IF WE ARE to judge from reports in the daily press and from information that we have received, Governor Albert C. Ritchie is gaining favor in his candidacy for President each week. A prominent political leader from the State of Georgia stated in our presence recently that Gov. Ritchie is the only candidate before the people with an issue, declaring that the Governor's issue of "Shall the People support the Government, or shall the Goevrnment support the People," is the real issue before the people, and is the main issue upon which the campaign will be fought. Governor Ritchie is a man of ideas and is not afraid to express them. You always know how he stands on all important matters.
