STORM REACHES FLOOD PROPORTION

A heavy storm Wednesday evening reached flood proportions in the lower section of Kent county while in the upper section only a light rain fell.

Considerable damage was done at Radcliffe Mill where the flood waters entered the mill and wet a quantity of feed. This is the third storm in the past two years that has damaged flour and feed stored in the mill. The filling station of Mr. Horace Needles, near the mill, was submerged to a depth of three feet. The horse pond near the farm of Mr. William T. Nicholson, which has been dry for a number of years, filled and overflowed into adjoining fields. A young man was compelled to remain in his automobile all night in the bottom near Wesley Chapel when flood waters drowned his motor out. The county road at Montebello Laye was washed away when the dam broke.

As there was no wind during the storm, little damage was done to the farm crops athough young poultry was drowned in some sections.

DEATHS

Mrs. Julia Medders, 74, widow of John Medders, former clerk to the Board of Kent County Commissioners, died yesterday morning at the Cambridge Hospital, where she had been a patient for several months.

Mrs. Medders and her husband formerly lived at Kennedyville. After Mr. Medders' election as clerk to the Board of County Commissioners, they moved to Chestertown.

Mrs. Medders before marriage was Miss Julia Sutton, of Kent county.

She is survived by two sons, Jesse Medders, of Chestertown, and Prof. George Medders, of Denton, Texas.

Funeral services were held here at 3 P. M. Friday in Christ Methodist Protestant Church. Burial will be in Chester Cemetery.

The funeral services were conducted by Dr. E. A. Sexsmith, pastor of the Christ Methodist Protestant Church. Mr. Charles L. Dodd was the undertaker and the bearers were: Thomas D. Bowers, Harvey B. Moore, Walter T. Bramble, George M. Glenn, Fred G. Usilton and Milton E. Baker.

VOTERS AND TAX PAYERS OF CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

Read every word of this pamphlet. It is your Business.

Extract from Auditors report for the year 1929 of the books and records of Commissioners of Chestertown made under order of Mayor E. Scott Thompson and commissioner Henry Gill, first audit for more than twenty years prior to present board.

Under orders of Commissioners Thompson and Gill the auditors opened new system of books and put the town finances on a budget system, there by retiring $4,000 of the town's old indebtedness during the year 1930.

To the Commissioners of Chestertown

Chestertown, Maryland

Gentlemen:

As per your resolution of June 2, 1930, appointing the undersigned to audit the books and make recommendations, we wish to submit the following statement:

We have taken the year starting April 25, 1929, and closing April 25, 1930, beginning with shortage of $176.88.

We have checked all receipts and disbursements showing balance in hand at close of business April 25, 1930, of $1,457.17.

We find the administration of the affairs of the town by the Commissioners have been very badly managed.

In defiance of the law which prohibits the Commissioners from borrowing money, in 1928, $6,000.00, in 1929, $3,000.00, $2,500.00, $1,500.00, was borrowed on notes with no record of tne loans and no official action on the minutes for the borrowing of the money.

In most instances no official action on minutes of record were taken on important matters such as:

Gasoline tank permits given without charge.

Pipe line permits given without charge.

Sewer on Lynchburg Street.

Additional Street Lights.

Reduction of assessments for taxes to citizens.

Ordinances published.

Rebates on cement sidewalks given to citizens.

Bonus salary paid clerk to amount of $150.00.

Extra money paid stenographer for assistance to Clerk, $75.00.

Christmas presents given the employees.

Taxpayers money spent for flowers.

And many other careless and irregular actions.

There is no record of the bonded indebtiness of the town showing maturities of the bonds:

We respectfully make the following recommendations:

That new system of bookkeeping be installed.

That the town be operated on the budget system.

That committee be appointed at once to prepare and submit new charter to your Board for action at next Legislature which meets this coming January at Annapolis.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS W. PERKINS,
J. RAYMOND SIMPERS.

For ecomony and better service we ask the support of every tax payer and voter of Chestertown, on July 20, 1931.

Respectfully,
E. Scott Thompson — Henry Gill
