the unscrupulous hunter, which will increase the supply so as to justify our government providing an open season for at least thirty days on this great species of game birds which in former years afforded some of our sportsmen so much pleasure and enjoyment.

Acidity

The common cause of digestive difficulties is excess acid. Soda cannot alter this condition, and it burns the stomach. Something that will neutralize the acidity is the sensible thing to take. That is why physicians tell the public to use Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

One spoonful of this delightful preparation can neutralize many times its volume in acid. It acts instantly; relief is quick, and very apparent. All gas is dispelled; all sourness is soon gone; the whole system is sweetened. Do try this perfect anti-acid, and remember it is just as good for children, too, and pleasant for them to take.

Any drugstore has the genuine, prescriptional product.

MIGHTIER than the MIGHTIEST WALL - - -

THREE hundred thousand men labored for fifteen years to build the mightiest of man's structures, the Great Wall of China. A masterpiece of engineering, it was erected as a barrier of protection from invasion, but it was also a barrier to communication.

TODAY, across America stretches the masterpiece of modern engineering—the network of telephone lines—not a barrier to, but a means of communication that enables you to talk from your own home to people in distant cities throughout the country as easily and as clearly as across the street. You simply give the city and telephone number you want to your operator and while you hold the line you're there.
