Eastern Cemetery Laid Out Like Modern City

Travelers in Egypt approaching Cairo from the east are deeply impressed with the striking appearance, in a sandy valley between lines of broken hills, of a seemingly opulent city, close-built with houses of varying sizes and dominated at intervals with great domes and slender min-

CHURCH NOTES

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown

Rev. E. A. Sexsmith, D. D. Minister. You are cordially invited to the services on next Sunday and the following week which will be as folows: Sunday School at 10 a. m. Lesson subject "The Sin of Causing Others to Stumble." Why not join us in this important Bible study?

The pastor has returned from the recent session of the Maryland Annual Conference and will preach at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Let us make this first Sunday of the Conference year a day of real inspiration and blessing by attending and praying the blessing of God upon the services.

Wednesday evenig at 7.30 o'clock we will hold our prayer and praise service to which you are invited. "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

The Ladies Missionary Society will be entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Knight. A full attendance is desired.

Chestertown M. E. Church

Rev. J. Harry Wright, Minister.

Sunday services will be as follows: 10 a. m. Church School, J. S. Kreeger, superintendent. The lesson theme for the Senior Department will be, "Abstinence for the Sake of Others."

11 a. m. morning worship service. The sermon of the morning will be preached by Rev. J. L. Johnson, Superintendent of the Middletown District. The vested choir, under the direction of Mrs. Merrick Clements, will present special music. Earl T. Wills, will also take part in this program, and will present the speaker of the morning.

7.30 p. m. evening worship service. The popular gospel hymn-sing will precede the preaching of the sermon. The preacher will be Rev. Robert E. Green, who is now a student in Boston University School of Theology. Mr. Green is well-known in this community, and his many friends will want to hear him preach. You are cordially invited to attend this service.

There will be no meetings at the church during the week. The pastor will be in attendance at a Conference on Church Work, held in Union Theological Seminary, New York City, June 16 to 27.

St. James M. P. Church

Rev. J. Lee Marker, Minister. Attention is caled to the service for the first Sunday of the new conference year Let us start the new year with high enthusiasm and a fine representation of our people to all services. 10 a. m. Sunday School, George Carroll, superintendent. Our lesson will be "The Sin of Causing Others to Stumble." We are counting on you to be there and to be on time.

11 a. m. The pastor will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion. Special music.

7.30 p. m. Christian Endeavor led by Franklin Moffett on the subject of "How Decide What is Right and What is Wrong"

Lynch M. P. Church

2 p. m. Sudnay School, Mrs. Harry Jewell superintendent The lesson will be "The Sin of Causing Others to Stumble" Don't forget we are expecting a fine attendance to start the new Conference year.

C. E. Society service at 7.30 p. m. Installation of new officers and brief address by the pastor. We welcome you here.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, Md.

Sunday School at ten, Weldon Walbert, Supt. It is easy to go to Church when there is no other attraction, but when there is, on every hand, attractions calling for our approval and pleasures with their beckoning hand reaching out to us from every direction, making it so easy for us to neglect our duty to God, comes the real test. Shall we survive with the Church, or perish on the things of the world? Preaching at eleven, come out and help us make these services worth while. League service at 7.30 Miss Virginia Miller will be the leader, and an interesting program is being planned, this may be the last meeting of the League until after the Summer season, you will not want to miss being present.

Union M. E. Church, Worton, Md.

Sunday School at two P. M., B. F. Rash, Supt., a real welcome awaits you at Union, you are missing the pleasure of fellowship with a real people if you are not in your place at Union on Sundays. Preaching at 3. League service at 7.30. Your presence is requested, come out and help make the service a success.

Grace M. E. Church, Piney Neck, Md.

Sunday School at 9.30 a. m. O. E. Frazier, Supt., here is a fine school, well attended the interest is good and the service helpful, there is nothing to take the place of the church in a community, and there is nothing that will keep the Church a living organization, except, the Spirit of God and the interest of His people. Don't let other things come before your duty to God. Preaching at 7.30 p. m. We will be looking for you, will you be present?

STILL POND

Mrs. John Robinson is visiting her daughter in Baltimore, Md.

Miss Mabel Norris and Mrs. Letitia Smith have returned home after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler in Baltimore, Md.

Mr. Moffett and son, of Charlotte, N. C., visited his sister, Mrs. Rachel Dority this week, as it has been about 40 years since they last saw each other, it was quite a happy meeting.

Many thanks are due Messers. Albert and Edward Jervis for cutting the grass on Church Green recently.

The Devotional service of the Epworth League will be lead on Sunday evening by Robert Hopkins and Baynard Harper.

When the Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Roseberry on June 3rd. They made plans for their Annual Bazaar which will be held at Betterton the same time as last year August 22nd.

Rev. Hopkins spent Tuesday of this week in Baltimore, Md.

Lessening Sadness

Is the First Duty of the Funeral Director

My excellent system of arranging the details for each and every funeral entrusted to my care leaves with those upon whom I wait, a feeling of confidence and satisfaction that the last offices were performed with such perfect harmony as to greatly lessen the sadness connected with such an event.
