THE MOVE MADE by the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association to start a campaign against mosquitoes on this peninsula is one of the most progressive moves ever made by any civic organization. It is a campaign that can re ceive only praise, no one will condemn it as no one like a mosquito; however it cannot be a complete success without the whole hearted cooperation of every town county and individual land owner. If successful it will make this peninsula a most popular watering place for summer tourists. Mosquitoes are not a serious menace in Kent county but in the lower part of the shore and at the ocean resorts their numbers determine the popularity of those sections.

COMMUNICATED

WILMINGTON, March 11.—Prohibition is the greatest social and political tragedy of modern times, Rt. Rev. Charles Fiske, Bishop of Central New York and a leader in Episcopal Church circles, declared here today.

Bishop Fiske preached a Lenten sermon in Trinity Episcopal Church and at its conclusion was asked what, in his opinion, was the cause of the unprecedented crime wave now raging in America.

"Prohibition," replied Bishop Fiske. "I suppose it is rather unusual to hear a minister express his honest views on a public question. Prohibition and the crime wave, which can be compared to twin brothers, have reached a point where they challenge every true citizen, especially church-goers. It is time for us all to come down to earth and face the facts.

"And the facts are that prohibition is not only an unqualified failure as a 'noble experiment,' but it also is directly responsible for many of our present-day evils, including the reign of the underworld in defiance of law and order, the wholesale corruption of justice and teh undermining of the social structure."

Bishop Fiske flayed the present day tendency of ministers and churchgoers to ally themselves with the prohibition forces, merely because they feel that any other course would conflict with their religious beliefs.

"Prohibition," he said, "has no claim on the church and since it has of those who stand for the right to given rise to new evils, it is the duty band together and stamp out this modern Frankenstein."

My reason for asking the Transcript to insert this article from this Wilmington paper is to emphasize to the people of Kent County how thoughtful people react to prohibition, the Rt. Rev. Charles Fiske, Bishop of Central New York and a leader in Episcopal Church centers is in touch with the issue of the day and he knows that the "Noble Experiment" is a fallacy:—an impossible thing. We don't want Bars-No-twice no—But we do want liquor in the hands of honest men—not crooks—gangsters nor kidnapers—think twice before you vote dry—for when you do—you may mean well—but you keep the money in the hands of the lawless underworld—who pay no taxes, and you are made to make up the deficit.

A WOMAN VOTER.

WEDDING NOTES

On Saturady afternoon last Rev. J. McLain Brown united in the bonds of matrimony Mr. William L. Hopkins, of Turners Creek, to Miss Anna Lee DeShane, of Galena.

The bride was beautifully gowned in blue, with hat to match, while the groom wore the conventional black suit.

Quite a few friends gathered to give them the benefit of their rice and decorations. The young people left the Chester, Pa., to spend a few days with friends.

They will reside on the Clothier farm in Turners Creek neighborhood.

CHECKER TOURNAMENT PLANNED

PRINCESS ANN TO PLAY BARCLAY

A number of checker fans from Kent county are expecting to journey to Hurlock next week to see a checker match between Princess Ann and Barclay.

Community checker teams have been fighting it out down the shore all winter and the Princess Ann team seems to have goten the best of it in that section. Barclay has been picked as a representative team from this section and the match, which will probably be held Tuesday, if for the championship of the Eastern Shore.

The play will be a round robin team match between 2 four men teams. Each man on a team will play each man on the opposing side 2 games making 32 games in all.
