CHESTERTOWN DEFEATS EASTON

C. H. S. WINS FIRST GAME

Last Friday night the Chestertown High School basketball team, directed by "Dick" Johnson, of Washington College, broke into the win column by defeating Easton 30-9. The Chestertown team was aided greatly by the unexpected service of Don Falls, who had been ineligible.

Eddie McMahan, half-pint forward, of the local quint, was the high scorer with ten points. Falls and Reinhart also had their eyes on the basket and got eight and nine points resvectively.

For Easton, G. North was the high scorer with four points.

The Chestertown boys held Easton toa 16-1 half-time score and not until the Chestertown reserves were run in did Easton score a field goal.

The next tilt for the Chestertown team will be at New Castle February 9, when New Castle High, Delaware State Champions will be met.

GIRLS BASKET BALL

C. H. S GIRLS LOSE TO EASTON

On Friday night, January 22, the Chestertown High School Girl's basketball team dropped their opening encounter to Easton 20-10. The game was more closely contested than the score shows, but the Chestertown girls should give the Easton team a much closer battle when they play the return engagement February 17, at Easton.

Elizabeth Fountain was the leading scorer for the evenng, with eleven points. Emily Sutton did the high point getting for Chestertown with eight points.

Daily workouts, at the Washington College Gymnasium, under the coaching of Miss Gessford should help make the team a very strong combination before the season ends.

THE OLD GYPSY GAME

BETTERTON BANKS LOSE $255

The old Gypsy game of blessing money, pocket books, supposed fortune telling, etc.. resulted in a shortage of $255 in two Betterton banks and numerous other losses of from $1 to $15 from unsuspecting citizens on Tuesday of this week.

Sheriff Vickers, with the aid of police forces from other parts of the State and Delaware are assisting in the search for the gypsies who were traveling in an automobile with a license number 60-740. The owner of the car was found to be Frank Mitchel, a Baltimore Gypsy, who was arrested and released when he proved that he had loaned hs car to hs nephew, John Gemitro. Gypsies were arrested in Elkton and Easton but they could not be identified as the ones who entered the banks in Betterton.

Reports of the bank robberies state that two gypsy women entered branch People's Bank and one of them forced her way to where the money was laying and picked up a pile of bills; the money was taken from her but by a slight of hand trick she suceeded in keeping $170, which was not missed until the daily checkup was made.

Five men, who were in the bank at the time, were being entertained by the other woman.

At the branch Chestertown Bank of Maryland the same method was used to get $85.

$15 was taken from the pocket book of Mr. Paul Joiner at Worton, via the old pocket book blessing trick. Other small sums were reported lost by in other parts of the county. $25 was reported taken from Mr. Ruyer at Chesterville.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES

THE ART OF BAKING

The Cliff Sunshine Club is studying the Art of Baking, which every 4-H girl desires to master. The difference between a successfully made product and a failure is mainly the difference in mastery of a few simple principles in cooking and ability to apply them.
