A LETTER FROM INDIA

THE WONDERS OF DEL-MAR-VA PENINSULA REACHES INDIA

Many strange and unique letters have reached the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association as the result of its advertising and publicity during its seven years of operation, but the most unusual in its history crossed the desk of Edwin C. Toten, Executive Secretary, Monday morning.

It was from M. P. Sharma, a native in the Narsinghpur District, of India, who has apparently read something of Del-Mar-Va in the isolated Village Harrai, Post Sihova.

Because of the decidedly unique appeal with its underlying note of sincerity, Mr. Toten believes that it would be of interest to residents of the Peninsula. Incidentally, he mentioned that he has never been called nicer names or had more wonderful good wishes extended to him than in this epistle and that he is perfectly willing to share them with the rest of Del-Mar-Va citizens.

The letter follows:

"From
M. P. Sharma
Village Harrai
Post Sihova
Distt. Narsinghpur (C.P.)
India
20 January 1932

"To
The Secretary of
Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association
Del-Mar-Va Building
Salisbury, Maryland
U. S. America

"Dear Sir:

"Dear Sir:

"Kind hearted and philanthrophic gentle Secretary of Eastern Shore Association.

"May I ventuer to approach before your kind generosity in form of request with the following lines of my supplication for your kind consideration, and I have great hope and assurance that your kindship may be kind enough to extend the spirit of your philanthrophy and kindness to this long point of destination of my country and also on these below lines of my request.

"I use to live in a rural isolated section of this backward country of mine. There are no facilities of any kind in this interior of my location, where things of the greater need of life are very rare to procure. My dwelling place is situated in a very small village of this badly rural surrounding. I am under my circumstances unable to get and purchase good literature publications of any pressing need and regovernment. My means are not so good as be for filling up the caviller of my homely needs for which I stand badly in their necessities in my home. The financial condition of our and of my country folks are very pitiable and we are totally vacant in all better points of advancement and also in all directions of walk of life. I have immense longings in me that in this state of condition my supplication may surely achieve a good success in bringing me hopeful better result and reply from the kind generous hand of your kindship, by the return of early mail.

"I should esteem the favour of great value and of highest regard, if your kindship may kindly arange to extend the kind generous hand of your kindship may kindly arrange to endowments toward me in form of help, with the good supply of your literature books and publications and also books on good stories, if may be spare in your home library in any form new or second hand or in used up form, and also good magazines after reading to my address, to an unlimited period of time, as far as your kindship think better to help me in this connection, with voluntary desire without any kind of trouble, may be counted of greatest value and of highest regard in my favor. Kindly arrange to help me with the liberal supply of pictures, picture cards and souvenir folders in natural colors of all scenic beauties of wonderlands and also novelties of trilling value and cost of your advanced country and a also printing novelties of all kind.

"If your kindship may not have facilities and funds of some of my above requested as I mentioned in course of my lines in this way put my supplication before your kindhearted friends of ample fortune to help me in my needs.

"I have immense longings and desires in me that in this state of condition my supplication in the name of humanity and service listen with great prompt attention and may be helpful in solving the problem of my necessity from the kind generous helping hand of your kindship, with the reasonable time of early mail.

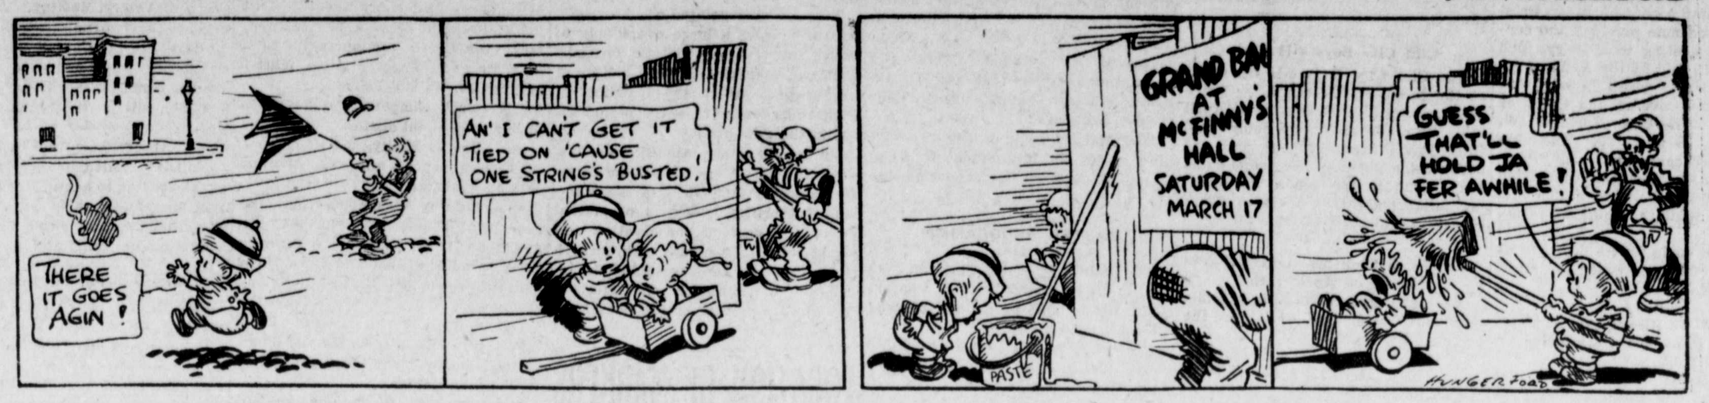

"For these greater acts of philanthrophy and kindness I will pray to God with all my heart and soul for your longer and happier life and also Heaven may pour down the shower of endless blessings and bliss in all your wordly pleasures and may extend and thrive your prosperity of all kind in all directions to good extent.

"This is the only I have to give to your kindship with the innermost bottom of my heart and soul in favour of your kindness and I shall be ever remain thankful for these great kind deeds of obligation.

"With best wishes, I am, for your great work of kindness and of generosity.

Yours most humble servant.
I am

Chicago, Convention Champion of 1932

Chicago Stadium in which the Democratic National Convention will be held. Inset—Melvin A. Traylor, member of the Civic Committee which obtained the Convention for Chicago

CHICAGO has jumped into a long lead over other cities in the race for winning convention assignments, and particularly the two great assemblages of Democrats and Republicans in June puts Chicago well in the lead and gives the "Windy City" an opportunity to stage these colorful affairs as a curtain raiser to the "Century of Progress" which will be a headline attraction in 1933. Already the convention pot is boiling merrily as committees of prominent business men are organizing to receive thousands of visitors in Chicago during June.

One of the leaders who has helped to bring the blue ribbon convention assignments to Chicago is Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National Bank and a business man with a flair for tackling big jobs. Mr. Traylor, a native of Kentucky, has achieved national and international fame in finance and business by his distinguished service in Chicago, Texas and throughout the Middle West. He was one of the delegation headed by E. N. Hurley and Mayor Cermak of Chicago who went to Washington and clinched their bid for the National Democratic Convention with a fund of $200,000.

Chicago has exceptional facilities for entertaining both Republican and Democratic conventions within a single month. Already the engineers are at work with blue prints to arrange the interior of the huge Chicago Stadium where both conventions will be held.

The assembling of both conventions promises to be a great spectacle, for the arena where delegates will be seated will accommodate between 8,000 and 10,000. Circling the arena are 16,000 seats where guests and visitors may be accommodated.
