BY A WOMAN

ELEANOR GWYNN

Eleanor Gwynn, or as she is better known, Nell Gwynn was born in England of very poor parents in the year 1650. As a young girl she went around selling oranges and she would wander from tavern to tavern entertaining the guests with her songs and dances when she was sixteen years old she was persuaded to go on the stage where she made quite a hit in all comic parts, and she became quite the rage in London during the period of the Restoration. It was on the stage that Charles II, the merry monarch saw her and from then until his death she was his favorite companion and counsellor.

He had her placed over an establishment of her own, and he saw that she admitted to the best society of that period.

In spite of many frailities, she was a merry person, open hearted, generous to profusion, and in her prosperity she always remembered her old friends especially those who were on the stage. It was through her influence that the King erected Chelsea, a hospital for disabled soldiers, and these soldiers always drank to her health on the King's birthday.

When he died he showed his appreciation of her good qualities by telling those around him to take care of her, and his last words were, "Let not poor Nelly starve."

Her life was very free from reproach after the Kings death for she seems to have loved him very much and often would regret that she had not known him sooner that she could have shared the many perils of his early life. When she died in 1690, Dr. Tenison who afterwards became the archbishop of Canterbury, preached her funeral sermon.

She is described as being low in statue, well formed and sprightly and her dancing and acting were delightful. Her eyes always danced while she talked, and her foot was one of the smallest in England.

GERMANY'S PRIZE ROSE IS NAMED MRS. SACKETT

Germany's most beautiful rose, a great dark red flower which won first prize at the Bad Homburg rose show, has been named the "Mrs. Sackett," in honor of the wife of the American Ambassador.

The ambassador was informed of the tribute today by the director of the show. The prize rose, grown by a firm in Frankfort, was awarded a gold medal as the finest flower in the exhibition.

STILL AFTER THE JOB

The valiant fight of Miss Mollie Stewart to hold the fort against efforts to oust her from the position of postmistress at Oxford, Md., which she has held for more than half a century, deserves success. But the eagerness to oust her from her job continues, though the movement, according to dispatches to The Sun, has met with practically the unanimous opposition of the community.

If the desire to force Miss Stewart out were due to incapacity owing to age, that would be understandable. But when an examination was held last year she stood highest on the list. At that time the scheme of ouster was dropped. It is now reported that it is to be revived and that Miss Mollie must give way to some deserving Republican.

(ADVERTISEMENT) VOTERS AND TAX PAYERS OF CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

Read every word of this pamphlet. It is your Business.

Extract from Auditors report for the year 1929 of the books and records of Commissioners of Chestertown made under order of Mayor E. Scott Thompson and commissioner Henry Gill, first audit for more than twenty years prior to present board.

Under orders of Commissioners Thompson and Gill the auditors opened new system of books and put the town finances on a budget system, there by retiring $4,000 of the town's old indebtedness during the year 1930.

To the Commissioners of Chestertown
Chestertown, Maryland
Gentlemen:

As per your resolution of June 2, 1930, appointing the undersigned to audit the books and make recommendations, we wish to submit the following statement:

We have taken the year starting April 25, 1929, and closing April 25, 1930, beginning with shortage of $176.88.

We have checked all receipts and disbursements showing balance in hand at close of business April 25, 1930, of $1,457.17.

We find the administration of the affairs of the town by the Commissioners have been very badly managed.

In defiance of the law which prohibits the Commissioners from borrowing money, in 1928, $6,000.00, in 1929, $3,000.00, $2,500.00, $1,500.00, was borrowed on notes with no record of the loans and no official action on the minutes for the borrowing of the money.

In most instances no official action on minutes of record were taken on important matters such as:

Gasoline tank permits given without charge.

Pipe line permits given without charge.

Sewer on Lynchburg Street.

Additional Street Lights.

Reduction of assessments for taxes to citizens.

Ordinances published.

Rebates on cement sidewalks given to citizens.

Bonus salary paid clerk to amount of $150.00.

Extra money paid stenographer for assistance to Clerk, $75.00.

Christmas presents given the employees.

Taxpayers money spent for flowers.

And many other careless and irregular actions.

There is no record of the bonded indebtiness of the town showing maturities of the bonds:

We respectfully make the following recommendations:

That new system of bookkeeping be installed.

That the town be operated on the budget system.

That committee be appointed at once to prepare and submit new charter to your Board for action at next Legislature which meets this coming January at Annapolis.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS W. PERKINS,
J. RAYMOND SIMPERS.

For ecomony and better service we ask the support of every tax payer and voter of Chestertown, on July 20, 1931.

Respectfully,
E. Scott Thompson Henry Gill

*Consider your Adam's Apple!!

Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

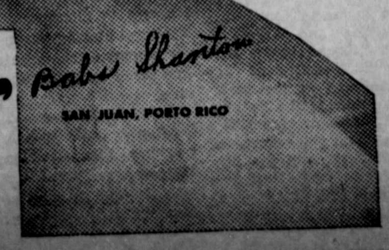

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

Everyone has an Adam's Apple—Every man—every woman has one. Touch your Adam's Apple with your finger. You are actually touching your larynx—this is your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple, you are considering your throat—your vocal chords.

"TOASTING" expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE—the modern cigarette. We sell these expelled irritants to manufacturers of chemical compounds. Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" Process includes the use of Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED"—an extra, secret and exclusive heating process. It is this process that expels these harsh irritants. No wonder 20,679 American physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple." Be careful in your choice of cigarettes.
