RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

WHEREAS, God in his own wise judgment has seen best to remove from our community, our friend and co-worker, Mrs. Annie L. Brice, be it therefore,

Resolved, That the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Betterton, Maryland, will cherish with loving remembrance her noble life in our midst, and be it also,

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to her bereaved children and grandchildren in their great sorrow, and commend them to the blessed Saviour, who alone can comfort in our times of greatest loss and,

Be it also Resolved, That a copy of thes resolutions be sent to her immediate family, a copy be published in two county papers, and a copy be spread on the minutes of the Ladies, Aid Society of Betterton, Maryland.

MARTHA V. TURER, President.
GERTIE M. OWENS, Secretary.
EVA W. CREW, Committee.

CURE FOR DEPRESSION

In a recent copyright article appearing in the San Francisco Chronicle, Leonard P. Ayres, Vice-President of the Cleveland Trust Company, held that rigid economy is the only cure for the depression.

He pointed out that the war cost the participating nations $200,000,000,000—a sum equal to about $200 a minute from the time of Julius Caesar to that of Herbert Hoover! Most of this money was raised by borrowing against the future.

After the war, all nations decided to make the modern improvements the war had made them desire. This was accomplished by borrowing more billions. The result was a period of expanding indebtedness—which produced a kind of artificial prosperity.

Now the trend is the other way. We have been forced into debt contraction, and our economic troubles have resulted. In past years we mortgaged our future income and the time for paying the piper has come.

Individuals, families, businesses, and governments must balance their budgets in order to bring order out of chaos. Waste and extravagance must be eliminaaed. The depression will pass—but we cannot do away with it by a policy of spending, that will merely duplicate the period of inflation we have just left behind us.

POULTRY—LIVE STOCK MEETING

A county-wide poultry and live stock meeting will be held in the Court House, Chestertown, on Monday, April 4th. Among the speakers will be A. G. Phillips, H. D. Munroe, W. H. Rice, Paul Raper and Frank Payne, secretary of the Maryland Farm Bureau. Mr. Payne will talk in the interest of Eastern Live Stock Marketing Association which is being sponsored in Maryland by the Farm Bureau and extension service.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO CONTEST

EASTERN SHORE SOCIETY, OF BALTIMORE CITY, OFFERS AGAIN THIS YEAR, PRIZES FOR AN HISTORICAL ESSAY

Announcement is as follows:

HISTORICAL ESSAY CONTEST FOR 1932

This Society takes pleasure in announcing its tenth annual contest among young men and young women of the Eastern Shore of Maryland for the purpose of encouraging their interest in and study of the glorious history and traditions of their homeland.

We desire to honor the memory of the Eastern Shore of Maryland men and women who were creative factors, and played a most important role, in establishing the tradtions and ideals of citizenship of the "Shore" and the State of Maryland. Our Society seeks to help perpetuate those happy traditions and ideals and here records its appreciation for the cooperation in previous years of the students, faculties and administrators of the Public Schools of the Eastern Shore of Maryland and of the press of the "Shore" and Baltimore City. Such generous help has widely disseminated information concerning this history. The terms of the contest are as follows:

CONTEST RULES

1. A prize of $20.00 is to be awarded in each county of the Eastern Shore of Maryland for the best historical sketch written by a student of that county.

2. The article must be written in its entirety by a member of the graduating class of 1932 of one of the high schools of that county.

3. It must deal with "The Colonial and Revolutionary Eras for the Period 1732-1799." It is suggested, but not required, that the essay recognize in some way the George Washington Bicentennial year and that reference be made to any contacts which Washington may have had with the county of the author, or any of its people, during the period covered by the essay.

4. It must either be a biographical sketch of one of the residents of that county or of some one very closely associated with it, or it must deal with some event or events directly concerned with the history of that county.

5. It must be between 1,000 to 1,500 words in length.

6. It must be submited to the Committee on or before May 1st, 1932. Send all essays and communicctions concerning contest to George L. Radcliffe, Chairman of Historical Essays Committee, 622 Fidelity Building, Baltimore, Md.

7. A special aditional prize will be given for the best sketch submitted in the contest irrespective of the county from which it comes.

8. The prizes to the successful contestants of previous years have always been presented at the beautiful and interesting home of the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore. Suitable arrangements will be made again for the presentation of prizes offered in the present contest.

9. Attached to the copy of the essay submitted to the Committee must be a letter over the signature of the contestant stating in detail where the information was obtained which is embodied in the manuscript submitted; this will not prevent the use of such "quotations" and footnotes referring to sources, as the author may desire to use in the essay. Photographs of the historical persons or places referred to in the manuscript will be helpful to the Committee but are not essential.

10. The Committee reserves the right of rejecting any or all manuscripts.

The committee on the Historical Essay is, Messers. George L. Radcliffe, Chairman; Samuel K. Dennis, and James W. Chapman, Jr., who was formerly from Kent county.

Let us hope that many will enter from Kent County.

URGES CHANGE IN SCHOOL WORK

MEETING OF SUPERINTENDENTS AND PRINCIPALS OF SHORE TO MEET AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE ON APRIL 13TH, TO DISCUSS CHANGES

Supervisor Shore High Schools Endorse Play For Student's Individual Initiative

WOULD SUPPLANT OLD QUESTION-ANSWER METHOD

Encourages Stuednt To Explore Reference Works Rather Than Adhere To Textbooks

Dr. E. Clarke Fontaine, state supervisor of high schools for the Eastern Shore of Maryland, claims too much attention is being given textbooks and too little attention to the development of the student's own initiative, especially when some authors of tests know little or nothing about high school work though in many cases their lines are followed blindly by teachers and students.

A radical change in high school supervision and procedure in Maryland, has been proposed by the educator. The plan, which was mentioned at the recent Washington convention of the National Education Association and which is now being considered by the Connecticut Department of Public Instruction at Hartford, Conn., will be given a trial in Maryland.

The innovation is being experimented with at the suggestion of Dr. Albert S. Cook, state superintendent of Public instruction, and is said to have the approval of the high school supervisors. A statement of the plan has been sent also to all county superintendents and high school principals.

Dr. Fontaine says the prevailing and time-honored practice of classroom observation, followed by conference with individual teachers, is of doubtful value with teachers of extended experience though the old plan may be useful with inexperienced teachers and beginning pedagogues whose classroom work should still be observed since a large proportion of such teachers fall into mechanical errors early in their teaching experience —errors that should be corrected as soon as possible.

The plan will be taken up in detail at the annual meetings of the high school teachers and county superintendents of the Eastern Shore at the State Normal School at Salisbury, April 4 and at Washington College here April 13.

BEAUTICIANS ORGANIZE ON SHORE

Organization of the Beauticians Association of the Eastern Shore of Maryland was achieved at a meeting Thursday night of last week at Easton attended by representatives from all sections of the Eastern Shore.

The organization met at Salisbury yesterday to draw up a constitution. More than fifty are expected to be present.

Members of the association were drawn from Elkton, Chestertown, Centreville, Denton, Greensboro, Easton, Cambridge, Crisfield, Pocomoke, Snow Hill, Berlin, Delmar and Salisbury.

The Object of the association was described by those attending the meeting and instrumental in its organization as creating a better spirit of cooperation among the beauty shops on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, which were reflected in a more efficient service to their patrons.

MAY ESTABLISH MARKET PLACE

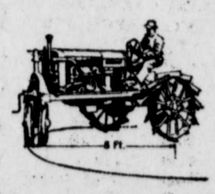

The Mayor and Council of Chestertown at their regular monthly meeting, the first Monday in April, will consider establishing a market place in Chestertown. Objections have been filed by citizens protesting against the fur market on the east park. A town ordinance prohibits the sale of produce, such as fruits, vegetables, etc., on the streets of the town without a license. Huxters who grow their produce are excepted from this ordinance.

The purpose of the proposed market space is to centrally locate the sellers of produce so as to get them off the main street.
