MILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. William Harrington and daughters, Edith and Frances, of the Bear, Del., were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wilson.

Franklin Palmatory has removed from the Ahern apartments and is storing his goods with Edgar King in the Hazel property.

Mrs. W. H. Burris returned Sunday after spending a week with her children in Wilmington and Chester.

Little Miss Bettie Blackiston visited last week with her aunt, Mrs. Lindale Lodge, Dover, Del.

Miss Helen Vansant was given a birthday party on last Saturday night at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Nevitt Robinson which was largely attended and was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Stevens spent Sunday the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brice near Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kennard were Chestertown visitors on Sunday last.

The Bible Class of Asbury M. E. Church held its regular monthly meeting and the first since conference in the Auditorium of the church on Wednesday evening last.

The 4-H Club met in the Community Hall on Wednesday evening and was well attended.

A change is taking place in the Oil, Gas and Lunch Room business at the corner property, Mr. Hankin has retired.

Mrs. Bernard Harris, of Baltimore, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George B. Jones.

Mrs. Nan Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Nat Johnson, of Middletown, were guests of Mrs. S. Edna Jones on Wednesday evening last.

Mrs. Clara E. Clough wife of John H. Clough, of Cecil County, died on Tuesday, April 21st after a long illness and was buried on Thursday following in Millington cemetery. J. A. Tobin & Son, undertakers. She is survived by her husband and six children...

Services at Trinity M. E. Church, South, May 3rd as follows: Sunday School 2 p. m. Preaching service 3 p. m., sermon by Presiding Elder, Rev. T. G. Lambert. Communion services following the sermon. Epworth League 7.30 p. m. Prayer service each Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. All are welcome.

STILL POND

Still Pond Ladies Aid will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon, May 6th, at the home of Mrs. Howard Toulson. The supper served by these ladies on last Saturday evening was a great success. A very tasty supper was served and it was well attended, which rewarded the untiring efforts of the ones who did the work.

Epworth League Business and Social meeting will be held on Thursday evening, May 7th, at the Parsonage. Devotional meeting on Sunday evenig, May 3rd, will be in charge of Messrs. Galen Clark and Thomas Norris.

Mrs. William Murray, of Baltimore, spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. Carson Greenwood.

Miss Mabel Norris is visiting Mrs. L. H. Smith in Philadelphia.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs attended service at Still Pond church on last Sunday morning. A fair number were out and the service very much appreciated.

Our pastor was given a hearty reception on last Friday evening at the parsonage. A goodly number were out, with an enjoyable program and refreshments. A general good spirit prevailed and the folks at the parsonage were assured of their welcome and all present spent a pleasant evening.

AIDS TO BEATING THE GAME

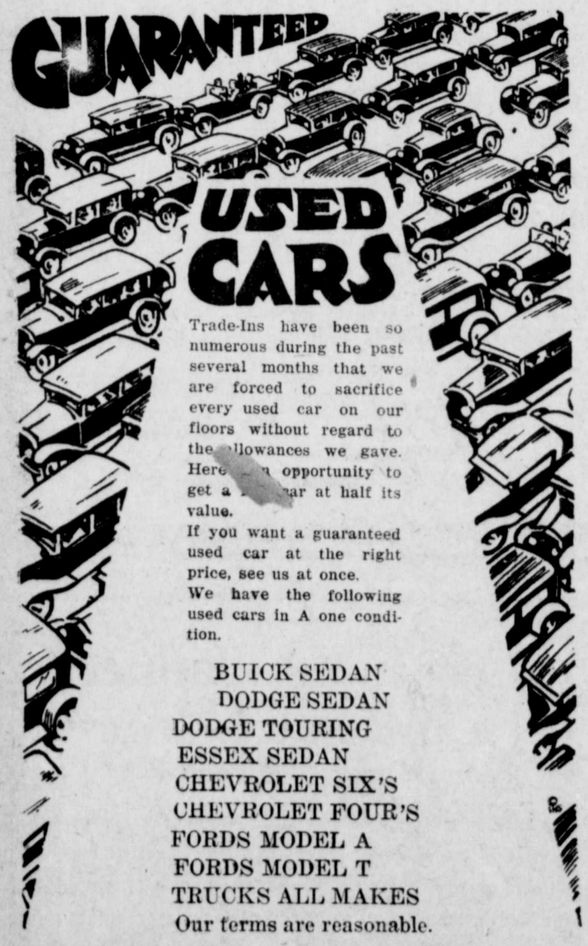

"There is nothing so satisfactory as a clear conscience."

"No," answered Senator Sorghum, "and the next best thing is a good lawyer."

SLICE OF THE OLD HAM

Fat Man fondling baby: "What do you think of my son, Jim?"

Jim, surveying father: "Well, I'd say that he was a stave off the old barrel."

Trade-Ins have been so numerous during the past several months that we are forced to sacrifice every used car on our floors without regard to the allowances we gave. Here is an opportunity to get a car at half its value.

If you want a guaranteed used car at the right price, see us at once.

We have the following used cars in A one condition.

BUICK SEDAN
DODGE SEDAN
DODGE TOURING
ESSEX SEDAN
CHEVROLET SIX'S
CHEVROLET FOUR'S
FORDS MODEL A
FORDS MODEL T
TRUCKS ALL MAKES

Our terms are reasonable.

ELIASON MOTORS, Inc.

CROSS STREET

Chestertown Marvland

SPECIALS AT BEN HELLER'S

PHONE 17

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

Saturday, MAY 2, 1931

Swift Premium or S. K. Hams	23c
Best Sirloin Steak	32c
Round Steak	25c
2 lbs Pure Lard	25c
2 Large Bottles Catsup	25c
1 Large Can Pears	19c
2 lbs Brookfield Butter	58c

LOCAL MATTER

—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bacon moved into their new apartment on Maple Ave., this week.

—The recent minstrel show staged by the active firemen netted $115 for that organization.

—The Rock Hall school was closed on Monday of this week due to a break in the heating equipment.

—Mr. Julian Coleman and family are moving this week to the home on Mill street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bacon.

—Mr. J. S. Kreeger will attend a meeting of the Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia Jeweler's Association at Wilmington on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Frank M. Jarman Post, American Legion, will be held at headquarters on Wednesday evening of next week, May 6th.

—Mr. R. Ellis Clark has bought the home of the late Colonel William Vannort on the corner of Front street and Maple Ave., and will make it into a funeral home.

KENT C.M.T.C. QUOTA RAISED

APPLICATIONS MUST BE IN BY MAY 11

Mayor Harrison, U. S. A., Major George Parker, of Baltimore; and Mr. J. D Maxwell, C. M. T. C. chairman for Kent county; have been visiting the high schools of Kent county this week in the interest of the Citizens Military Trainig Camps.

The quota for these camps from Kent county this year was originally placed at six young men and this county was the third in the state to fill its quota. However, due to the interest being shown by the young men of the county in the military training camps this quota has been increased and those who wish to attend one of these camps this summer are urged to act immediately as all applications must be in by May 11th.

Those from Kent county who attend camp for the first time will go to Fort Eustis, Virginia.

FORT EUSTIS, Virginia, is on the Peninsula, between the James and York Rivers, 18 miles from Newpork News on the James River, and 9 miles from Yorktown on the York River. Here at Yorktown is the monument commemorating the Surrender of Cornwallis, and the earthworks of Revolutionary days are still to be seen.

Jamestown, the first settlement in Virginia, is 17 miles away. William and Mary College with its memories of Thomas Jefferson, is nearby.

Fort Eustis was named for General Abraham Eustis, of the War of 1812. Civil War fortifications can be traced throughout the Post.

These camps afford an ideal 6 weeks training for young men along military lines and the life in camp is a combination of military training and recreation. All expenses, including transportation to and from camp is furnished by the government. For further information regarding the camp this summer communicate with Mr. J. D. Maxwell, Worton R. R.

CIRCUIT COURT

The case of Lollie Thompson for selling liquor was on trial last Friday when this paper went to press. The verdict was not guilty. ....

The case of Thomas Williams who was found guilty of larceny was sentenced to twelve months in the House of Correction.

Case of Joshua Gains for selling liquor to which he plead guilty, sentence was suspended.

James Wickes convicted of larceny was paroled to Mr. R. G. Nicholson.

State vs. Samuel Lindsay for larceny, Court trial, verdict guilty sentenced to six months in the House of Correction.

State vs. Joshua Gains for attempt to bribe an officer. Plead not guilty, Court trial, Verdict guilty, sentenced to House of Correction for six months.

State vs. Charles Jarrell for larceny. Plead guilty, and sentenced to the House of Corection for six months.

State vs. James Williams for rape. Jury trial, verdict not guilty.

State vs. Ed. Thompson for larceny. Plead not guilty; Court trial; Verdict guilty and sentence suspended.

State vs. Frank Barnes for selling liquor; Jury trial. Verdict not guilty.

State vs. Willie Jake for selling liquor. Court trial verdict not guilty.

TUESDAY

The case of Robert M. Green & Sons vs. Harry Green. A case removed from Cecil county. Jury trial. Jury disagreed. The above case consumed Tuesday and part of Wednesday.

State vs. James Gossage for larceny. Plead guilty. Not sentenced.

State vs. Maynard Lee for larceny. Plead guilty, verdict guilty. Not sentenced.

THURSDAY

The case of Steve Teat vs. S. Barnard Moore for assault and battery. This case was removed from Centreville here. Verdict for Mr. Moore.

FRIDAY

The case of Daisy M. Perkins vs. the town of Elkton for injurys received by fall on a public street.

This case was removed from Elkton to Chestertown, and was on trial at the time of going to press.

DEATHS

Mrs. Gertrude E. Porter, of Worton, passed from this life on Saturday, April 25th, aged 80 years. She was the widow of the late George W. Porter and is survived by two nephews, Messrs. Benj. F. Rash and George W. Rash; also a neice, Mrs. Caddie Burris, of St. Georges, Del.

Funeral services were held in Worton M. E. Church on Tuesday afternoon 2 p. m., Rev. E. N. Wright, officiating. Interment Union cemetery. The Bearers were: Messrs. Harry, George and Ralph Williams, Marion Rash, Barney Cooper and Newbray Hadaway. B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in the Pocomoke City Presbyterian Church for Mrs. Alice C. Fontaine, mother of Professor E. Clarke Fontaine, State Supervisor of High Schools, whose home is in Chestertown. Mrs. Fontaine died on Sunday at the Wilmer Institute in Baltimore.

Besides Professor Fontaine she is survived by her husband, Edgar Fontaine, of Pocomoke City, a daughter, Miss Lottie Fontaine, of the same city and a son, Gustavus Fontaine, of Eden, Montana.

Mrs. Fontaine was the daughter of the late Mrs. Margaret Julian. She was born in 1858 and spent nearly the whole of her life in Pocomoke City.

ROTARIANS AT HARRISBURG

DR. TITSWORTH CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

Fifteen members of the Chestertown Rotary Club will journey to Harrisburg tomorrow to attend the 34th District convention in that city on Monday and Tuesday of next wek.

The local Rotarians will stage a fight for the election of Dr. Paul E. Titsworth as Governor of the 34th, Rotary District.

An active campaign has been underway for several months by the local club in the interest of Dr. Titsworth's election and indications at the present time are that the Eastern Shore will soon boast of its first Rotary Governor. He has been an active member of the local club since it received its charter and has delivered addresses before many of the clubs in this district. He was the guest speaker at the Cumberland Rotary luncheon on Tuesday of this week.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Connelly, were last week end guests of Mrs. Connelly's sister, Miss Julia Power in Baltimore.

Mrs. William R. Howell represented the local chapter at a three day meeting of the Eastern Star in Baltimore this week.

Dr. William R. Howell attended the annual meeting of the National Association of College Registrars in Buffalo, N. Y., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Blake, of Elkton, Md., were guest of friends in town last week end.

Miss Nancy Jean Usilton, who is attending, Marjorie Webster School in Washington, D. C., visited her parents over the week end.

Mr. Jack Nickerson, of Baltimore, was the week end guest of his mother on Front street extended.

Mr. Thomas Hoyle, of Philadelphia, visited his mother at Fairlee over the past week end.

Mr. Calvin Copper, of Newark, N. J., spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Whitter Copper on Park Circle.

Mr. Bert Newton, of White Marsh, near Baltimore, was the guest this week end of Mr. and Mrs. Romie Morris.

Miss Katherine Elliott is in Easton hospital for treatment.

Mrs. William Dunbar Gould, of Cambridge, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Urie, over the past week end.

Mr. ad Mrs. Thomas W. Perkins are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cooke in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon and children have returned home after spending the winter in Savanah, Georgia.

Mrs. Spencer Harris, of Baltimore, is the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harris on Water St.

Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalfe spent the week end in Swarthmore with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rogers and daughter, Harriet Louisa, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Moyer in Allentown, Pa.

Mr. Herbert Hartman left Florida on Tuesday of this week and is expected at his home here today.

General and Mrs. Guy Henry, U. S. A., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll. Mrs. Henry was formerally Miss Mary Rogers, of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dykes and children, of Charleston, W. Va., are guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. William F. Russell.

Major and Mrs. Harrison, U. S. A., and Major George Parker, of Baltimore, were guests this week of the Mexwells at Worton Manor.

Mr. Townshend Scudder, Dr. Roberts Greenfield, Miss Katherine Bowman and Mr. Joseph Cloman were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard.

Mr. W. S. Collins, Jr., spent part of this week in New York City.

Miss Margaret Adkinson, of New York City, is the guest of Mr. Edward Emory and sisters at Piney Grove farm near Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jensen and Miss Margaret Badger, of Baltimore, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kirby.

Mr. and Mrs. William Trew, of Washington, D. C., were week end guests of Mr. Thomas W. Trew.

WIN Your Share of the $100,000 Awards in KODAK'S INTERNATIONAL PICTURE-COMPETITION

FULL DETAILS HERE

COME in today for a circular, giving the simple contest rules and suggestions. Get started at once. Be determined to win one of the big money prizes!

For pictures of prize-winning quality, load up with Kodak Film and let our experts handle the developing and printing. You'll find that it pays. Make our store your headquarters for contest information and all picture-making supplies.

J. S. Kreeger

Jeweler & Optometrist, Chestertown, Md

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Shure, of Baltimore, were week end guests of Mrs. John Newnam on Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck and Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalfe were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson in Lansdowne, Pa., over the past week end.

JOHN H. MOFFETT MADE POULTRY MANAGER

TO HAVE CHARGE OF FLOCKS ON RASKOB ESTATE

John H. Moffett, of Lynch, left Kent county on Monday to take the position as poultry manager on Pioneer Point Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Raskob, in Corsica Neck near Centreville.

Mr. Moffett has been one of Kent's outstanding poultrymen, having specialized on the Rhode Island Red breed of chickens. In his new position he has taken charge of a large flock of fancy birds and he will develop show birds for exhibit in poultry shows. His knowledge and experience with poultry qualifies him to ably fill his position.

He will shortly move his family to a home on the Raskob estate.

Toulson's Drug Store

BUIST'S VEGETABLE & FLOWER SEEDS

They will grow

EVERGREEN LAWN GRASS SEED

AGRICO

For lawns and gardens
A great plant food.
at

Toulson's Drug Store

Phone 26, Chestertown
Prompt Delivery.

SALE! SALE!

April 16 to May 2

Newsome & Wheat's

Change OF Ownership

In order to adjust the affairs of the firm of Newsome & Wheat, this large and complete stock of merchandise must be greatly reduced by May 2, as on and after that date this business will be owned and conducted by

"ALBERT L. WHEAT,"

See Circulars for Particulars

NEWSOME & WHEAT

The Young Men's Shop Chestertown, Md

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8226-0601