—Dr. S. Holt Wright will move his dental parlors from Maple Ave. and Spring St., to the Turner Building on High street August 15th.

—Work started this week laying a concrete pavementon the corner of Calvert St. and College Ave. This is the first work that has been done by the new Council

—Mr. James Thompson, Jr. is building a frame bungalow on the property which he recently purchased from Mr Jake Zeizel. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will occupy their new home about Christmas. This property adjoins the homes of Mr. Zeizel and Mr. Baxter near the Bramble Poultry farm.

—James Johns, Jr.,, a graduate of Chestertown High School in the class of 1931 and who has recently been attending the C. M. T. C. Camp at Fort Eustis, Va., this summer, was among the winners of a marksman medal for rifle. He also won a bronze medal for basketball.

—A truck, owned and operated by Herman Crew, of Kent county, was in a collision with an automobile driven by Dr. Ballard, of the Delaware State Hospital, in Still Pond Neck Thursday afternoon. Two ladies in Dr. Ballard's car were injured but the extent of their injuries could not be learned at this writing. Dr. Ballard was visiting friends in Still Pond Neck.

ENTERTAIN DELAWARE JUDGES

Mr. and Mrs. Keedy entertained the entire Delaware Judiciary at Keewood On The Chesapeake on Monday of this week.

Among those present were Chief Judge Pennewill, Chancellor Walcott, Judges Rice, Harrington, Rodney and Richards. Included in the party were thirty leading Wilmington lawyers. Governor Buck was expected but illness prevented him from being present.

These men usually have lunch together in Wilmington and this was their second annual outing in Kent County, Maryland.

POSTMASTERS MEET

A dispatch form Annapolis says: The National League of District Postmasters, Maryland Branch, held its semi-annual meeting Monday at Carvel Hall, Annapolis, W. C. Dempsey, of Kennedyville, presided.

Luncheon was served at 1.30 p. m. and the delegates later were received by Governor Ritchie at the Executive Mansion.

TO BUILD COUNTY WHARF

The Commissioners of Kent county are advertising in this issue for bids on building a county wharf in Long Cove, Piney Neck. This wharf is being built after a thorough investigation of the need following a petition for a wharf which was signed by a large delegation from that section.

LEAGUE BALL GAME TODAY

What promises to be one of the most interesting and hard fought games of base ball will be played on the Washington College field today, Saturday, August 8th, between the Rock Hall Club and the Church Hill Club. Former games between these two clubs have been close contests and these two teams are looked upon by ball fans as old rivels and a large crowd is expected to witness the contest today.

The game will start at 2.45 p. m. Both teams have enthusiactic admirers in the league and their games are usually closely contested and are exciting to an unusual degree.

FURROWS

Some of the politicians is trying mighty hard to git their man picked fer President. According to some newspaper writers the next President is already picked. But it seems to me that we folks here in Maryland ought to git busy and do something fer our candidate. So I propose that ever'body in the Democratic Party, and a lot that ain't in it, git together and organize ourselves into "Ritchie fer President" clubs all over the State. We'll never git our man nominated unless we start booming him fer the job. If the folks in Maryland git back of Mr. Ritchie good and strong folks in other states will follow our example.

There is some fellers out here in our neighborhood that don't like Mr. Ritchie, but sakes alive! show me a man who can please ever'body and he won't be fit fer no president. He won't be fit fer nothing but flapping his wings and playing on a golden harp. Mr. Ritchie has got his faults all right, but he don't try to cover 'em up with a lot of pretense. Some sez he is too wet to git the nomination or election, but he don't pretend to be dry when he is with a lot of drys and then turn wet whenever he gits with the wets. No sir, he's straight out and open a wet. But if I understand Mr. Ritchie's position on this much discussed subject, he is fer local and state option as agin National prohibition. Well, I'm fer state's rights, under the Constitution, and I don't believe in tacking on a lot of Amendments that is going to take away from us the privilege of governin ourselves. Mr. Ritchie is sound on that doctrine.

Now there's Mr. Roosevelt in New York. He's a good man all right, but he straddles a lot. He lets on like he's sort of dry whenever he's talking to other drys and when the wets are around he's wet. I ain't very strong fer that kind of a democrat. I 'member when Mr. Roosevelt fought Tamany teeth and toe-nail, but look what happened after awhile. He turned right around and joined Tamany, and it wuz Tamany that elected him Gov'nor of New York. Them two counts alone is enough to turn me agin Mr. Roosevelt fer President. He's a straddler and a Tamany man.

Now, you take Mr. Ritchie. If we git away from that wet and dry issue, he's got a lot more in his favor than any other candidate. Look at the things he's done fer our people here in Maryland. We've got more and better schools than we ever had before. We've got more and better roads that we ever had before. Our seafood industries has been saved, and a lot of other things that I might mention. He's been re-elected Gov'nor three times and that's a record equal to Al Smiths, and that shows how strong he is here in Maryland. He had to run again some right strong republicans too. Then, too, Mr. Ritchie's a strong healthy man. It takes a strong man to be president and carry the load of ever'body's business. Well, he's that all right, and more. He's a fine looking man and would make a good appearance at a public meetin.

Altogether, I think Mr. Ritchie is about the strongest man the democrats has got, but he can't git the nominotion unless we git back of him and let people in other states know what a strong man he is and how much we think of him.

So I'm startin a "Ritchie fer President" club right here and now. As a democrat I hereby call on all Maryland democrats to git together and organize "Ritchie fer President" clubs all over the state, and show the democrats in other states that we want our Gov'nor to be President.
