OUTSTANDING WOMEN

The Good House Keeking Magazine following in the wake of The Literary Digest has put forth a nation wide poll of the twelve most famous women of our country. There were over 1286 names given:

Copying the following from the Kincherbocker Press.

The list of 12 more eminent living American women, complied from a nation-wide poll conducted by Good Housekeeping, does credit to the distinguished judges who made the final choice. The names are representative of virtually all the fields in which women have demonstrated a clear capacity for achievement. The stage is well represented by Mrs. Fiske, music by Mme. Schumann-Heink, literature by Willa Cather, art by Cecilia Beaux.

In any list of America's great women, Helen Keller must of course, have a place. Among the leading philanthropists of either sex' Jane Addams must be reckoned. Mrs. Coolidge is included as the most gracious occupant of the White House since Dolly Madison, Grace Abbott, chief of the Federal Children's Bureau; Martha Berry, pioneer in educational work among the mountain whites; Carrie Chapman Catt. leader in the movement for woman suffrage; Florence Rena Sabin, the only woman elected to the National Academy of Science, and Mary E. Woolley, president of Mt. Holyoke College, are names less familiar to the public, yet each may set up a clear claim to recognition.

It is not contended that these are the only noteworthy women who have won attention in spheres outside of home. There would be resolute advocates of Helen Wills, of Amelia Earhart, of Mary Roberts Rinehart, of Ruth Pratt, of Mrs. H. A. Beach, of Katherine Lee Bates, of Evangeline Booth and a host of writers, actresses and singers. There were, in fact, 2786 names submitted in the poll.

If the nation needed evidence of the extraordinary advance made by women in certain fields since the Victorian period, this poll provides it. Has a proportionate advance( been made in the influence and character of home life, where women are supreme? We believe there would be some difficulty in demonstrating it.

The listener in have heard the voice of Helen Kelar this week. She is surely one who teaches us to overcome our limitations. Left in infancy both deaf and blind, she is not only a college graduate, but is a writer and an earnest worker for those who are deprived as she is of sight. She is certainly a woman who "overcometh."

HEALTH

This is the time of the year when so many are complaining of that lassitude which people call Spring fever. We believe that it could be eliminated if one would follow these suggestions. On arising take an all over bath, and then give yourself a vigorous rub with a coarse towel. If a bath room is not available a sponge bath will do very well. Then exercise your limbs for a few minutes or take a walk before breakfast. You may say you have not time, but if you go to bed a little earlier than you do and arise a short time before your usual hour you will find that you can make the time and feel a lot better for it. Hold yourself upright and take in deep breaths of the pure sweet hour of morning.

WHAT TO WEAR

In these days when the purses are very much leaner than they have been there are still many pretty dresses that can be bought at much lower prices.

Cotton frocks for debutantes instead of the lustrous silk they ordinarily wear are exhibited. One of American buyers' favorite houses displays linen, cotton, organdy and dotted Swiss frocks for every occasion. Even for social butterflies cotton is the smartest raiment in a year marked by uncertain financial conditions. The new frocks are reminiscent of gradmother's garb.

There are bright- hued ribbon belts on the new evening frocks, some of them trimmed with bright glass buttons. Dance dersses for young girls have unusually high necklines, both front and back, and are often finished with lace-edged berthas or small capes.

As yet waistlines, skirt lengths and sleeves have undergone no change. Evening gowns continue to reach to the instep with an occasional very short train shown. Daytime dresses are from twelve to fourteen inches from the floor. Waistlines are fitted to the normal curve of the body on frocks for young and slender figures.

WATCH YOUR STEP

Mercerized cotton stockings are becoming chic for sports wear, and are particularly chic with tweed suits. They ought not to shine too much or else they are less chic than they aim to be. With such stockings, sports or walking shoes are correct. Of course, you can still wear silk stockings on every occasion and not get arrested for it.

RECIPES

Cheese Relish Filling.

(For eight sandwiches.)

1-2 cup cottage cheese.
4 tablespoons chopped ripe olives.
4 tablespoons chopped pimiento stuffed olives.
2 tablespoons chopped sweet pickles.
2 tablespoons finely chopped celery.
1-3 cup salad dressing.

Mix ingredients and spread upon buttered slices of white bread. Top with other slices. Serve plain or toasted.

Crabmeat Hollandaise.

6 pieces hot toast.
4 tabelspoons butter.
6 tablespoons flour.
3 cups milk.
2 eggs, beaten.
1 hard-cooked egg, diced.
2 tablespoons chopped green peppers.
1 1-2 cups crabmeat.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
1-4 teaspoon paprika.
2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Melt the butter and add the flour. Blend and add the milk. Cook until a creamy sauce forms. Stir constantly. Add eggs, peppers, crabmeat, salt and paprika. Mix well and cook one minute. Add lemon juice and pour over toast. Garnish with parsley and serve at once.

Tomato Dressing

1 teaspoon salt.
1 teaspoon sugar.
1-4 teaspoon paprika.
1-4 teaspoon celery seed,
1-4 teaspoon dry mustard.
4 tablespoons vinegar.
1-2 cup salad oil.
3 tablespoons catsup.
2 tablespoons chili sauce.
2 tablespoons pickle relish.

Mix and chill the ingredients. Beat well and serve on head lettuce or tomato salads.

An Attractive Salad

Two good-sized grapefruit, one package mint gelatin, one and one-fourth cups boiling water, three-fourths cup grapefruit juice, strained; two tablespoons sugar (optional), four halves peaches or pears. Halve the grapefruit and ream, keeping the skins carefully intact. Remove all loose bits of meat and fiber and pink the edge of each half. Dissolve the gelatin in the boiling water as usual, add the fruit juice and the sugar if you must have it sweeter. Pour this preparation into the four rind cups. When it is set, press into each service the slice of your favorite fruit. This should be prepared in the morning for the evening meal, as the standing is what brings about the delicious and elusive tang.

McCORMICK-DEERING MANURE SPREADER

A NEW MODEL With an Old Name

An Announcement

PERHAPS you have seen the Harvester Company's announcement of their new McCormick-Deering Spreader. We now have one of these 1928 models on display at our store, all set up and in readiness for your inspection

The new McCormick-Deering is NEW—with new Features—new Design—new Conveniences—all this for the purpose of providing you with low-cost, time-saving spreading performance over a long period of years. It is the kind and type of spreader you have always wanted to own—a simple, practical, sturdy machine.

There is no guesswork about its ability to perform satisfactorily under the most adverse conditions. We know what it can do and will be glad to tell you about it and show you what it will do in actual operation.

The new McCormick-Deering is so light in draft—due to roller bearings—that only two horses are required. The box is low, making it easy to load; and the spreading it does—well it would be better for you to see this remarkable spreader and then judge for yourself.

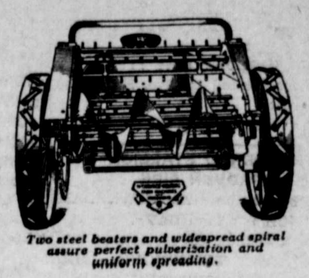

An hour or so spent with us in learning more about this new product may assist you in solving the important problem of increasing soil fertility and crop yields, and doing it easier and in less time than before. Phone us if you cannot call—we can, that's our business.

Jones & Satterfield

Chestertown, Maryland

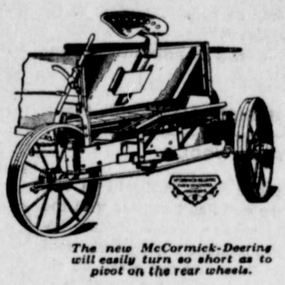

The easy-to-load, light-draft McCormick-Deering spreader is a valuable asset on any farm. Note the low box, shielded mechanism, and convenient operating levers.

Two steel beaters and widespread spiral assure perfect pulverization and uniform spreading.

Here are the roller bearings used in the McCormick-Deering. (A) Rear axle bearing. (B) Upper and lower beater bearing. (C) Widespread shaft bearing.

The new McCormick-Deering will easily turn so short as to pivot on the rear wheels.

PRUDENTIAL'S LATEST POLICY

"The Modified Whole Life and 20-Year Term Policy—with Change of Rate at End of 3 Years and at End of 20 Years"

This official title is necessarily technical but—

Read the following annual premium rates for $10,000 insurance during first 20 years and $5,000 insurance thereafter

| AGE | First 3 Years | Next 17 Years | After 20 Years |
|---|---|---|---|
| 20 | $96.00 | $112.95 | $71.20 |
| 30 | 121.50 | 142.95 | 94.40 |
| 40 | 179.70 | 211.40 | 135.45 |
| 50 | 309.00 | 363.50 | 205.75 |

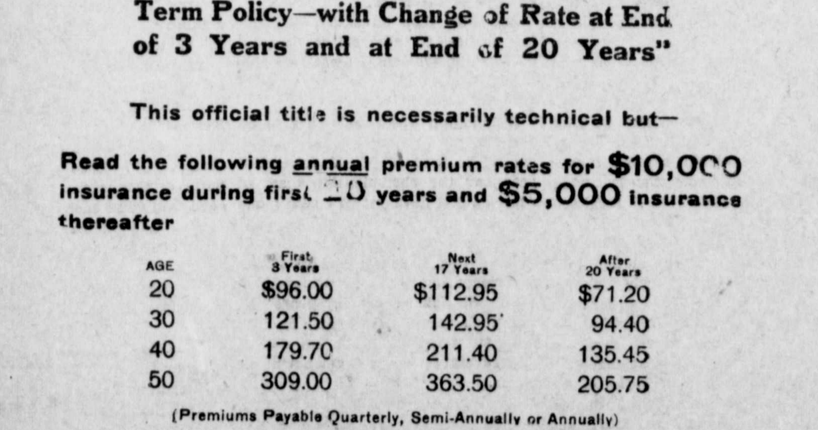

(Premiums Payable Quarterly, Semi-Annually or Annually)

The policy calls for an increase in the premium after three years, but dividends also begin at the end of three years. While future dividends must depend entirely on future earnings, the current earnings of the Company are sufficient to provide dividends at least equal to the increase in premium

This policy will enable the man who has dependents to secure more nearly adequate protection during the years they most need it and at a price he can afford to pay
