Shakespere's mighty brain child "Macbeth" is now being studied by the Seniors. This is a brief respite from the storm which is to follow shortly—parts of speech.

Every graduating class has a motto: As yet those who go out into the "cold and cru—uel world" in "'32" have not come to a final conclusion, but here are a few mottos which are under microscopic consideration and inspection:

(1) "Courage conquers all." Not bad at all is it?

(2) "Wisdom is better than riches." That's nice too, but while we're picking a motto let's select one that's more optimistic. After all, it's nice to think of the money end too.

(3) "The end crowns the work." Here, at last, my favorite. A lot said in five words.

(4) "A workman is known by his work." However not one of us ever escapes our "bad" days.

(5) "Caution is better than care." Who was it that said, "All of life is a gamble?" Worms are cautious, and what have they done?

Add true sayings:
Mr. Blades—Some job here, this question of space.

The History Club has bought one of those new Webster International Dictionaries. Miss Peacock has ordered some other historical books which have, as yet, not arrived.

The Board of the Dramatic Club met Tuesday. Most of the characters have been selected, but nothing definite has been done except that the play is going to be "Quality Street." I'll have some real news about this next week.

This is a letter that Mr. Blades received Tuesday morning:
Professor Owen C. Blades, Principal
Chestertown High School,
Chestertown, Maryland.
Dear Mr. Blades:

The boys in the High School Department of your school, along with all other high school boys in the county, are cordially invited to attend the Washington College--State Teachers basket ... in the gymnasium at Chestertown on Saturday, January 9th, as he guests of the Chestertown Rotary Club and the Washington College Athletic Association.

The boys, accompanied by some member of your faculty if you so desire, are asked to assemble in William Smith Hall at 7 P. M. The body, which we hope will include most of the high school boys of the county, will march from the assembling point to the gymnasium where they will occupy a special section for both the preliminary and main games.

We urge that you stress that the boys be on time in assembling at William Smith Hall at 7 P. M., Saturday, January 9th.

With best wishes for the success of

Patchwork:
Mr. Greenwood has been absent. Examinations the last of this month. Priscilla Grainger is knitting a sweater in Home Economics the ninth grade girls start sewing this week. We had book inspection Monday afternoon. The REFLECTOR is coming out shortly.

THE YELLOW TICKET

A MOVIE THRILLER

Romance, intrigue, charm and pathos are elements that make "The Yellow Ticket," Raoul Walsh's production for For Films, opening its much heralded engagement at the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, January 11 and 12, a picture of unusual entertaining quality.

Elissa Landi, the beautiful and talented daughter of an Austrian countess, novelist and emotional actress, portrays the leading feminine role, with Lionel Barrymore and Laurence Oliver handsome newcomer from the London stage, in the principal male parts. Other notables of the screen in the cast are Walter Byron, Rita La Roy and Sarah Padden.

"The Yellow Ticket" reveals a true and dramatic picture of the days of barbaric splendor in Russia an uncolored etching of the most autocratic period in modern history.

It depicts the dramatic adventures of a beautiful and virtuous peasant girl who failing to secure a passport to visit her father who is dying in a distant prison, accepts a yellow ticket which permits scandalous women to travel any place unhampered.

Failing to register at the police station when she reaches St. Petersburg, she is thrown into prison. When she is released she finds herelf an outcast, hounded and perecuted by the police.

Eventually she falls in love with a handsome English newspaper correspondent and becomes his secretary, but she cannot escape the police. She becomes so enmeshed in a web spun for her by its insidious head that she is, at last, forced to shoot him.

How she escapes the horrible fate that awaits her, offers one of the most startling denouements ever presented on the screen.

As the persecuted girl, Miss Landi is said to rise to new emotional heights and as the cruel and lustful head of the secret police, Barrymore, it is claimed, ercels anything he has previously achieved on the screen.

...CEIPTS LARGE

According to a statement from the office of the county treasurer at Friday noon of this week the total amount of taxes collected todate, independant of the taxes from automobiles, is $197,216.57. This represents collections from August 3rd, 1931, to January 8th, 1932.

The tax levy from the assessment of $18,311,527 is $300,869.29 and the amount of taxes collected including the automobile taxes collected is $208,727.54 which represents more than two thirds of the total tax levy.

In comparsion with other counties and nearby cities, Kent county may well be consdered to be in a prosperous condition.

Keep Certificate Amount Low

The Commissioners of Kent county have made a special effort to keep the amount of certificates as low as possible this year and according to a statement from that office this week, the amount of certificates issued up to January 5, 1932 is $18,727.68 less than it was on that date of last year.

The cretificates issued to date this year amount to $24,703.10 while last year the amount to January 6th, 1931, was $43,430.78.

DEATHS

Word has been received form Fowler, California, that Miss Bahnie Wedekind passed away on Christmas Eve after a lingering illness which closed her career three years ago as Libraian at Washington College.

Miss Wedekind was 38 years of age. She was born in Nevada and came to Washington College in 1925. During her stay in Chestertown she formed a large circle of friends. On Thanksgiving Day 1929 Miss Wedekind suffered a paralytic stroke which affected her speech very seriously and, after an acute illness, left her quite an invalid. Her mother, Mrs. Lockie, came East and took Miss Wedekind to California as soon as she was able to be moved. Death came as a result of an embolism.

Funeral services for Samuel A. Wallen, aged 84 years, one time a leading Democrat, who died at his home near Crumpton on Thursday, were held Saturday afternoon at the home of Harry F. McGinnis, near here, with interment in Crumpton Cemetery.

He was for many years one of the leading fruit growers in that section and was regarded as an authority on apple culture. He served a term as a member of the Maryland Legislatur from Queen Anne's county, and for a number of years was a member pf the Board of Almshouse Trustees of that county.

He is survived by a son, Norman A. Wallen, rural carrier from the Millington postoffice, and a daughter, Miss Susie Wallen, who lives at home.

Miss Evelyn T. Allen, 23-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Allen, died on Tuesday morning of pneumonia. She is survived by her parents and three sisters, Miss Louise Allen, Mrs. William Bennett and Mrs. Grover Hubbard, all of Chestertown.

Funeral services were held from her late home on Thursday at 2 p. m. and were conducted by the Rev. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith, pastor of the Christ M. P. Church. Interment was made in Chester cemetery.

The deceased was one of Chestertown's attractive young ladies and leaves besides her sorrowing family a large circle of relatives and friends who mourn her loss.

The bearers were: Messrs. Allan Barnes, Wilbur Reed, Walter Culley, William Hodgson, James Collins and Roland Perry. R. Ellis Clark undertaker.

William Steele, Sr., died at his late home in Galena on Thursday, January 7th, at 6.30 a. m. after a lingering illness, aged 62 years. He is survived by a widow who was formerly Elizabeth Golt, of Dover, Del., also three children by a former marriage, Daniel Steele, of Trenton, N. J.; William Steele, Jr., of Galena, Md., and Mrs. Jesse H. Smith, of Ferndale, Md., also a sister of Hartly, Del.

Funeral services will be held from his late home on Sunday at 2 p. m. Interment in Galena Cemetery. J. H. Tobin, of Millington, undertaker.

Mrs. Sarah Virginia Everett died at the home of her son in Eastern Neck, Kent county in her 80th year on Wednesday, January 6th.

She is survived by two sons, Messrs. Jarrett Price and John L. Everett; also ten gradchildren.

Funeral services were held yesterday, Friday at 11 a. m. at Wesley Chapel, conducted by Rev. Baxley. Interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Margaret S. Downey, aged 50 years, wife of Mr. George R. S. Downey, of Rock Hall, died at Emergency hospital, Easton, Wednesday night of this week of brain tumor. She was taken to the hospital in the local ambulance on Monday. She was originally from Montgomery county.

Funeral services will be held from the home in Rock Hall today, Saturday, at 2 p. m. with interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. R. Ellis Clark, undertaker.

FISH IN OYSTERS

Mr. Jesse Griffith in a letter to the Baltimore Sun writes:

"Seeing the item in The Sun of Sunday about Mr. Ford, of Solley, Stoney Creek, finding a fish in an oyster, I have had the same experience, only my fish is still living and we are trying with great interest to raise same.

"Wednesday, December 30, I received a basket of oysters from Mr. John Wilheim, of Rock Hall, sent for a present. On opening the same I was kidding the wife to the effect that something might be alive there, and to our surprise we opened one to find a fish of about the same species as Mr. Ford's".

WIFE FALLS DEAD

A pathetic case came from Redland's California, of a faithful woman wno had attended her husband in a long illness: Stricken by paralysis but ramaining conscious, Garrett S. Giles, 75, last niyht saw his wife, Elsie, 60, fall dead after she had lifted him from his chair and placed him on a bed.

For several hours the body of Mrs. Giles lay across the helpless form of her husband, who was powerless to summon aid. A neighbor, seeing lights in the ho me still burning at an early hour today, found the couple. A physician summoned for Giles said his condition was critical.
