NOW AND THEN

HOW OLD ARE LOU?

AGE is a quality of mind—
If you have left your dreams behind,
If hope is cold,
If you no longer look ahead,
If your ambition's fires are dead—
Then you are old.

But if from life you take the best,
And if in life you keep the jest,
If love you hold,
No matter how the years go by,
No matter how the birthdays fly—
You are not old.

—Anon.

A friend has handed us the above poem. As we read it we think now she has found the secret of keeping young. "In others happiness, herself most blest." Again we can laugh so heartily at things that happened to disconcert us a year ago. If we can only laugh at the time they take place, they would not be near so bad.

Some time ago we met a man of ninety. His eye was bright and so was his smile. "And what are you taking up this winter?" asked a friend. "Oh, I am studying French again," he said, and we felt then, "You are not old."

Picnic season is here. What a delightful time it is. It is true one often has to share the jelly sandwich with an ant, and the coffee may have sticks and grit in it. One may have plenty of biting things on his body, but oh, the appetite one has! No lovely set table with its dainty surroundings can make one feel so hungry.

We are wondering what Mr. Coolidge is doing this vacation. It seems rather odd to take up a paper and not see: "Calvin Coolidge says." Surely at a dollar a word he can make enough to pay his touring expenses. Think of the wisdom that is being stored away for the autumn.

I took up a very interesting book this morning. The Autobiography of Joseph Jefferson, the actor. It is full reminiscences of famous men and actors. He told of an Englishman, Sir William Don, who was in his company. After he left it for a stock company, of his own, Jefferson received letters from him saying he would be down to dinner but a pair of Canvass back ducks or diamond back terrapins would be plenty.

As it was the 4th of July both were out of season. Jefferson got up a dinner for the occasion, but no guest arrived. A letter was handed Jefferson from Sir Don. In it he told that he had changed his lodging to Ludlow Jail as a certain Jew had put him there for getting money under false pretences, being a promise to pay as soon as he received his money for his last play. As the play was unsuccessful, his creditors landed him in jail. It is needless to say that Jefferson went to jail and released the English Lord, and that the latter fully enjoyed the feast prepared for him.

CONTINUING ROCK HALL CARNIVAL

The committee in charge of the Rock Hall Firemen's Carnival has decided to extend the date of closing until Monday, August 10th. At this time an electric U. S. Apex Radio, A Majestic Electric Refrigerator and a Chevrolet Coach will be given away.

A large crowd attended the carnival on parade night, Wednesday of this week. Five visiting fire companies were in line, Ridgley, Millington, Sudlersville, Church Hill and Chestertown. Prizes were awarded as follows: Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company $20.00 in gold for best banc; Church Hill $15.00 in gold for most men in line; and Ridgley $10.00 in gold for coming longest distance.

The many attractions at the carnival are doing very well financially, although the total receipts are a little behind last years receipts at this stage of the carnival.

HEALTH NOTES.

THE THREE F'S

Country babies are supposed to have many advantages that city babies lack, but when it comes to certain seasonal diseases, such as diarrhea, dysentery and other intestinal diseases in the summer and the pneumonias in the winter, city babies seem to have an advantage over the country babies, as a comparison of the records of the State Department of Health for Baltimore City with those for the counties, will indicate. The records of the Bureau of the Census show that the same thing is true in other parts of the country.

Last year 1,285 babies under a year old, died in the counties of Maryland, and of that total 341 were due to diarrhea, that is, one out of every four was charged on the death certificate to diarrhea or dysentry, or to one of the other diseases of that class. In Baltimore City where there were 981 deaths of babies under a year old, 120 were due to diarrhea diseases, or one out of every eight.

Because of the prevalence of diarrheal or digestive diseases at this time of the year, babies need special protection against them. Outlining some of the ways by which the babies can be safeguarded against such diseases, Dr. J. H. M. Knox, Jr., Chief of the State Bureau of Child Hygiene said:"Means that have proved effective in the prevention of digestive and diarrheal diseases among babies are:

Regular supervision of the baby while it is well, by the family doctor;

Mother's milk;

Clean cow's milk modified according to the needs of the individual child for the babies who have to be bottle-fed; unsweetened condensed milk, or evaporated milk, if cow's milk is not available;

Cooled, boiled water to drink;

Careful protection from contact with persons suffering from any diarrheal disease;

Protection against flies;

Clothing adapted to the temperature; and Intelligent care.

The three F's—flies, fingers and food are three sources of danger to the baby. Flies carry disease germs to hands that are not thoroughly washed before preparing the babies food are likely to be germ carriers, also. Milk or other food that is intended for the baby should be carefully covered and kept in a cool place until used.

Very special care should be taken of the milk that is given to babies and young children. All milk intended for them should be boiled for three minutes and then cooled to the right temperature before using.

NEW PARCEL POST REGULATIONS

New Schedule Went Into Effect Aug. 1

Announcement was made this week by the postal authorities that on August 1st, there will be a change of the parcel post regulations. The new regulations permit the shipment of parcels of 100 inches length and girth combined to any zone with a maximum weight of 70 pounds. Under the old regulations no package could be mailed larger than 84 inches length and girth combined, with 70 pound limit through the third zone, with a 50 pound limit on all packages going to more distant zones.

The new regulations are put into force to give added service to factories and farmers in the movement of packages weighing over 3 ounces, not embraced in mail of first and second class. The local shippers of flowers, perishable produce, baby chicks, plants, etc. will realize a considerable benefit from the new regulations in that it will reduce the number of packages necessary to handle shipments.

REGATTA AUGUST 21 AND 22

JOHN J. RASKOB OFFERS $200 IN GOLD FOR POWER WORK BOAT CHAMPIONSHIP RACES

The power work boat races will be a thrilling part of the Chester River Regatta which is to be held on August 21st and 22nd. There will be two events in this work boat class, one for the dead-rise boats and the other for the motor log canoes. Watermen are very enthusiastic over these races as already more than forty entries are assured.

The cash prizes of $200 in gold which Mr. Raskob offers are to be divided equally between the dead-rise boats and canoes. The winners of each class will receive gold prizes as follows: $50 for first place; $25 for second, $15 for third, and $10 for fourth. These two events are limited to work boats that have been regularly employed during the past year for oystering, fishing or crabbing. There shall be at least two men in each boat. The race will be held at Chestertown on Saturday, August 22, over the regular speed boat course length, which is two and one-half miles.

According to the race committee, interest at this time is about evenly divided between the Kent and Qeeen Annes counties. Fishermen in Talbot and Dorchester counties have some mighty fast dead-rise boats and canoes. They are not saying much but are tuning up their motors and getting ready to give the local fishermen a real race.

In addition to this thrilling event the Chester River Regatta will have a race for every boat that ever sailed the Chesapeake. There will be a big handicap event for sail and motor boats, star yacht race and the gold cup sailing championship of Chesapeake. There will be a big handicap peake Bay, which starts Friday morning. The spectacular fireworks display will be at Chestertown Friday night. On Saturday the program includes the log sail canoe race, small sailboat championship, free-for-all outboard marathon, as well as special events for all outboards and speed boats.

A GREAT STAR'S GREATEST FILM

"A FREE SOUL" IS VIVID MELODRAMA OF SAN FRANSISCO

Norma Shearer's newest picture "A Free Soul," is a screen dramatization of the widely read novel by Adela Rogers St. Johns, and will be seen at the New Lyceum Theatre, August 12th and 13th.

A stellar supporting cast includes Leslie Howard, the celebrated Broadway actor who made his screen debut in "Never the Twain Shall Meet" and followed this with the role opposite Marion Davies in "Five and Ten"; Lionel Barrymore, who makes his appearance before the camera again after an interval of directing; Clark Gable, who has achieved a sessational rise in films following his work in "The Easiest Way," "Dance, Fools. Dance," and "The Secret Six"; James Gleason and Lucy Beaumont.

The picture was directed by Clarence Brown, who has gained an enviable reputation for his successful productios of Greta Garbo's vehicles.

"A Free Soul," is the type of picture which Miss Shearer can carry off so well, involving as it does a heroine whose determination to live a life of complete freedom gets her into difficulties when she attempts to carry out the theory in her love affairs.

As the daughter of a criminal lawyer addicted to drink and an almost fanatic determination to bring his motherless girl up in an atmosphere of ultra-modern freedom. Miss Shearer is given her choice between a conservation society sportsman and a notorious gambler whose ruthless power fascinates her. When the father realizes to what depths his leniency has brought his daughter he attempts to shift his stand. This results in a unique agreement between father and daughter in which one promises to give up drinking if the other will give up her lover. The climax occurs when the gambler attempts to use force to get his way and is killed. A sensational trial scene leads to the climax and denouncement.

Mrs. Louise B. Dutcher, formerly of the Gray Beauty Shoppe, will open a Shoppe on 306 Park Row next Monday.
