WHAT EVER MAY be the result of the citizens tax meeting held on Thursday of this week, one of the most outstanding results was that it has created an interest in county affairs by the outstanding citizens of the various sections of the county. It showed that the Board of County Commissioners are doing everything in their power to hold down county expenses. They are prevented from making the desired drastic cut in the tax rate due to existing laws but have weighed carefully the various suggestions from individuals and organizations as how to lower expenses.

Dear Sir:

May I in a modest way make a few proposals as to how public expense can be cut down in Chestertown and Kent County and thereby reduce taxes.

1. Eliminate town police and give the Sheriff and his numerous deputies the job.

2. Make no allowance for the pay of deputy county officials.

3. Quit keeping the county roads in repair and require persons whose property adjoins said roads to keep same passable.

4. Discontinue street light in Chestertown.

5. Dig ditches to drain town streets when necessary, but refrain from spending money for curbs and gutters for same.

6. Dismiss half the school teachers. Have two school days daily. That is school from 8 to 12 a. m. and from 1 to 5 p. m. In this way each teacher could teach two teachers classes in one day. Let half the children come in the morning and the other half in the afternoon. Cut out all frills such as music, art, shop, and cooking. The half day at home would offer an opportunity for children to help at home and on the farm and get their shop and cooking while helping lighten Mother and Dad's load. This would also solve the Chestertown High school crowded condition and make a bond issue at this time unnecessary. Cut out school supervisors and have the County Superintendent do it all.

7. Do away with 50 per cent of the election officials. But above all don't close any one room schools.

Sincerely,
Flat Head

NEW LYCEUM THEATRE

MONDAY and TUESDAY
MAY 2 and 3
Maurice Chevalier
—in—
"One Hour With You"
—with—
Jeanette MacDonald

A new idea in entertainment —Maurice Chevalier spends "One Hour With You,"—more, in fact, and makes you feel right at home. A perfectly swell comedy romance with six new song-smashes, directed by that master-genius of sly fun, Ernest Lubitsch. A lover and more, for he has that thing called charm. A modern picture, with plenty of snap. A great cast includes Jeanette MacDonald, Charles Ruggles and Roland Young. Come, see and enjoy "One Hour With You."

Added—Aesops Fables, Comedy "Wide Open Spaces," Eddie Buzzell Bed Time Story.

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY
MAY 4 and 5
Constance Bennett
—in—
"Lady With A Past"
—with—
Ben Lyon
David Manners

There is only one Constance Bennett and in "Lady With A Past" she is at her best. See Miss Bennett in the story of a woman who sought a past to find love. Rated as a FOUR STAR picture by all critics. Men eager for her millions whispered tempting lies—but her arms yearned for the man she could not hold.

Added—Screen Song Cartoon "Red, Red, Robin," Comedy "Naggers At The Opera," Act "Thrills of Yesterday."

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
MAY 6 and 7
"Disorderly Conduct"
—with—
Sally Eilers
Spencer Tracy
El Brendel

Eilers for romance, Tracy for drama and Brendel for comedy—what a trio and what a picture. Rich enough to do anything she wanted. Pretty enough to get away with it. She needed no speed limit on the highway to thrills. See EL BRENDEL in a great role as a Swede Cop and laugh till tears roll down your back. A picture filled with laughs, thrills and action.

Added—Comedy "Only Man Wanted," Cartoon "Restless Sax," Vincent Lopez Band Act.

MONDAY and TUESDAY
