WASHINGTON COIN DESIGNS SOUGHT

MELLON WILL ASK ARTISTS TO MAKE DRAWINGS FOR NEW QUARTER

Designs for the new quarter dollar, to be issued next year as part of the Nation-wide celebration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of George Washington, will be sought from leading artists of the country through an invitation to be extended within a few days by Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, it was announced yesterday.

The coin will be the first of a regular issue to bear the image of Washington. The picture of Washington will probably be the one by Houdon, now at Mount Vernon, which has been selected by the portrait committee of the George Washington Bicentennial Commission as the best likeness of the first President in existence.

Secretary Mellon, before announcing the design to be used, will consult Representative Sol Bloom, associate director of the George Washington Bicentennial Commission. A portrait of Washington was used on a few coins made in 1783, but they were not issued or approved by the Government.

LOCAL MATTERS

—Mr. Sherman Starr, of Pomona, is building a bungalow on the property he purchased from Mr. Gustafron, located near Pomona.

REHEARSALS START FOR MINSTRELS

TO BE STAGED BY ACTIVE FIREMEN (SMOKE EATERS)

Rehearsals started this week for Minstrel S. Parkels, the minstrel show and Revue to be staged by active firemen, smoke eaters of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co., on Monday and Tuesday, April 20th and 21st, in the Old Lyceum Theatre under tre direction of Miss Vivian O'Hallaran.

The revue will open with a presentation by the children of the first three grades of the Chestertown Elementary School, "Kiddies Kabaret." Songs and dances by the very young set of Chestertown will be featured in this part of the program.

Tre revue proper will be in nine scenes. These will include musical and dancing numbers by the young men and women of Chestertown and Washington College and several sketches staged for laughing purposes only.

The revue proper will be in nine is a minstrel setting. Thirty of Chestertown's favorite singers and entertainers will take part. Special scenery and satin costumes for the members of the minstrel circles will be one of the features of this number. William Frazier Russell, Jr., prominent local attorney, will act as interlocutor and familiar faces will be seen in the black face roles.

The casting of the production, largely under the direction of Mrs. David B. Ford, has not been completed and final selections for some of the parts will not be made until the initial rehearsal tonight.

The show is being staged by and for the benefit of the active members of the fire company. Tickets, whicr may be exchanged for reserved seats at Stam's Drug Store on and after April 16, were placed on sale last week.

An orchestra from the fire company's band will furnish music for the production and it is likely that the band will stage a street concert prior to each performance.
