SCHOOL DAYS — By DWIG

HICH SCHOOL NOTES

BY RUTH FOX

Honestly, I don't know where to start, or how to start, or what to start. Meetings, games, pageants, speakers, and graduation all rush past with the swiftness of a non-stop express from New York to Chicago.

However, this much I have settled. My feelings (and other peoples' also) on graduation I shall let rest until next week. It is now that you will see the events that have crowded into one small week and the events that will take place. Glorious Graduation!

Reginald Cooper, President, called to order the last Literary Meeting of the year, Friday. The program was one of the best this year. A double quartet started it off. The singers were Evelyn Crew, Clara Ellen Robinson, Carolyn Jewell, Helen Harris, Anna Lewis, Harry Price, Ralph Hopkins, Nelson Crew.

Mr. Huey, cashier of the Third National Bank, spoke to the assembly on the subject of "Alibis." "Playing Fair" Mr. Huey said, "is the biggest job in life."

"When we play unfair, we are being mostly unfair to ourselves," Mr. Huey further explained. He finished by telling us to "Train always for the second mile. It is the little extra push that counts."

Carolyn Jewell's Pianologues have always been looked forward to. "Old Fashioned Girl" was as charming as the title implies.

Mary Jo Wheatley told of the happenings of the present Senior Class when they were Freshmen. Helen Harris let out some of the secrets of our Sophomore year. The happenings of our Junior Year were told by Miriam Ford. And Harriett L. Rogers related what the Seniors had done this year.

The orchestra played a march entitled "The Zouaves."

Miss Bryan awarded a medal to Miriam Ford for having made the most points in athletics.

Miss Riches thanked all those who had helped make the Literary Meetings a success. Special emphasis was placed on the cooperation of Mabel Smith.

Mr. Danneburg, of Washington College, spoke to the Seniors Monday morning. Mr. Danneburg explained the courses which the college gave and in conclusion passed out catalogues and entrance blanks.

The part of George Washington has been changed. Vernon Seward has that honor and his aide is Charles Chester Atwater. Marian Reinhart is cast as the lovable southern mammy.

Miss Riches is going to accompany the Girls' Volley Ball team to Baltimore, this Thursday. They are going to stay overnight at the State Normal School at Towson.

The Boy's Baseball Team lost to North East today with the score of 20 to 7.

John Bibbs is the tennis champion of the boys' singles. Edward McMahon was runner up.

In the girls' singles the result lies among Miriam Ford, Alice M. Sterling and Margaret Bell.

Miss Bryan believes that the Pageant is going to "go off" beautifully.

Class Night is going to be held at Washington College in William Smith Hall, Tuesday night.

C. H. S. LOSES TO NORTH EAST

BOWS TO CECIL CHAMPS 20 TO 7

Chestertown High School base ball team lost out in the semi-finals for the Eastern Shore Championship Tuesday afernoon when the Cecil county champs out-slugged them to the ime of 20 to 7.

Chestertown went into a four run lead in the first frame when they took advantage of a walk and an error and then added three bingles.

Not to be out done, North East started a scoring attack in the second inning that netted them two tallies and in the fourth frame they bunched three singles, two doubles and a triple to push across seven runs to take the lead that they never relinquished.

Chestertown added single runs in the third, fourth and fifth innings.

The Cecil County Champs increased their lead by scoring three runs in the sixth, four in the seventh, three in the eighth, and made it an even twenty in the final frame.

Wildness on the field was the vital factor of the locals defeat because they were only out hit by four safeties. The game was loosely played and Chestertown made eight miscues to North East's four.

North East will meet the winner of the Salisbury-Easton game for the Eastern Shore Championship.
