IN MEMORIAN

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father and husband, Thomas S. Jones, who departed this life this night November 27, 1926.

Memories of the one we cherish so dear,
And oft times shed many a bitter tear.
It is only those who have loved and lost,
And with broken hearts feel the bitter cost.

The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never.
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.

Time speds on 5 years have passed,
Since death gloom and shadow cast
Within our home where all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light.

We miss that light and forever will;
His vacant place there is none can fill.
Down here we mourn but not in vain,
For up in Heaven we'll meet again.

By his loving wife and children.

DEATHS

George W. Vanable, 69, manager of the laundry at Farnhurst, near Wilmington, dided, after a short illness, last Monday. The deceased was the son of the late Joseph and Angeline Venable, of Kent County. He is survived by four nephews, William J. French, George W. French, Joseph Duyer and W. E. Duyer. These nephews, with Frank Duyer and John Duyer, great nephews acted as pall bearers.. He is also survived by three nieces, Mrs. Howard Jones, Mrs. Grover Hatcherson and Mrs. Ella Skirven.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Mr. Wm. J. French. The Rev. J. Lee Marker, pastor of St. James M. P. Church officiated and Charles L. Dodd, undertaker. Interment in Still Pond Cemetery.

James H. Rowe, one of Rock Hall's Highly respected business men passed away suddenly at his late home about a mile from Rock Hall, Friday evening in 68th year. Mr. Rowe has not been in good health for the past five years and since the death of his wife on November 20th, 1930, has failed considerably. He had as usual spent the day at the store, returning as was his custom at 6 p. m. for his supper. The end came very quietly and peacefully.

He is survived by 4 grand children and one elder brother, Mr. Edward Eugene Rowe. Since the death of Mrs. Rowe the grand daughter, Miss Julia Downey has taken charge of the home.

Funeral service was held at his late home Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m., Rev. W. S. Grant, officiating, interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. Undertaker, B. R. Fellows, assisted by Owen Clark. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Samuel Collier, Charles Smith, Henry Collier, Franklin Parsons, William Collison, and Thomas Collier.

APPOINTED SECRETARY

The London Bridge Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was entertained at the home of Mrs. and Miss Bottomley, in Millington, Friday evening, November 20, 1931.

After a delicious buffett supper was served, an interesting literary and business meeting was held. It was with much regret that we learned Miss Jean Hendrickson, our Corresponding Secetary, is leaving the county to take a position in Kentucky. Miss Ella Hicks was nominated to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Hendrickson's removal.

WINS MEAT PROJECT CONTEST

Jesse Hurd, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hurd, near Chestertown, has been declared the Maryland State winner in the national 4-H meat animal project contest. The announcement was made by E. G. Jenkins, State club agent, in charge of boys' and girls' club work.

Hurd, who is 18, has been a member of the Kent County 4-H Boy's Club for six years. The specialty for which he won the State prize is pig raising. He owns a herd of nineteen Poland China pigs from which he has realized a profit of $446.15.

BONWILL AND OWENS IN ARROW ORDER

Assistant Scoutmaster Allan H. Bonwill and Deputy Scout Commissioner Howard B. Owens, both of Betterton, were honored by being made Second Degree members of the Order of the Arrow in Baltimore last Saturday evening. Both Scouts had been made members of the Order thru the Unlachtigo Lodge at the Rodney Scout Camps during the summer of 1928. Since that time this Lodge has become inactive, so last Satorday evening the two Scouts were voted into the Nentico Lodge, of the Baltimore Area Council, and at the same meeting were made Second Degree members. The meeting was held at the Madison Avenue Synagogue Community House and was attended by about seventy members.

WEDDING NOTES
