THE EASTER SEASON is with us again with the sunshine and the flowers. It comes just after the season of Lent and we doubly rejoice as we do when the sun comes from a heavy cloud. Nature teaches us of the risen Christ, when she shows the plants and flowers growing from bulbs and seed. Both the Rising of Christ and the growing plants are equally hard to understand, but as we plant and sow expecting the harvest so we lay our dead ones away feeling sure that they will rise again to the life immortal just as our Saviour arose on that first Easter day. Easter is surely the Queen of seasons and we are glad of its coming.

APPROVES TEMPERANCE ARTICLE

(COMMUNICATED)

Kennedyville, Md.
March 30th, 1931.

Editor of the Transcript
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Sir:

There appeared in your issue of March 28th a most interesting article from the pen of our venerable brother Dr. S. S. Hepbron entitled "Temperance Problem," in which the logical writer inswering the query of Mrs. W. T. Brown of the local W. C. T. U. gave a body blow to old John Barley Corn which was unique, logical, and unanswerable.

The article in question excited considerable interest in this section of Kent, and on Sunday mornng last was called to the attention of the large Men's Bible Class assembled in the school auditorium.

"It was moved and seconded that this Men's Class express its highest appreciation to Dr. Hepbron for this timely article, and to Mrs. Brown to whom his letter was addressed, and to the Transcript for its publication."

This motion was unanimously adopted, and the President and Secretary was authorized to sign the same in behalf of the class.

Signed, WM. T. HAGUE, President.
Signed, WM. C. DEMPSEY, Secretary.

Dear Editor:

Are the good people of Kent County, opposed to allowing Baltimore to decide whether it will have Sunday blue laws, because of the injury it will do to Tolchester's Sunday business, should Baltimore open up.

Sincerely,
Truth.
