DENTAL CLINICIAN FINISHES HERE

Dr. John J. Smith, dental clinician, of the State Department of Health will next week finish six weeks work in the public schools of Kent county.

Children have been examined in the public schools of Millington, Galena, Kennedyville and Cliff City, including approximately 200 examinations and 100 treatments.

KENT RECEIVES HEALTH TROPHY

Honor came to Chestertown and Kent county Wednesday afternoon when Dr. Ralph G. Beachley, Kent County Health Officer, was presented with a bronze plaque by the United State Chamber of Commerce as the award for having won first prize among cities in the United States of less than 20,000 population competing in a health conservation contest.

The presentation was made before the annual convention of the United States chamber which is being held in Atlantic City.

Dr. Beachley and Mrs. Nell C. Westcott, executive secretary of the Kent County Chamber of Comerce, who were delegated by the local trade body to journey to Atlantic City to accept the award made the trip there Tuesday morning by motor.

C. E. TRUSLOW HEADS GOLF LEAGUE

SEASON STARTS IN JUNE—4 CLUBS IN LEAGUE

At a meeting of representatives of the four country clubs, which comprise the Eastern Shore Golf League, held at Dover on Wednesday of this week Mr. C. E. Truslow, of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club, was elected president for the coming season.

The clubs represented, which will form the league are Rehoboth, Salisbury, Dover and Chestertown, the same as last year.

The team of each club will consist of twelve men and the matches will be staged on Saturday afternoons, twice a month.

Mr. Truslow has not completed the schedule but it is understood that the first match will be played at Chestertown between the local club and Salisbury.

The golf league has created considerable rivalry between these four Clubs and Chestertown won the handsome silver cup last year by defeating Salisbury in a tie play-off at Dover last year. The local club will endeavor to retain the Shore championship.

"EAST LYNN" AT NEW LYCEUM

Clive Brook And Conrad Nagel Take Part

What is easily the finest glorification of the audible screen will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, May 6 and 7, in Frank Lloyd's production of "East Lynne" with Ann Harding, Clive Brook, Conrad Nagel and a brilliant cast of truly popular players. There is so much to command this Fox Movietone that to attempt to describe it with a single phrase is a great injustice.

In the first place, "East Lynne" in this case becomes the screen's most notable achievement, an accomplishment that vibrates with rare entertainment from beginning to end.

Secondly, the story, adapted from Mrs. Wood's novel by Tom Barry and Bradley King, moves swiftly and develops with such dramatic power and consistency that the two hours consumed in unfolding it seem but mere minutes.

Thirdly, Ann Harding achieves new laurels and justifies the characterization of the screen's "greatest emotional actress." A lovelier Isabel, certainly, has never been soon on stage or screen. She lives the role every inch of the way. She radiates with an incomparable beauty and sincereity that contributes importantly to the success of the picture.

In the fourth place, Canrad Nagel and Clive Brook give characterizations that will add much to their popularity. The latter does the outstanding work of his career as Levison. Conrad Nagel is at his best as the ambitious young lawyer, influenced by his spinster sister, who makes an outcast of his wife.

The supporting cast is an unusually important one, including Beryl Mercer, Cecila Loftus, O. P. Heggie and David Torrence.

The direction of Frank Lloyd is flawless and the settings by the famous Joseph Urban enhance the picture.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all those who assisted in making our recent minstrel show a success.

Patient—"I tasted it and decided that I'd rather have the cough."

NOW AND THEN

COUNSEL

By Mollie E. M. Davis

If thou should'st bid thy friend farewell,
But for one night though that farewell should be,
Press thou his hand in thine; how canst thou tell
How far from thee.

Fate, or caprice, may lead his feet
Ere that tomorrow come? Men have been known
Lightly to turn the corner of a street,
And days have grown.

To months, and months to lagging years,
Before they looked in loving eyes again.
Parting, at best, is underlaid with tears—
With tears and pain.

Therefore, lest sudden death should come between,
Or time, or distance, clasp with pressure true
The pal mof him who goeth forth. Unseen,
Fate goeth, too!

Yea, find thou always time to say
Some earnest word betwixt the idle talk,
Lest with thee henceforth, night and day,
Regret should walk.

On Friday there wasa great ceremony when Hoover and other notable met together and the President turned the first spade full of earth that is to be the beginning of a great boulevard extending from Arlington, Va., to the Shenandoah National Park. It is to be called the Lee Highway in memory of the great southern general.

Now that the nation's view is mellowed through the softening lapse of time; all people delight to do him honor as an outstanding general, and a fine gentlemen. Though he fought in a lost cause, yet when defeated, he stood loyally by the Union, and spent the last days of his life in teaching the youth of his time to be loyal obedient citizens.

"Under the sod and the dew.
Awaiting the Judgment day;
Love and tears for the blue
Tears and love for the gray."

The Filipinos want a government chain store system so that they can compete with Chinese merchants, the idea being, doubtless, to chain the Filipino to the counter so that he will work as long as a Chinaman.

The Prince of Wales has shot a deer on his visit to South America. Some people an wondering if he found a ribbon tied around its neck, as Teddie Roosevelt did once, when a stag hunt was staged for him.

The poor King of Siam, though honored by the nation and accorded all sorts of feast has had to visit Dr. Wilmer's hospital for his eyes, and yesterday he found that for comfort's sake he must go to the destist so even kings have their handicaps.

Just to think of a mountain boy, Bryan Untiedt, sharing honors with the king of Siam and the President. The King has come to study Democracy, and he has certainly seen a good example. We hear that the same Bryan has been offered a scholarship at Washington College, Chestertown.

Was there ever anything more disconcerting than this daylight saving time? Why should the cities insist upon setting their clocks forward with old Sol, who has had the management of the time since the beginning, staring the time pieces in the face, knowing they no longer tell the correct time. Just think of the inconvenience they are giving small places too, Amos and Andy coming right at dinner time and the whole radio schedule changed. It ought not to be allowed.

SECOND BURGLARY OF SACHS' STORE, CENTREVILLE

For the second time within a little more than one year, the store of H. Sachs, on Commerce street, Centreville, was burglarized some time early last Sunday morning. In March of last year thieves made a haul of about $2,500 worth of merchandise and never were apprehended. Sunday morning they are believed to have stolen probably $500 worth of apparel.

Unlike the first robbery which unquestionably was perpetrated by experienced burglars who hauled away a truck-load of loot, the raid last Sunday morning probably was executed by inexperienced local youths who were thoroughly familiar with the interior of the establishment.

—Fine pictures all next week at the New Lyceum.

MY FRIENDS

BY ALICE MATHEWS

Blessed Violets—how you talk
To my heart when e'er I walk
Springtime's pathway, it is so—
Why you set my soul aglow
By the memories you bring,
As if birds upon the wing
Heavenly songs are tuning free
From the one I love to me.

Then my daisies by the road
Surely I will not forget—
Daisies trundle troubles load
And the thoughts of darksome fret
Swift away into the wood—
Always I have understood
Their bright kinship to the Sun,
For gold hearts they all have won!

Thus mankind my plainly see
What my flowers mean to me,
How they make my Soul a darer,
And my heart each day the fairer
By their close provimety,
For they bloom so wondrously,
That I feel and konw 'twas God
Placed them in my garden sod.

THE GROWING OF TURKEYS

MARKETING CONFERENCE FOR TURKEY GROWERS

On May 15 at 1.30 p. m. a meeting of the Maryland Turkey Growers Association of Kent County will be held at the Court House and will be one of the more important, if not the most important, meetings of the whole year.

Mr. S. B. Shaw, Chief Inspector, State Department of Markets, will be the speaker and will discuss in detail a marketing system for turkey growers in this section similar to that used so very successfully in New England under the New England Quality Label. Kent Countians who visited Boston last year saw exhibits of the New England Quality Label and realized what a high standard of goods marketed cooperatively could mean for the grower.

On Monday of this week a number of Howard County turkey growers visited Kent for the purpose of buying hatching eggs so that they might turn out early poults. On the same date inquiry came from New England asking if it would be possible for turkey growers in that part of the country to buy young poults during the summer for finishing and fattening purposes for the later marketing seasons. The Maryland turkey has an early start and is ahead of its northern competitor a fact which the northern growers are beginning to appreciate.

Considerable hatching is planned in Kent this year and an effort will be made to obtain as high a price for choice Maryland birds as possible. The Department of Markets of the University of Maryland has given the matter much thought and study and their findings will be set before Kent growers on May the 15th for their consideration.

HEALTH NURSE REPORT

MANY ACTIVITIES DURING MARCH

Under material distributed for the month of March the nurses' records show many packages of tuberculosis supplies which includes paper cups and napkins for the sanitary use of the patient and protection to the other members of the family; silver nitrate drops, cod liver oil and educational pamplets numbering into the hundreds.

The battle against tuberculosis is constantly waged and at the monthly clinic Dr. John O'Neil examined three white and four colored patients. One white patient was recommened for sanatorium care and was sent to Pine Bluff at Salisbury for treatment. One colored victim of the disease died in Quaker Neck.

The Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Clinic held on March 5th at the Health Center was well attended. Through the aid of the one local P. T. A. one child was provided with glasses whose family was unable to take over the expense.

On the 16th of March Dr. James W. Smith, the dental clinician from the State Department of Health, returned to Kent County to continue the work which was started last year. One hundred and fifty-three children were examined and twenty-three children had work done. At Massey the cooperation from pupils and parents in this work was remarkably fine and showed splendid cooperation and understanding of the situation. All schools were visited before Dr. Smith came and his work explained. The pamphlet entitled "Good Teeth" was given each child to take home and much interest was aroused. One P. T. A. was visited and a talk given; a second talk was given by the nurse at the meeting of the Ladies' 4-H Club of Flatland.

A destitute family appealed to the Health Center for aid and through the Kent County Chamber of Commerce and the Red Cross received assistance.

The midwifry classes were completed. Five took the examinations in Chestertown and two in Millington. These classes are conducted by Dr. Catherine Goodson and are an annual feature of the State health program.

Whooping cough has been reported in Galena, Locust Grove, Flatland and St. Paul's Schools. These schools have been visited and proper precautions given.

Toxin-antitoxin was give to fifteen children at Betterton and to eight at Worton.

National Negro Health Week was observed in the County between April 5th and 12th. Much cleaning up was done under the supervision of each school in the County and the county-wide effort which was made was even more intense this year than last when the cup for the best work in rural sections was won by Kent. Keener competition all over the country urged the Kent colored population to a greater effort as it is their ambition to win again for Kent the cup for 1931.

During March nineteen white and seven colored births were reported. Four white cases were attended by midwives, the rest were attended by physicians. Thirteen white deaths and seven colored completed the County statistics for the month.

RIFLE AND PISTOL CLUB FORMED HERE

Walter S. Lutz, Jr., was elected president of the Kent County Rifle and Pistol Club when that body held its organization meeting here last night. Carl N. Bordley was elected vice-president; Solomon T. Chaires was chosen secretary-treasurer; Jesse D. Maxwell was named executive officer and Major George E. Parker was chosen publicity officer.

The club which was formed with a membership of twenty-five is sponsored by the National Rifle Association of America. Additional members are being sought. The only restriction as to membership is that the applicant must be more than 16 years of age.

Plans of the club which were discussed at the organization meeting call for an indoor and outdoor target range. Contests among the local members and meets with other similar clubs will probably be arranged as part of the program of activity.

A pistol and rifle club has been talked of for some time by lovers of that sport and at a meeting held here on Tuesday with Major George Parker, of Baltimore, a member of the National Rifle Association of America, the organization was formed.

It is hoped by members that an indoor rifle range will be built in the new State Armory which will be under construction within the next two months.

Members of the club visited the home of Mr. Walter S. Lutz on Morgan Creek on Wednesday and saw his large collection of guns and amunition.

PROMPT PAYMENT

John W. Barnes, Clerk of Chester-Camp No. 8745 Modern Woodmen of America received this week a check for $2000 being amount of insurance held in the local camp by the late Stewart R. Matthews, who had been a member of the camp since October 1899. The check was made to Mrs. Annie E. Matthews, wife of the deceased, who was the beneficiary.

$14,000 PICTURE CONTEST

The fact that one simple snap shot may win $14,000 for its owner was revealed this week by the Eshman Kodak Co., in an announcement of a world wide amateur snap-shot contest.

The only rejuirement for the contest is that the picture must be taken after May 1st, 1931, and mailed to prize contest office, Eshman Kodak Co., Rochester, N. Y., together with an entry blank.

For further information see J. S. Kreeger, Cross street, Chestertown, Md.

TO SING AT MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Janet Atwater, Dorothy Johnson and W. A. Branford, all students at Washington College, were selected for solo parts in the Spring Festival of Music to be held by the Kent County Musical Society on Tuesday, May 19.

The selections were made following a contest at the rehearsal of the society last night in which members of the chorus participated. The selections to be sung are: "The Prayer" from Der Freischutz; "Van Weber Indian Love Call," Frinul; and "Integer Vitae," Flemming.

After the rehearsal last night, which was held in William Smith Hall, Washington College, the above named trio were announced as winners.

The May festival will be held at William Smith Hall, Washington College, Tuesday, May 19th.

WASHINGTON DROPS 2 GAMES

Washington College lost a tough game last Friday afternoon, when they were defeated by Lafayette College of Easton, Pa., by the score of 4 to 2.

The local team had possession of the ball most of the time and had many opportunities to score but seemed to lack the knack of making the goals. Time after time they had opportunities to score but the ball would go wide of the mark.

Lafayette took advantage of their few chances to tally and registered 4 goals, while Washington was only able to make 2.

St. Johns 12, Washington 0

Washington was unable to give St. Johns a good practice game at Annapolis on Wedesday. St. Johns last year had the championship team of America and have yet to lose a game this season. Washington has nothing to be ashamed of by this defeat because they have not had St. Johns experience and played Americas best team. St. Johns for many years had just such teams as Washington has. Lacrosse team like foot ball teams take several season to develop winning teams.

FRANK SIMPERS HONORED

MAKES RECORD DURING ANNIVERSARY MONTH

In recognition of 20 years of loyal and faithful service with the Continental Life Insurance Co., and the celebration of his 20th anniversary month, April, by writing 20 applications for a total of $112,000 of which $63,000 has already been issued and placed, the month of May will be known as Simpers month all over the Peninsula agency.

Mr. Simpers has served 20 years with the continental American and Prudential Insurance Companies. During this time he has written approximately 1000 policies with a total of 3 million dollars. During his connection with these companies he has paid 1-4 million dollars in claims.

He received congratulations from officials of the company on his remarkable record and a drive is being made to make Simpers month a record with the company.

The telegram received from the manager of the company follows:

"Congratulations on having written 20 applications during April for a total of $112,000 in celebration of your 20 years loyal and faithful service. May has been designated Simpers month in your honor."

"How bashful you are!" a pretty girl said to a young man.

"Yes, Itake after father in that respect," he said.

"Was your father bashful?"

"Was he? Why, mother says if father hadn't been so bashful I'd be four years older."

SCOUT TROUPE AT GALENA

RECEIVE TENDERFOOT BADGES WEDNESDAY EVENING

Fifteen boys, living in the vicinity of Galena, received their tenderfoot Boy Scout badges at a meeting held in the Galena High School building Wednesday evening of this week.

This troupe is fortunate in having the services of Rev. Vernon Lane, of Shrewsbury and St. Andrews Churches, as scoutmaster. Rev. Lane has had fifteen years of scouting and will be of great assistance to these young scouts.

The committee of local citizens who are sponsoring the troupe are: Mr. William Hyland, Mr. Jesse Ireland, Dr. Jones and Mr. Cruikshank.

Representatives of the Wilmington Council had charge of the ceremonies and were assisted by fifteen scouts of the Chestertown troupe under the direction of Eagle Scout Charles Dole. The Betterton troupe was represented by Howard Owens and Allan Bonwill. Scoutmaster Lane presented the young scouts with their tenderfoot badges.

The organizing of the Galena troupe will make four troupes in Kent county, Betterton, Chestertown, Rock Hall and Galena.

Scoutmaster Lane stated that the first work of the new troupe will be to start a move to clean up the premises of the town of Galena in an effort to make it a spotless town.

The meeting was attended by a large number of citizens living in that section of the county.

BASE BALL LEAGUE STARTS

The Chesapeake Bay Base Ball League wil lstart its season today with all six teams in action. Three of these teams, Rock Hall, Church Hill and Millington are making their initial bow into league base ball. The remaining teams, Kennedyville, Galena and Cecilton have been in the league for two years and fans are eagerly awaiting the result of todays games. Each of the new teams will meet one of the old stand-bys today, Rock Hall will play Galena at Galena; Millington and Kennedyville at Kennedyville and Church Hill and Cecilton at Cecilton, making all the newly organized teams the visitors.

Next Saturday the newly organized teams will play on their home field. Cecilton and Rock Hall at Rock Hall; Kennedyville and Millington at Millingto; Galena and Church Hill at Church Hill. Base ball fas from all parts of the county will be able to see a ball game each Saturday in Kent county and indications point to a large attendance at these games.

A FISH STORY THAT IS A LITTLE FISTURE

This is a fish story based upon a tale by Hugo Volkam. In landing a pickerel yesterday, he sprained his ankle, fell to the bottom of the boat, injured his scalp, wrenched his back and neck in arising, lost his false teeth, then toppled into the lake. When fellow fishermen pulled him out Hugo was holding on to the fish.
