THE TRANSCRIPT

Published Every Saturday Morning at Chestertown, Md.

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

HARRY T. PHOEBUS has withdrawn from the Republican primaries for the U. S. Senate and will oppose Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough for Congress in this Congressional district. Congressman Goldsborough was unopposed for the Democratic nomination, as was Mr. Phoebus for the Republican nomination. The main tilt will be at the November election when it will be decided by the voters o fthis congressional district who shall represent the Eastern Shore in the next Congress.

CHESTERTOWN FIREMEN BANQUET

The annual banquet of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company was held at the new armory Thursday evening with the President, Mr. William L. Fowler presiding and Rev. J. Harry Wright as toastmaster. Very interesting talks were given by Dr. E. A. Sexsmith and Rev. C. L. Atwater. Mr. George W. Colbourn, president of the State Firemen's Association, made a few remarks. Mayor C. N. Satterfield presented the service stars to the active firemen and the gold and silver medal for the best attendance at fires were presented to Robert Penn and Carl LeCates respectively.

R. H. Collins, Jr., gave a report on the activities of the ambulance unit from the period of January 1, 1931, to January 1, 1932 as folows:

Number of trips made 105; miles covered 10,152; hours of servive 443. A more detailed report will be published later.

—The Chestertown Base Ball Club will shortly present a play next month for the benefit of the club.

—Rev. J. Harry Wright was given a farwell supper at the Chestertown M. E. Church Wednesday evening.

—At the time of going to press no decission had been reached by the State Roads Commission as to the construction of the new garage in Quaker Neck. The work was halted when protests were filed by local citizens against the location.

—The Chestertown Rotary Club will attend an inter-city meeting in Elkton next Tuesday night. The occasion will be a talk on International service by a Japanese Rotarian. This will take the place of the regular Monday night meeting.

DEMOCRATS WITH MANY AVAILABLE NOMINEES SHOULD NAME STRONGEST MAN, SAYS CHICAGO NEWS

Washington, April — Commenting upon the forthcoming Democratic National Convention and the large list of eminent men available for the nomination, the Chicago Daily News (Ind.) declares that the party should nominate its strongest man. The editorial is as follows:

"Suporters of Gov. Roosevelt of New York for the Democratic nomination for President have reason to be pleased by the present outlook, since their favorite already has to his credit a considerable list of delegates to the national convention. Many other delegate sare earmarked for his list. However, the outcome of the balloting must be regarded as doubtful, since the states with large delegations are stil to hold their primaries. Further, the Democratic party is fortunate in having a wide field of selection among men of force and ability. A party possessing, beides the two eminent New Yorkers—Gov. Roosevelt and Al Smith—such assets as Newton D. Baker, Owen D. Young, Gov. Ritchie of Maryland, Harry Byrd of Virginia, Speaker Garner of Texas and Melvin A. Traylor of Illinois, to mention no others, cannot be said to suffer from a dearth of available presidential candidates.

"Gov. Roosevelt has found special favor with the voters of his party in many sections of the United States. Apparently his suporters will enter the convention with a much greater number of delegates than will the supporters of nay other candidate. The appraising of relative strengths and weaknesses of men deemd worthy of the presidential office goes on intensively when party leaders meet at a national convention; consequently, any number of delegates short of two-thirds of the total number leaves the Democratic nomination in doubt. The enormously difficult duties which go with the office of chief executive of the republic demand every ounce of physical and mental force of the nation's strongest man for their adequate performance.

"It has been years since either party has had so many men of merit from among whom to choose a presidential candidate as has the Democratic party at this time. Yet no one of them stands out head and shoulders above the others. Gov. Roosevelt's charming personality and his position as governor of the Empire State give him an initial advantage of no small proportions, but whether he or some other Democrat wins the party nomination is a matter which rests with the future. If the convention makes the mistake of not choosing democracy's strongest man, whoever he may prove to be, that result will be a source of regret to every American who places patriotism above partisanship."

MILLINGTON

Miss Phyllis Lambert, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Woodall.

No Services were held in Asbury M. E. Church on Sunday due to the absence of the pastor.

Mr. H. B. Kennard of the American Stores has been transfered to the Chestertown store and Mr. Charles Rollison succeeds him at the Millington store as manager.

BETTERTON

Rev. J. T. Price who was recently appointed to the Betterton-Still Pond charge of the Methodist church, preached here on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Price and his family moved from Fruitland to Still Pond on Thursday and were received at the parsonage by members of the Still Pond Ladies Aid Society and a fine dinner was served. The officers of the Ladies Aid Society of Betterton were also guests at the dinner.

Due to the illness of Rev. Mr. White there was no service at the Episcopal Chapel last Sunday.

Captain Albert Willis of the steamer Cadwalader was the week end guest of Captain and Mrs. James Curry. Captain Willis played two very beautiful trumpet solos at the afternoon service of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. J. L. Price and Mrs. Ida Willis attended executive meeting of the W. C. T. U. in Baltimore on Thursday.

Mrs. Susie Taylor has been ill at the home of Mrs. Harry Crew, her daughter this week. Mrs. Taylor celebrated her eighty four birthday last week.

Mrs. M. V. Turner is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. George Turner at Elk Neck.

Mrs. Edith Turner Anderson has returned to Philadelphia after being at her home here on sick leave for several weks.

The Womens Auxiliary of the P. E. Church held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Clare Turner on Wednesday. Plans were made for a shad supper to be held at the Chesapeake House on April 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sykes have moved from The Belmont to the house formerly occupied by them on Ericsson Avenue.

A bowling contest was held here on Wednesday evening by members of the Chestertown High School. The proceeds were for the year book of the graduating class.

The Last Reminder

TO

DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS

There are some Tax Payers who have not paid their taxes for 1931, nor have they been to the Treasurers office to make any deffient plans about paying them. You should be interested enough in your own business to attend to this matter.

The Treasurer has no choice in the matter. And if you do not make some plan to settle your taxes, there is but one thing for him to do, and that is levy on your property and advertise it. Your County has obligations to meet and cannot do so unless you pay your taxes. I do not want to advertise any one and if it is done you will force me to do so.

Please save me this very unpleasant duty by coming to the office and arrange your tax bill.

Marlene Dietrich

—in—

"Shanghai Express"

—with—

Clive Brook
Warner Oland
Anna May Wong

A picture as timely as today's newspaper—a smash hit all over the country, with tantalizing, seductive, mysterious DIETRICH in her greatest role. Pekin to Shanghai—the train ride that changed 200 lives. Bringing them face to face with hatred, intrigue, scandal, love and WAR. Men of twenty nations call her "the white flower of the China coast." Beautiful, but dangerous, she knows twenty ways of saying "I Love You," and nineteen of them are alluring LIES." One of the years really IMPORTANT pictures.

Added—Aesops Fables—Vitaphone Broadway Musical Brevity "Hello Good Times."

WEDNESDAY -- THURSDAY
APRIL 20 and 21

Richard Barthlemess

—in—

"Alias The Doctor"

EXPOSED—the secrets of a famous surgeon's past. He had made a name for himself, but the name was another man's. What hidden evil drove him to defy the world's most sacred code—it sets a new record for suspense. Sensation piled upon sensation. A flaming challenge to conventional ethics. Steel your nerves before you see this picture. Coming here direct from a record breaking week at the CENTURY in Baltimore. Richard Barthlemess in his greatest role.

Added: Comedy "Thanks Again," Cartoon "Rabid Hunters," Band Act.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
APRIL 22 and 23

Joe E. Brown

—in—

"Fireman Save My Child"

The season's laugh hit, playing Chestertown before Baltimore and other big cities. See JOE E. (Big Mouth) BROWN in his funniest role as the small town fireman who turned out to be a big-league ball player. The guy with the wide open face. He'll roll you right out in the aisle. You'll laugh till tears roll down your back. Thousands screamed "Fireman, Save My Child"—but who was going to save the FIREMAN. He's a ding dong daddy and you must see him strut his stuff in "FIREMAN, SAVE MY CHILD."
