MILLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

BY LOUISE JONES

Due to the heavy snow storm Mr. Greenwood and Miss Hadaway were unable to be with us on Tuesday of this week.

The Millington School was invited to Massey by the McCormick-Deering Manufactors through Mr. Huey to attend the 100th Anniversary of the invention of the reaper. A representative of the International Harvesting Company gave a speech regarding the invention of the first reaper by Cyrus Hall McCormick. This was followed by a moving picture showing the development of the reaper to the present day combine. This was very thoroughly enjoyed by all those attended.

The Seniors took their Class Play, "The Road Back," to Still Pond and were much pleased with the proceeds.

The entire High School was invited to the surprise birthday party of Charles Anthony, celebrating his 16th birthday. A fine time was enjoyed by all.

Dr. James W. Smith the School Dental Clinician has been at Millington this week and the children are rapidly responding to this wonderful opportunty. Louise Jones has been assisting him in his work.

Do you know that, Pauline Jones enjoyed the Senior play so much that she stated she would be willing to give it every night of the week.

The Senior boys so lose their hats that it is evident that they must use them for night caps.

Why is Frank Barnhart always late for school? He must be a studious little fellow.

One of our Senior boys is reported to have become acquainted with one of our Sophomore girls. They are advancing rapidly.

One of our students has such bright eyes he has been nicknamed "Bright Eyes."

The most intelligent student of our Geometry class has torn up so many things in his work that a new supply is needed.

—Mr. Moore manager of the A & P store celebrated his ninth anniversary as an employee of that firm.

—The Old Kent Chapter, Daughters of The American Revolution, held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Brown on Saturday, March 14th.
