OUR LAST APPEAL

With this, the last issue of this paper before the election on Tuesday next, we appeal to all voters who are affiliated DEMOCRATIC to VOTE for the 19 DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES on the ballot which you will receive from the ballot clerk in your voting place on Election day. If you have any personal feeling against any Democratic Candidate on the ticket don't vent your grievance on your party by voting against this or that Democratic candidate, because by so doing you are doing your party far more harm than you are doing the individual candidate. Every time you cut a candidate you stab your party. Personal grievances should be settled between parties in personal ways and not by inflicting hardships on a multitude of innocent people. Abide your time and wait for the personal opportunity if you must give vent to your feelings. The Democratic party has presented to you for your vote as representative candidates as can be found in this county and state and no one should be ashamed to vote for them. The Democratic party has always given to the people of this state the best administration and are now in a better position than ever to give even better results. Make no mistake on Tuesday next and mark your ticket for every Democrat on the ballot. The Democratic party, starting with Governor Crothers, has built every foot of improved roads that has been built in this county and state up to the present time, thus giving the splendid system which men and women in all walks of life enjoy. Last week we gave a review of the personel of the Democratic candidates, they represent men who have proved their ability to efficiently manage the offices which they seek.

SPORTS OF WEEK

WASHINGTON READY TO GIVE DREXEL HARD BATTLE ON LOCAL FIELD—A TEMPEST IN A TEAPOT —BIG TEST FOR FOOTBALL TEAMS TODAY

BY POLK T. BRAMBLE

Washington's football team is all ready for a hard battle against Drexel today on Washington Field, and the field, newly lined and turning green in spots from the recent rains, is not altogether inviting for the hard-fought game which is certain to take place thereon.. "Beat Drexel" is the slogan that is being broadcasted on cars and by placards on every side.. Whether Washington can make this request good remains to be seen. Going into the game under a big handicap of weight, as well as experience, we look for Coaches Kibler, Crothers and Russell's cohorts to make a creditable showing.

We don't know whether the lines that follow should be in the sports column or in the obituary notices. However, we suppose it should be listed under the heading of sports. At any rate, the annual tug-of-war took place Monday afternoon in the vicinity of Brooks' Mill, near town, between the Freshmen and the Sophomores. The two classes were evenly matched regarding strength on the rope, and neither could gain a decided victory, although the latter were able to dislodge the Freshmen and pull them forward about four feet. Fifteen took part on each team, which was loudly applauded by its favorities. After the tug-of-war, a real battle in the muddy stream took place, which left all who participated covered with mud and dirt. Both classes showed fine spirit, and took their doses without actually going into a fight.

Basketball practice is being held regularly at the college, and Washington, as usual, has a good chance for state championship. Assistant Coach Dumschott has the team in charge for the time. Two new candidates look good, Giriatis, brother of the well-known player of that name, and Proudfoot. Fitzerald, a good man from last year's team, has a sprained ankle. We hear that a game, which will bring Foxx and Flowers here, will take place December 5. Flowers is a good basketball man, but Foxx is good at baseball, which season closed last month.

Washington College's football team was defeated at Brooklyn, N. Y., last Friday night by St. John's, 33-0. The first half ended with the score standing 6-0.. Washington's team seems to be able to do its best work in the first half of a game, and then the superior weight of opponents is too much for them.

All the newspaper talk about putting Booth on the spot Saturday inthe Yale-Army game is a veritable "tempest in a teapot." Had Booth played on any other team than Yale or Harvard we would have heard nothing about it. It is always an unpardonable sin to doing anything against these two relics of the gridiron. A few years ago they played a few minor colleges, and then had a game at New Haven or Cambridge, the winner being declared champion of the country. As we prophesied ten years ago, all this has past, and they seldom are even mentioned in championship class, except before the season. At any rate, it is a shame to hurt one of them in a football game. But, if they insist on playing 145 pound men against 200 pounders regardless of whether or not they play for Yale or Harvard, they will have to take the consequences. After all, it is natural for a good, small man, to lose out against a good, big man, or good big men. Army and Navy tacklers are always rough. They ask no quarter and give none. If Booth had been on Army we would have heard nothing of the affair.

Today is a big test for football teams again, and some will be eliminated. Alabama should defeat Kentucky; Georgia should win from Florida, which will leave these two teams the leaders in the South; Notre Dame will win from Indiana somewhat easily; Kansas will probably win from Penn; and Dartmouth will probably win from Yale; Western Maryland will win from the Marines. So the teams are being thinned out as the season advances.

Fordham and Western Maryland are undefeated and untied for two seasons. A game between these two teams in the Stardum would draw 50,000 after the regular season closes.

Western Maryland and Boston College will play in the Baltimore Stadium next season. This should be a big event. If Western Maryland, which has one of the good teams, could get the games, I believe they would demonstrate the fact clearly that they have one of the best teams in football. I cannot imagine any team scoring 35 points against them. Like Notre Dame did against Pit last Saturday.

Notre Dame's crushing defeat of Pitt Saturday startled the whole football fraternity. This Rockney outfit certainly one of the country's finest teams.

SOCCER SERIES STARTED

The first interscholastic soccer game of the season for the championship of Kent county was scheduled for Wednesday of this week but was postpone on acount of rain to yesterday, but at the time of going to press the weather was very threatening.

Only two teams will compete this year, Rock Hall and Chestertown, there being no team at Galena or Millington. The winner of two games of the three game series will represent Kent county to compete with other counties of the state for the state championship.
