"Devil's Lottery" Here May 27 - 28

In addition to the actual running of the English Derby, the most famous event in the world of racing, "Devil's Lottery," Fox production, starring Elissa Landi, which shows at the New Lyceum Theatre on Friday-Saturday, May 27 and 28, is said to contain many scenes of equal interest to racing fans.

One of these scenes show the various groups of fortune telling gypsies, so characteristic of Derby Day, in sharp contrast to the members of royalty and the "smart people" arriving in coaches and drags. Another shows the bookies at work and the tipsters plying their trade.

And still another shows the drawing of the lucky tickets of the Calcutta sweepstakes, which plays an important part in the theme of the picture. This event is attended with much pomp and ceremony, with the two large glass barrels containing the numbered tickets and the tickets bearing the names of the Derby entrants, being turned by British soldiers, while bank tellers tally the results as two blind children draw the lucky tickets.

Victor McLaglen, Alexander Kirkland, Paul Cavanaugh and Beryl Mercer also featured in "Devil's Lottery" which Sam Taylor directed.

"Devil's Lottery" will be shown as the first feature on a Big Double Feature program at the New Lyceum on Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28. The second feature is a western thriller "Riding Tornado" starring Tim McCoy.

MARYLAND BANKERS CONVENTION

The Maryland Bankers Convention met in Atlantic City this week. Notable among the addresses made was that of Dr. Douglas S. Freeman, of Richmond. He called the present congress "one of the greatest absurdities known in our history." The greatest mistake was made, he said "when the salaries of Congressmen was made which is above the average earnings of a man of limited intelligence and limited means." "Congress is no nearer a solution of its difficulties than when it first met," he said, and if things do not improve the winters of 1932 and 1933 will be much worse than last winter.

Mr. Allan A. Harris and Mr. W. B. Copper were the delegates in attendance from Chestertown.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

WHEREAS, God in His infinite wisdom has removed from us a life of loyalty and great usefulness, in the death of Mrs. Samuel J. Vannort. We desire to offer this tribute of respect and esteem to her memory as a faithful member of St. James M. P. Church, of Kent County, Maryland.

Resolved, That we, as individual members, extend our sympathy to the family in their great sorrow and also our prayers go up that they who are left will carry on the work for which she has so nobly labored. And be it further

Resolved, That this resolution be recorded in the minutes, a copy sent for publication to the Methodist Protestant Recorder and to the family.

NOW AND THEN

LITTLE BOY BLUE

EUGENE FIELDS

The little toy dog is covered with dust,
But sturdy and staunch he stands;
The little toy soldier is red with rust,
And his musket moulds in his hands.
Time was when the little toy dog was new
And the soldier was passing fair.
And that was the time when our Little Boy Blue
Kissed them and put them there.

"Now don't you go till I come," he said,
"And don't you make any noise;"
So toddling off to his trundle bed,
He dreamt of the pretty toys;
And, as he was dreaming an angel song
Awakened our Little Boy Blue
Oh! the years are many, the years are long,
But the little toy friends are true!

Aye, faithful to the Little Boy Blue they stand,
Each in the same old place,
Awaiting the touch of a little hand,
The smile of a little face;
And they wonder, as waiting the long years through
In the dust of that little chair,
What has become of our little Boy Blue,
Since he kissed them and put them there.

So the little eaglet has flown home o his Heavenly Father, far far beyond where his famous father has flown. His going is wrapped in mystery but now there is no more fear of suffering for him, no long nights vigils and days of weary searching.

Neither has he lived in vain, for the crime of kidnapping has become so horrible to the nation that it will be made as great an offense as wilful murder and his little picture with its curly head will ever be prized by the country at large.

A chapel which was part of the Savoy Palace in London still remains standing though the palace itself is gone, As late as 1754, the Public Advertiser printed a paid announcement that marriages could be performed there "with the greatest Privacy, Decency and Regularity." and that the expense would not be more than one Guinea, the five shilling stamp included. As an extra inducment the ad reads: "There are five private ways

Every day nearly we read of one ace trying to beat the record of another ace, either in high or rapid flying. How often, too, do we read of accident or death. New Hampshire has forbid the ascent to the height of Mt. Washington in winter, because of the number of deaths incurred.

Years ago, Mr. Longfellow wrote a poem about young people who get into trouble by having mistaken ambitions. It related of a boy who tried to scale the Alps after he had been told not to. The opening stanza will enable almost anyone to recall the poem:

"The shades of night were falling fast,
As through an Alpine village passed
A youth who bore mid snow and ice,
A banner with that strange device:
Excelsior."

ARMORY DEDICATION NEXT WEEK

EXERCISES, EXHIBITION DRILL AND DANCE

PUBLIC INVITED—NO CHARGE

The public is invited to attend the official dedication of the Chestertown Armory next Friday afternoon and evening, at which time the Armory will be thrown open to the public, according to an announcement made by Major Frank B. Hines, Commanding the local National Guard unit.

Tydings, Record and Markey To Speak

The program will start at 4 p. m. at which time such prominent men as United States Senator Millard E. Tydings, General Milton A. Record and Colonel Markey will speak.

At 8.30 p. m. the local National Guard unit will give an exhibition drill which will be followed by a dance on the large drill floor of the armory.

At the dedication exercises in the afternoon the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company Band will furnish music and an effort is being made to secure the services of Captain Bronson, of the United States Marine Band, to lead the local band. Captain Bronson organized the famous Marine Band and has been its leader since that time. Mr. C. A. Bacon, leader of the fire company band is communicating with Captain Bronson and it is the belief that he will be here.

Public Invited

The armory is open to the public that day and there will be no charge. In the meantime finishing touches are being made inside and outside the building and every effort is being made to make this an outstanding event in the history of Chestertown.

JUVENILE COURT COMMITTEE MEETS

Miss Lavinia Engle, of the Maryland Legislature, met with the Kent County committee on Juvenile Court on Wednesday of this week.

The purpose of this committee is to discuss juvenile court problems. A state-wide meeting will be held in Baltimore next Tuesday and Mrs. Thomas Massey and Miss Mae Mills Beck will represent Kent county at this meeting.

The members of the Kent County Committee are Mr. S. R. Collins, chairman; Mrs. Earl Barnes, Mrs. Thomas Massey, Mr. Fred G. Usilton and Dr. H. G. Simpers.

KENT BOYS 4-H CLUB ACTIVITIES

KENNEDYVILLE CLUB

The Kennedyville Boys' 4-H Club met at the home of Joseph Weer, Friday night, May 13th. President Joe Weer presided and Morgan Lusby acted as secretary in the absence of secretary Charles Hague, Jr. These boys have a very promising club—a variety of projects.

CATTLE JUDGING PRACTICE

The Handy Andy and Kennedyville boys met at Mr. E. R. Pennington's farm Saturday afternoon for instruction and practice in judging Dairy Cattle. Two classes of Mr. Pennington's cows were used. Two members made perfect scores with the others close behind.

STILL POND CLUB

The new Still Pond Boys' 4-H Club met Monday afternoon, May 6th, at the Still Pond school yard. Vice President Weldon Gosman presided and discussions of various club interests were led by Assistant County Agent, Stanley B. Sutton. The fifteen boys present divided into two teams enjoyed a three inning game of speed ball. Ask them what the score was.

SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS FOR WEEK OF MAY 23RD

Wednesday night, May 25th—The Piney Neck Boys 4-H Club at the school.

Friday, May 27th at 4 p. m. The Still Pond Boys' 4-H Club at the Still Pond school.

Friday night, May 27th—The Kennedyville Boys' 4-H Club at Kennedyville.

The summer season is almost here and only a few more weeks of school. Every 4-H Club members project should be under way and showing signs of progress. Don't forget that we can only get out of a thing what we put into it, so let's take care of our project and it will take care of us.

Personally, we don't know the secret of success, but sometimes we are afraid its work.

AWHILE

In memory of those that we have loved and lost.

BEAUTIFUL GARDEN

There's a garden abloom with the fairest
And rarest flowers of earth,
It is bright with the light of their faces
It rings with the joy of their mirth.
It is my garden of memory.
Of friends I have lost for awile;
Tho' I miss the joy of their presence
I can vision the warmth of their smile.
Like lilies they grow in this garden
No sorrow or grief to enthrall,
He reigns—the sun of the morning.
He lives—when their fragance fall.
This beautiful memory garden,
A blessing to me from above,
Some day we will greet the bright flowers,
That bloom in this garden of love.

RESCINDS CONSOLIDATION DECISION

NOT TO CLOSE 16 ONE ROOM SCHOOLS

HIGH SCHOOL TO REMAIN AT MILLINGTON

The Kent County School Board, at their regular meeting on Tuesday of this week, decided to rescind their decision of April 14th, to close 16 one-room schools in the county and provide transportation of the pupils of these schools to the larger elementary schools.

The plan to convert the Millington High School to a two year high school was also abandoned at Tuesday's meeting.

The above consolidation plan was suggested by Professor Louis C. Robinson, County Superintendant of Schools for Kent County as an econimical measure following a request made by the School Board that a plan be devised to reduce the school costs. Under the present equalization plan the State bears the expense of bus transportation of pupils.

The schools scheduled to be closed are Golt, Sassafras, Locust Grove, Chesterville, Cherry Lant, Morgnec, Still Pond, Lynch, Janvier, Hainesville, Flatland, Swan Creek, Skinner's Neck, St. Paul's, Pomona and Cliffs.

On May 3rd, large delegations of patrons of these one-room schools and the Millington High School, appeared before the School Board and requested that bard rescind their decision of April 14th.

According to estimates arrived at by the School Board the consolidation plan would affect a saving in school expenses of from $12,000 to $15,000 a year.

The protest by patrons of the one-room schools represented twelve of the schools to be closed, there being no protest from patrons of four of the schools.

The Commissioners of Kent County went on record as opposing the proposed consolidation plan.

BETTERTON TO OPEN SATURDAY

DANCE TO BE HELD IN CASINO

Betterton will open for the summer season next Saturday, May 28th, and the opening day will be featured by a dance in the Betterton Casino with the best of music that evening. Other amusements such as boating, bathing, bouling, etc., will be open and the hotels and cottages are in readiness to accomodate guests from Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore with good food and first-class accomodations.

The shad season is at its height and it is an interesting sight to see the fishermen pull out their nets for drying and repairs. The hotels and cottages are serving special shad meals. The merchants are preparing for a large holiday season and the entire upper bay resort is making ready for a busy season.

It is understood that the Ericsson Steam boat Company will operate their palatial steamer, John Cadwalader from Baltimore to Betterton on Sundays this summer. The Tolchester line is expected to run the same summer schedule this season.

The garden party of the Still Pond Woman's Club, held on the terraces of the Royal Swam hotel yesterday was largely attended. It was staged under the direction of Mrs. Walter Harris, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Edward C. Hepbron, Mrs. William Medders, Miss Nancy Price, Mrr. Paul Stokes, Miss Iona Stone, Mrs. Howard F. Owens, Miss Edna Wroth, Miss Edith Hepbron, Mrs. Clarence Ford, Mrs. Ben Robinson, Mrs. Harrison Cornelius, and Mrs. Elmer Atwell.

HEALTH NOTES

TROUBLE-MAKING HABITS

Speaking of habits, Dr. Richard C. Leonard, Chief of the Division of Oral Hygiene of the Maryland State Department of Health, said: "Some of the apparently harmless habits acquired by young children have a serious effect upon the teeth and mouth, and eventually upon the general health. The sooner they are faced, frankly and squarely, and corrected, the better it will be for the child's health.

"Some people think that thumb and finger sucking are 'cute.' As a matter of fact, they are trouble—makers that may have a lasting effect, not only upon the child's health, but also upon the facial expression and general attractiveness of the child. The constant pressure on the jaw resulting from thumb and finger sucking may gradually push the teeth out of their normal places, and make them come in "crooked." This in turn makes chewing difficult and interferes with the digestion.

"Other habits, not as noticeable, but as difficult to control and as harmful, her lip and cheek sucking, sleeping with the hand or arm under the cheek, or resting the cheek on the hand while bending over a lesson. All of these tend to make the teeth "crooked" and start a similar train of evils. And while we are talking of habits, don't let us overlook one of the greatest of all trouble-makers, the so-called 'pacifier' that the careless or indifferent mother sticks into the baby's mouth to keep it quiet. Pacifiers have been responsible for changing the shape of many a mouth arch. They probably have had a great deal to do, also, with the development of adenoids, and in turn, with the production of many a mouth-breather.'

"It is comparatively easy to break a habit before it has had a chance to become fixed. There is usually a cause underlying it and it is worth while to find the cause and correct that, if possible. In some instances, thumb sucking may be due to unsatisfied hunger; in others, to overfeeding. Get your doctor to tell you find out which it is and act accordingly.

"The baby is in no way responsible for the pacifier habit. The mother is the one who begins it. It is impossible to keep a pacifier clean, and no matter how you may look at it, the pacifier habit is a filthy one. Nobody knows how much dirt or what disease germs are stuck into the baby's mouth with one of these trouble-making devices.

"Many mechanical means have been developed to aid in breaking thumb sucking and finger sucking habits as well as to use in corecting mouth or jaw deformities produced in other ways. Sometimes it is necessary to resort to devices constructed by the dentists to fit particular cases. The earlier the dentist is consulted, the easier it will be to make the corrections."

DEL-MAR-VA MEMBERSHIP MEETING

ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD MAY 26TH

The Seventh Annual Membership Meeting of tre Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association will be held on Thursday, May 26th, in the Wicomico Hotel, at Salisbury, Md. The date for the meeting this year was fixed by the Administrative Committee which met at Association Headquarters Monday afternoon.

The meeting will be confined to a brief business session and has been called by President Stewart K. Powell to convene at 2 p. m. A report of the Association's activities during the past year will be presented and action taken regarding its future procedure.

The Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association, according to its records, has participated in practically all of the more important movements for general public welfare on the Peninsula since it was organized seven years ago. During the past year it has taken an active part in numerous projects of public interest and is sponsor for the present cooperative plan to establish a Peninsula-wide preliminary survey as the first step in an intensive campaign for mosquito control.

A TOAST

Here's to the man who plans things—
Builds things, makes things;
Who prattles not of wonders of old,
Nor gloats over ancestral gold,
But takes off his coat and takes hold
And does things!

KENT COUNTY ONE-FOURTH WATER

RECENT SURVEY SHOWS KENT HAS 83.64 SQUARE MILES OF WATER

RANKS 3RD SMALLEST IN STATE IN TOTAL AREA

According to a survey of the Maryland Geological Survey, just completed, Kent county is the third smallest county in the state in total area but in land area ranks fifth smallest. In water area it ranks the 11th largest.

Saint Mary's county on the Western Shore has 434.4 square miles of water area as against 365.04 square miles of land area.

Kent county is 41 square miles larger than Caroline county yet the land area is 39 square miles smaller in land area.

Talbot county is the smallest county on the Eastern Shore in land area having 271.82 square miles while that county has 190.69 square miles of water area.

The Maryland Geological Survey has just completed a careful redetermination of the areas of the various counties and the state. The former estimates used by the various Federal and State bureaus differ somewhat and are less accurate. Many of them were determined before the State had adequate maps of the area. In cooperation with the Hydrographic Branch of the U. S. Geological Survey, which has determined recently the drainage areas of the State, the present figures for the counties have been checked, showing differences in values for the entire State of only one-third of one per cent.

It is recommended that all State agencies and statistical bureaus using the area of counties adopt the following figures as standard which are in square miles:

Allegany, Land 425.16; Water none; Total 425.16.
