DEATHS

Funeral rites were held Sunday for the late Frank M. Payne, secretary-treasurer of the Maryland Farm Bureau Federation, who died suddenly on Friday. The deceased was well known in Kent, having made frequent visits heer in conection with Farm Bureau work.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 1 p. m., for Mrs. Aletha Vannort, 92 one of the oldest residents of Chestertown, who died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James W. Chapman, Jr., in Baltimore. Interment was made in Chester cemetery.

Mrs. Vannort, who had been spending the winter at her daughter's home fell two weeks ago and fractured her hip. Complications set in which resulted in her death on Saturday.

She was the widow of the late Samuel Vannort, for years one of the leading landowners in Kent county and a director of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland. She was a daughter of the late Joseph and Sarah Usilton and was born on the family homestead, nea rWorton. Since 1884 she had been a resident of Chestertown but for several years, because of advanced age, had been spending the winters in Baltimore. She was a life-long member of the St. James M. P. Church.

Mrs. Chapman, her daughter, and two grandchildren, Samuel Vannort Chapman and Mary Clare Chapman, survive.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. Lee Markr and the Rev. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith. Charles L. Dodd was the undertaker.

The bearers were: Messrs. Walter U. Lusby, C. Romie Skirven, Frank V. Simpers, Harry B. Nicholson, Fred G. Usilton and W. Walter Chapman.

Mrs. Cecelia Jones, 86, widow of the late David Jones, died Monday at the home of her son, J. E. Jones, in Rock Hall. Funeral services will be hed today, with interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. Charles L. Dodd will be the undertaker.

She is survived by the following children: William H. Jones, Grasonville; J. E. Jones, Rock Hall; John Paul Jones, New Jersey; Grover C. Jones, Baltimore; Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, Baltimore; and Mrs. Isabelle Mansfield, Wye Island.

Thirty-two grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren also survive and one great-great grand child.

Bearers were: Philip E. Jones, Roy Taylor, Willard Jones, John Mansfield, Joseph Mansfield, Charles Brady all are grandchildren except Mr. Brady, who is a gra ndson in law.

William H. Brown died at his residence in Baltimore on last Saturday after a long illness. The funeral took place at St. Paul's cemetery at 10 a. m. Monday last the Rev. C. L. Atwater conducted the service.

The bearers were: Messrs. R. H. Rogers, William Carr, Murray, Carr, Wilson Carr, Malcholm Hill and Marshall Booker. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Imogen B. Brown; three nieces, Mrs. W. Murray Carr, of Pittsburgh; Miss Mary C. Brown and Mrs. Duncan Brent, and by two nephews, Dr. Thomas R. Brown and James C. Brown.

Mr. Brown's ancesters were among the early settlers of the Eastern shore.

He was born at the Hermitage Farm Kent county but as a young man went to Baltimore and was engaged in the steamboat business where he remained until his retirement two years ago.

FAIRLEE CANNERY INSURANCE PAID

CLAIMS TOTALING $15,500 PAID THIS WEEK

The insurance on the Fairlee Cannery, which was burned to the ground this winter, was paid this week by Mr. George W. French, agent. This insurance paid, which was $15,500, was carried by four different insurance companies being the Fidelity-Phoenix Insurance Company, the Fidelity & Guaranty Fire Insurance Company, the London Assurance Corporation, and the Inurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania. Mr. French has interested himself in hastening the necessary details for the adjustment of this claim since the fire. The Fairlee Cannery was owned by the Fairlee Cannery cooperative Association which is composed of tomato growers living in that vicinity.

W. C. LOSES TO N. Y. U

A MISUNDERSTANDING IN TIME LOSES FOR COLLEGE

In the lacrosse game at Washington College on Wednesday with New York University, a tough break lost the game.

From the start of the contest, Washington held the upper hand and kept the New York University team on the defensive. Washington was showing well coached team-work and the old pep, which is always necessary to carry a team through.

In the second half Washington ran wild and in the enthusiasm lost track of the time. The Coach asked how much time and the time keeper replied "nine minutes." The coach thought the timekeeper meant nine minutes to play and what the time keeper really meant was that, nine minutes had been played. Washington was going strong and was out in the lead 5 to 1. Washington's coach started yanking the regulars and putting in substitues. With the substitutes in, N. Y. U. staged a rally which the subs could not withstand. Some of the regulars had left the field and Washington was forced to take the short end of the count 6 to 5.

It is rumored that Wilson Wingate would have put Washington in the Olympic tryouts had they won the remainder of the games on their schedule, exclusive of the Hopkins game. Washington, however, dropped the first game after this announcement in losing to New York University.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our little grand-daughter and niece, Thelma Jeanette Graham, who passed away April 19, 1931.

One year ago an angel came
And took our darling home,
We longed to keep her, but in vain
She left us all alone;
Sleep on, dear Thelma, sweetly rest
On that celestial shore,
God took you there, he knew 'twas best,
To live forever more.

Her loving grandmother Graham.

In my memory of't I see her
As she toddled 'round the floor,
Like a sunbeam and as pure;
Can it be those days are o'er?

I can see her in her beauty
Waiting for some loving hand,
It was pleasure, never duty,
To obey each sweet command.

If I dressed her in the morning
Baby hands would twine my hair,
And those little lips be cooing
Precious words, like some sweet prayer.

Baby fingers sweet and loving,
Waiting for their morning kiss;
Can the angels up in heaven
Know a greater joy than this?

Like a fairy from some region
That the world has never known;
She was ent our lives to brighten,
Ere God called her to her home.

She was loved by father, mother,
Often, now, I wonder why
That they had to see her suffer,
That they had to see her die.

How I loved that precious baby!
No one could have loved her more
And some day I know I'll see her,
When I reach that golden shore.

No one knew her but to love her,
She was fairest of the fair,
And it seems that heaven's dearer,
Now my darling is up there.

Her devoted Aunt Nettie.
