Both ladies and gentlemen are invited to both of these meetings.

WITH A TWO thousand one hundred and eighty registrated Democratic majority in Kent county there should, and we believe will be a sweeping victory for the entire Democratic ticket on Tuesday, November the 4th. The county ticket is made up of men who have shown their ability to hold the offices for which they aspire either through previous service in that office or through their business and personal life in Kent county.

LOCAL DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES

Senator S. Scott Beck, candidate for re-election as Senator of Kent County, has an outstanding record in the Maryland senate for the past four years. He has successfully worked for the interest of this county and the State, and his close alliance with the State administration has enabled him to accomplish those things for which he worked. He has made a special effort to find out the wants and needs of the business interests of the county and of the fishermen, oystermen and hunters, and with strong opposition in the Senate succeeded in protecting them by working for what they, as a class, want. He has succeeding in securing for Kent county its share of State appropriations for schools and for Washington College, and if returned to the state senate, we believe will ably protect the interests of this county and state.

Messrs. Ellsworth C. Bowers and Arthur H. Brice, candidates to succeed themselves as representatives to the House of Delegates, are men who are well acquainted with their duties at Annapolis. Mr. Bowers is closely connected with the agricultural and business life of the county. He has spent several terms in the Maryland Lgislature and deserves to be re-elected. Mr. Brice ably served as president of the Board of County Commissioners of this county for four years and is well acquainted with the needs of the agricultural and business interests of the county and having served one term in the Maryland Legislature, he is in a postion to ably represent this county.

Mr. Robert A. Shallcross, candidate to succeed himself as Clerk of the Circuit Court has the unanimous approval of the Democratic party in Kent county. He has efficiently served as Clerk for four years and we believe his re-election is assured. He is a farmer and hails from the fifth district.

Dr. Merritt Brice, candidate for Register of Wills has served four years in that office. He is a physician whose work carries him to all parts of the county. He has the unaimous approval of the Democratic party. He lives at Millington in the 1st district.

Mr. H. Stockton Startt, candidate for treasurer is one of the most widely known Democrats in the county. He is an able business man, well acquainted with agricultural conditions being both a banker and stock buyer. His work as auctioneer in all sections has brought him before the people, and he is actively interested in the religious life of the county. His businss ability ably fits him for the office of Treasurer of Kent county.

Mr. Robert E. Lee, candidate for Sheriff, is a young man well acquainted with the work of the Sheriff's office having served as Deputy Sheriff for the past four years. During the recent illness of Sheriff Hadaway, Mr. Lee ably conducted that office for several weeks. He has the reputation among the legal and business men of the county for efficiency in the performance of his duties. He is the choice of the Democratic party and deserves election.

Messrs. Charles D. Wood, Samuel C. Loller and Leonard Wilson, Democratic candidates for County Commissioners are the choice of the Democratic party and deserve the support of Kent County Democrats. Mr. Wood has served efficiently four years as County Commissioner. He is a farmer in the 5th District and his popularity among his party has been shown in past elections. Mr. Loller, a farmer in the 3rd District has been actively interested in the Democratic party for a long period of years. He is one of the oustanding farmers in the county and his unquestionable character and business ability ably fits him to represent Kent County. Mr. Leonard Wilson, 1st District, is a merchant in Millington. His interest in county affairs together with county management experience gained while serving as Treasurer of Kent county fits him to serve as a county commissioner.

Dr. Edward A. Scott, Messrs. James H. Groves and J. Henry Thompson are candidate to succeed themselves as Judges of the Orphans Court. Their past experience in the efficient performanc of their duties should be sufficint to assure them re-election by a large majority.

Mr. Stephen R. Collins, candidate for re-election as State's Attorney has no opposition and his election is assured. A complimentary vote from all democrats would be appreciated.
