HICH SCHOOL NOTES

BY RUTH FOX

The Chestertown High baseball team won their first out-of-county game by defeating Greensboro 6 to 3.

Wednesday afternoon the Junior-Senior Picnic was held at Rolph's Wharf. Wednesday evening the Senior Class was invited to the movie "The Miracle Man" by Mr. L. Bates Russell. After the movies Gill Bros. treated the class and faculty.

The class play, "Nothing But The Truth," directed by Mr. Blades, will be given Thursday evening at William Smith Hall. This promises to be one of the best Senior plays that has ever been produced.

The sermon to the graduates will be preached by Rev. White at the M. E. Church.

The Tennis Club is getting all kinds of exciting results. In the girl's singles Johns, Bell and Sterling are left. Who will be the champion? Next week will tell. In the boy's singles MacMahon, Falls, Atwater, and Bibbs are the remaining contestants.

TO EXHIBIT LOCAL HEALTH RECORD

USE OF CHESTERTOWN HEALTH EXHIBIT AGAIN REQUESTED

The Kent County Chamber of Commerce received last week a request from Terence F. Cunneen, Manager of the Insurance Department of the United States Chamber of Commerce for permission to exhibit the material submitted by Chestertown in the 1931 Health Conservation Contest in which Chestertown led the honor cities of its class. The material is desired as a display before the State and Territorical Health Officers of the United States who are holding their annual meting in Washington on June 2-6.

The local Chamber gladly gave permission and ascertained that the material had been returned to Washington after being used by Dr. Hiscock for his classes at Yale University in the School of Medicine.

The report on Chestertown's activities was complied in folio form in such a manner that each item on the report form was backed by material showing as nearly as posible an entire picture of the activity behind each item.

A certificate of Chestertown's rating in the 1931 contest was recently received by the local Chamber with a congratulatory letter from the President of the Chamber of Commerce of the U. S. A., Silas Strawn. The certificate is being suitably framed and will be on view at the office of the local organization.
