CHESAPEAKE BAY LEAGUE

Church Hill defeated Rock Hall last Saturday at Washington College athletic field in a tie play off to determine the winner of the first half of the series.

Carey, the south-paw pitching ace for Rock Hall, allowed only 2 hits, struck out 13 men but walked thirteen which was responsible for his team's defeat. He pulled himself out of tight places in the third and seventh innings, when he retired the side after filling the bases with base on balls. The pressure was too great in the eighth when after passing three men to fill the bases, a slow ball hit by R. Walls scored the first run for Church Hill, leaving the bases again full. Two more men were passed forcing two runs in which gave Church Hill three runs to the two Rock Hall scored in the first inning. Neither team scored in the ninth inning.

Rock Hall started the scoring in the first inning when a single by Grant was followed by a sacrifice by Baker. Fitzgerald's hit put Grant on third and he was safe on second. A two base hit by Legates scored both runs. That team failed to score again during the game.

Bill Loller, of Worton, pitching for Church Hill allowed nine hits but after the first inning he kept them so well scattered that his opponents were unable to Score. He accounted for one of his team's two hits, he fielded seven assists, and passed only one man.

A summary of the game shows that Rock Hall lost the game after getting 9 hits while Church Hill won with only 2 hits neither one being responsible for a run.
