EXPLOSION WRECKS AUTO

Probably the greatest mystery which local authority have ever attempted to solve occurred Saturday night of last week.

An automobile, reported to have been stolen in Chester, Pa., was wrecked by two heavy explosions in the lane of Mr. Malcoln in Morgan Neck early Sunday morning.

The automobile was found in the lane Sunday morning completely wrecked. The engine was blown to pieces and the whole car, with the exception of the wheels and chasis was torn to pices by the explosions.

On Sunday Mr. K. Goodman, of Chester, Pa., reported the car stolen, stating that he had put it in the garage at 11 p. m. Saturday night. A number on the car proved is identity.

The two explosions occured about 2 a. m. Sunday morning and were heard distinctly in Chestertown. Authorities believe dynamite was used. The authorities, with the assitance of State officer Storm are investigating the case and are faced with the problem of the cause of using this novel idea of wrecking an automobile.

Proper care prolongs the life of any mattress. Turn often, air and sun several times a year and clean frequently with a whisk broom or the hand attachment of a vacuum cleaner.

"JUST IMAGINE"

MUSICAL ROMANCE FOR LOCAL THEATRE

DeSylva, Brown and Henderson and David Butler have done it again.

Their new Fox Movietone musical comedy romance, "Just Imagine," which shows at the New Lyceum on Wednesday and Thursday, March 4 and 5, is a worthy successor to their masterpiece of yesteryear, "Sunny Side Up."

"Just Imagine," is novel in theme and treatment, has a brilliant cast headed by the inimitable El Brendel and has a number of songs of the calibre which has made DeSylva, Brown and Henderson the greatest song writing team in the world.

These young men, who also wrote the story and dialog, have projected their picture fifty years into the future. The love interest, which centers about Maureen O'Sullivan and John Garrick, tells of the romance of the "Lindbergh of 1980" in a gripping and sustained fashion.

Brendel has one of the greatest roles of his career and scores repeatedly. In fact he is now our favorite comedian. Miss O'Sullivan is everything that her enthusiastic friends have said of her, and that is plenty. Garrick reveals a charming singing voice and is handsome and manly in the leading male role. His acting is above reproach.

Marjorie White, who all but scampered away with the hilarious honors in "Sunny Side Up," does almost the same thing in this picture, although she has much less to do. Her vivaciius personality completely dominates every scene in which she appears.

Frank Albertson, in a light comedy role, is a riot in himself. He makes a perfect team mate for Miss White, and the way they put over their song number, "Never Swat a Fly," is a revelation.

Joyzelle is effective as the Martian queen, Ivan Linow as the Martian slave, and other roles are capably handled by Kenneth Thomas, Hobart Bosworth, Wilfred Lucas and Mischa Auer.

The song numbers, of course, are outstanding and we believe that Director David Butler has scored another triumpth which outshines his previius brilliant effort of "Sunny Side Up."

NOW ANDTHEN

NOW AND THEN

How often we long and long for things and after years of waiting the wish is granted us after the desire for it has gone. The following poem by Mrs. B. Y. Williams expresses that sentiment.

THE CHINA TEA SET
By Mrs. B. Y. Williams

A china tea set—just to own
A china tea set was her dream—
Dear fragile cups, quaint little bowl,
A cunning pitcher for the cream!

So graciously she's pour the tea,
Her friends would chatter bright and pray,
"Such perfect tea! Such lovely cups!
I'm glad I happen in today!"

But he to whom her life was joined
Thought money would be better spent
For land, for implements and stock—
And to his will her will was bent.

His toil and gain were all for her—
And when the two were old and gray,
That she might have no wish denied
He brought the tea things home one day.

Dear fragile cups, quaint little bowl!
She thanked him with her patient smile.
She placed them in a shining row,
Admired them that a little while,
Then packed them all away. You see
No friends were left to drink the tea.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth has given Washington quite a thrill by having her guests at her twenty-fifth anniversary of her wedding to wear the styles of that period. It would not be surprising if all would go back to the pompadous style, though how could they manage with the present day style? In reading over the names of the guests we did not see the name of Mrs. Gann.

The Gutenburg Bible which has been secured by the Congressional Library at an enormous cost is surely an interesting sight. More costly than diamonds it has to have a custodian to watch it always.

Napoleon, the so called man of destiny, divorced his wife Josephine, and Marie Louise of Austria that he might establishe a line of kings. His son by her died early while Eugene the son of Josephine by her first husband is the ancestor of the Swedish and Belgium Kings—four kingdoms for the rejected Josephine,—none for the conquering Napoleon.

Isn't it disappointing when one turns on the radio hoping to hear some lovely thing in music or some interesting news to hear the most effective mouth wash, the best wearing tires or the best vitamine food? It reminds one of the enormous billboards which shut out the beautiful landscape.

FRIENDS OLD AND NEW

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold;
New-made friendships, like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test—
Time and change—are surely best.

When we read that ex-Kaisar William has paid $1,250 dollars for an old German clock, to keep it from going to America we are reminded of the "Watch of the Phine."

Superabundant Energy

Our honored statement are all right
As they their ways pursue.
Sometimes you think they're going to fight—
And yet they never do.

ANNUAL MEETING OF TURKEY GROWERS

The annual meeting and election of officers for 1931 of the Maryland Turkey Growers Association of Kent County will be held at the Court House on Friday, February 27 at 1.30 p. m.

All turkey growers in the County are invited to attend this meeting and will be welcomed as active members.

During the past year Walter M. Kenley sent in his resignation as president due to the fact that his business called him away from Kent for the greater part of the season. His place was filled by the vice-president, Mrs. Harry T. Williams who made an able presiding officer.

A study of feeds and their prices has recently been made by the Association and the attention of the members will be fixed on the breeding hatching as well as the feeding of the 1931 turkey crop.

78 WIVES AND 118 CHILDREN
MAN, 109, CLAIMS TO HAVE HAD

A report from Chicago says: Aredis Demourdjian, who claimed to be 109 years old and to have had 78 wives and 118 children, died in a rooming house yesterday of heart disease. He told friends that he was a former Turkish Governor.

HERD IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION MEETS

WALTER T. MORRIS ELECTED PRESIDENT FOR 1931

The annual election of officers of the Kent County Dairy Herd Improvement Association was held Saturday afternoon, February 21, 1931, at the regular meeting of the association held in the County Agent's office. The meeting was presided over by ex-Pres. Walter W. Walbert. The election resulted as follows:

President, Walter T. Morris, Jr.
Vice President, James O. Davis, Jr.
Secretary-Treasurer, P. M. Brooks.
Directors,
John C. Sutton,
Percy Hepbron,
Romie Morris.

Mr. J. A. Conover, Extension Dairy Specialist, commonly known by all as Uncle Jerry, gave some very interesting facts concerning the value and need of the Herd Improvement Association and urged every farmer to become more familiar with the breeding costs of his cows that he may be able to intelligently weed out his "boarder" and unprofitable cows. He urged the use of bull pens that the proven and worth while sires may be used and the dangerous bull be kept where he will be harmless.

The Herd Improvement Association under the direction of the Extension Service is doing much to put and keep Dairying on a profitable basis. Norman E. Pennington is Tester and can materially help members of the Association with their Dairy problems. Call on him. If you don't already belong to the Association JOIN NOW. It will help you.

SHERIFF BREAKS STRIKE

Prisoners on the second floor at the local jail went on a strike Thursday afternoon by refusing to wash their dishes. The sheriff in an effort to keep things clean at the jail requires them to wash their dishes after each meal. Thursday at supper time the dishes had not been washed so Sheriff Vickers refused to feed thm until they did so. Friday morning they also went without breakfast. About ten o'clock however they washed the plates and got a late breakfast.

WILL RECOMMEND SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION

PROPOSED PLAN WOULD CLOSE SIXTEEN COUNTRY SCHOOLS—291 PUPILS AFFECTED

According to a statment made this week by Professor Lewis C. Robinson, Superintendant of schools for Kent county, he will include in his recommendations to the Kent County School Board on Tuesday of next week the closing of sixteen country schools in the county and the transportation of the pupills to central schools.

This program is in line with the nation-wide school centralization plan. Many counties in Maryland are adopting the centralized school plan and in Frederick county 20 country schools were closed last year.

The recent road bond issue has made it possible to transport the pupils from the schools, which will be recommended closed, in glass enclosed busses. The Chesterville School would have been included in this recommendation but due to the condition of the road Professor Robinson will not include it in this years program.

Following will be found a list of the schools which will be recommended closed, the number of pupils enrolled in each school on January 1st, 1931 and the central schools to which the pupils would be transported:

Golt, 18 pupils to Massey school.

Sassafras, 25 pupils and Locust Grove, 17 pupils to Galena school.

Morgnec, 22 pupils; Cherry Lane, 8 pupils and Turner's Creek, 19 pupils to Kennedyville school.

Janvier, 15 pupils and Lynch, 28 pupils to Still Pond school.

Worton Point, 8 pupils; Hainesville, 19 pupils and Flatland, 29 pupils to Worton school.

St. Paul, 15 pupils; Lankford, 22 pupils and Broadneck, 12 pupils to Fairlee school.

Swan Creek, 12 pupils and Skinners Neck, 39 pupils to Rock Hall school.

These changes would include the transportation of 291 pupils. Mr. Robinson stated among the reasons for recommending the closing of these schools is the additional educational advantages the pupils have in the larger graded schools, and the more efficiest supervision of teaching. He stated that the change could be made with out additional expense to the county and that there is a possibility that it will cost less than the present system.

Millington High School Included

Included in the recommendations will be the transferring of the Millington High School to Galena where it will be combined with the Galena High School. Mr. Robinson stated that this change could be made with the addition of only one teacher in the Galena High School and that there is ample room in that school for the change.

SPORTS OF WEEK

STAGE ALL SET FOR WASHINGTON — LOYOLA BASKETBALL CONTEST TONIGHT AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE — LOYOLA CLINCHES STATE CHAMPIONSHIP—WAYKER WINS FROM ROSKI—WASHINGTON DOWNS MT. ST. MARY'S.

BY POLK T. BRAMBLE

The basketball game at Washington College tonight between the Flying Pentagon and Loyola will doubtless be one of the most biter contests ever waged between the two teams. The rivalry has been off years standing, every game being hard fought, and only a few points separating the two teams at the close. Loyola won the first game of the year by a last minute rally, when they secured a lead of a couple of points, and then by "freezing" the ball for the last two or three minutes. In other words, they won the game by playing the safe Tunney game of "running," instead of the more spectacular Dempsey style of "fighting" to the finish. Coach Kibler is driving his charges hard every day, and, wth the exception of Proudfoot, his squad is in good shape, although the star center, Gainor, made a head-first lunge into the stairway on Wednesday and sustained a bruised arm. Maybe its sentiment, and maybe not, but, anyhow, we are picking Washington to win by four or five points.

Loyola clinched the State basketball championship on Tuesday night by winning easily from Western Maryland. They have a clear title, not having lost a single game. Washington played Loyola when the team was in bad physical shape, also Hopkins, both of which ggmes they lost by a few points.

Walker, middleweight champion hammered Risko at Miami on Wednesday night for a desision, and has aspirations for a bout with Sharkey. It will remembered that Sharkey shattered the championship aspiration of Delaney and Loughran, about Walker's weight, when they attempted to climb into the higher class.

Chestertown High School cagers defeated St. Michaels School on Friday night, 53-6. Wright led with seven field goals.

Washington College won over Mt. St. Mary's on the local floor Friday night, 23-11. Mt. St. Mary's played a defensive game, and seemed to be satisfied to hold down the score to a minimum count. They held the ball by continuous passing, which did not get them anywhere in particular. It was several minutes before a basketball was put through the cords, and the half ended by the score standing 9-4 in favor of Washington. In the second half Washington got busy and threatened to run up the score to the usual proportions, but the visitors again resorted to their defensive tactics. Stevens, captain, was the high scorer for Washington, making four baskets, while Proudfoot registered three, and Robinson and Johnson each secured one.

FAIRLEE 4-H CLUB NEWS

Miss Dorothy Emerson supervisor of all 4-H girls club, in the state of Maryland, was present at the Junior meeting on Wednesday, February 18th, at lunch time. Miss Emerson gave an interesting talk on improving the club, and how the "Heart H," plays an important part in club work. Miss Schellinger was present, and we had as guest, Mrs. Robert Hoopes.

These girls drew names sometime ago, for their, "Capsule Sisters," for the year. They are finding it rather difficult to keep their "Capsule Sister," names a secret.

The girls have completed so far three dust cloths, and a tea towel. The next piece of work, will be hand work, either a tea towel, or guest towel. Must interest has been aroused among the girls, in learning club songs.

This club is progressing very nicely, with the fine co-operation of the teachers, Miss Morris and Mrs. Bryden.

The next meeting of the Junior Club will be held on Tuesday, March 3rd, at lunch time.

The last meeting of the Senior Club, was held on Saturday, February 7th, at Mrs. B. T. Hudson's. Virginia Miller, and Louise Ackerman, gave a demonstration on oatmeal muffins.

Due to illness of the coach, some demonstration agent local leader, and several of the girls, no preparations has been made toward the play. But we hope to start work on it at once.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, March 7th, at the home of Frances and Beatrice Berger. A demonstration will be given on baking powder biscuits.

—Fine pictures all next week at the New Lyceum Theatre.

REWARDED FOR FINDING MONEY

LOCAL MEN SHARE IN TRUST COMPANY REWARD

Messrs. William J. Smith, Benjamin Hessy, and Harold Newton, of the local State Road Commission force; Mr. William A. Callahan, bridge keeper on the Bohemia River bridge, and Clinton Denny, of near Chesapeake City, each received a reward of $30 last week from the Dover Trust Co. of Hartly, Delaware for their participation in the finding of money and bonds stolen from that bank.

These men while doing repair work on the Bohemia River bridge found two packages containing $2215 and valuable bonds and securities on January 3rd, and returned same to officials of the bank. These packages were part of the loot following a robbery at that bank a few days before.

One package was found on the ice and the other at the bottom of the river.

ATTENTION, ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

There are quite a number of members of the Associate Organization of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company who have not yet paid their annual dues of $3. There are also a very large number of property owners in the town and vicinity whose property is being protected by the Fire Company who have never joined the Associate organization. During a recent drive made in the county for relief of drought sufferers in the western part of the country, Chestertown residents alone contributed more than $618, which was very laudable. But why should any one owning property in Chestertown and surrounding territory refrain from contributing $3 annually towards the maintenance of a fire company which protects your home and business property from destruction by fire at the risk of their lives. Chestertown is contributing annually less than $400 for the maintenance of its fire company, when it should be giving not less than $1000. Think about this matter and send your check to Mr. J. S. Kreeger for $3 and become a member of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company.

LEGION BUYS HOME

The Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36 of the American Legion has purchased the property on South Queen St., now occupied by Mr. W. H. Thawley as a plumbing shop.

The local post has been an active organization since it was organized in 1920 and has maintained various meeting places since that time. For the past three years the members have been looking for a suitable place for a permanent home.

The front office of the building will be used for the present as a meeting place and the back part will be used as a plumbing shop by Mr. Thawley. The members of the post are looking forward to the time when they can build a new building on the location.

William Carroll, Carl Graham, Norman Sutton, Walter Alcutt, Walter Barnes, James Kirby, Clark Davis, Waters Rusell McMenamin, Irving Brown, John Owens, Charles Harris, Ridgely Brown, Howard Pennington, Pote and Willis.
