NEGRO ASSAULTS WOMAN

Following the arrest last Sunday morning of William Rendall, 32-year-old Kent Island negro, charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. Florence V. Dashiels, 63-year-old widow of Stevensville, State's Attorney William A. Horney announced yesterday that Judges of the Circuit Court would confer next week concerning the advisability of calling the Grand Jury into special session to review the case.

State's Attorney Horney filed a request with the Court Monday morning, asking that Rendall, the accused negro, be given a speedy trial. Following his arrest Sunday morning Rendall was removed to Denton Jail, and on an order of the Court Monday morning was taken to Baltimore Jail.

—A large proportion of Kent's wheat crop has been cut and predictions point to a large crop.

HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Carter Rash had his head badly cut when he and Fred Seward, riding with Edgar Harris, of Worton, were in an automobile accident early Thursday morning. The accident occured when the car in which they were riding was in a collision with an automobile driven by Bradford Martin, colored. The accident occured in front of the home of Mr. Morgan Bennett in Queen Anne's county. Both cars were badly wrecked.

ARMORY BIDS REJECTED

The bids for the new State Armory for Chestertown were opened in Baltimore on Thursday of this week and all bids were rejected as being too high.

It is understood that the three lowest bidders will be given an opportunity to bid again after certain changes in the specifications have been made. The new bids will be opened next week.

DEATHS

John Bartley died at his late home on Campus Avenue extended, Tuesday afternoon, aged 80 years. He has been in poor health for the past two years and has been confined to his home for several months.

He was one of the leading merchants of Chestertown having established and built up the furniture business which bears his name. John Bartley & Son is the largest exclusive furniture shore in this section of the shore and the business will be conducted by his son, Barber R. Bartley.

Mr. Bartley was born in Ireland and came to Kent county where he established a carpet weaving mill near Urieville Mill. Later he came to Chestertown and established the furniture business, trading as John Bartley.

He is survived by his widow who was before her marriage, Miss Martha Redmile, of Kent county. Also one son, Barber R. Bartley and a sister, Miss Mary Bartley, of Ohio.

Funeral services were held Friday at 2 p. m. at the home with interment in Chester cemetery, Dr. E. A. Sexsmith, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, officiating.

The bearers were: Messrs. Frank V. Simpers, Graham Nelson, George Pennington, Walter Bramble, William H. McKee and Charles Calloway. R. Ellis Clark, undertaker.

Miss Anna M. Willson Wallis, daughter of the late Francis Adolphus and M. Georgianna Willson Wallis, died at the Franklin Square Hospital, Baltimore, Md., June 15, 1931, after a painful illness. Her remains were brought to Rock Hall and funeral services were held at St. John's Catholic Church at eleven o'colck Wednesday morning. Father Kreamer, of Centreville, officiating in the absence of Father Earner. Interemnt was in the cemetery adjoining.

A beautiful sheaf of lillies was sent by the Francis Wallis Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of which chapter she was a charter member. Members of her family from Woodside, Silver Spring, Landover, Croome, Md., and from Cherrydale, Va., as well as many relatives from Kent and Queen Annes counties, attended the funeral. Miss Nan Wallis was very bright and interesting, having traveled extensively, she had a keen appreciation of the beauties of the world about her, and a fine sense of humor, and her death will cause sincere regret. She leaves five sisters, Mrs. Henrietta E. Perry, Mrs. Charles H. arman, Mrs. Eva W. Sasscer, Mrs. J. Percy Wilson and Mrs. John A. Wheeler; and four brothers, Mr. Francis A. Wallis, of Wilmington, Del.; Mr. Harry H. Wallis, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. Thomas S. Wallis, of Cherrydale, Va.; and Mr. John C. Wallis, of Wilmington, Del; also numerous nieces and nephews.

Betty Ann Rodney, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rodney, passed away at her home near Worton Thursday evening, June 18.

Funeral service was held from the home of her Grand-Mother, Mr. and Mrs. Williams Rodney, of High St., Chestertown, Saturday, June 20th at 2 p. m. Interment St. Paul cemetery. Rev. Randall officiated. B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

Katie D. Brice, wife of William A. Brice, died at her late home in Baltimore on Tuesday. She and her husband were former residents of Kent county, where both were well known.

Burial services were conducted at the grave in Chester cemetery, Chestertown, at 11 a. m. Thursday by the Reverend Father J. E. Earner. Charles L. Dodd, undertaker.

CHURCH NOTES

7:30 P. M.—Sacred concert by Mario Cappelli, Italian-American tenor of New York. The whole program will be musical, there being no speaking planned. There will be no admission charged, but an offering for Signor Cappelli will be received. He will sing selections from operatic arias, and from the works of master composers, such as Handel, Mozart, Schubert, Schumann, Giordiani, Bononcini, Verdi, Bizet and Puccini. He will also sing some Negro Spirituals, among which will be his unique interpretation of "Goin' Home" from the New World Symphony, by Anton Dvorak. It will be a moment long to be remembered just to hear him sing this selection. Cappelli's interpretation of the gospel hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," is artistic as well as spiritually uplifting.

This great tenor has the remarkable faculty of appealing to, and satisfying the musical appreciation of anyone and everyone. If you believe in the unseen realities which uplift and inspire man, you will hear this great singer. And when you have heard him, you will say with those who heard him before, "I would not have missed hearing him for anything."
