Curiosity that characteristic frequently mentioned as having caused the demise of a cat, is also proving fatal to members of New York's deer population. A buck and a doe stood in a highway here staring at an approaching auto until it was too late. Down at Coeyman's Hollow a doe became out-of-season vension watching the on-rushing lights of a car.

FURROWS

MR. EDITOR:

The republicans is having a big time out in Chicago. They are goin to make some mistakes before they git through with this here campaign. Tey've got the wrong man to head the ticket and the platform ain't goin to mean anything in the second place. Mr. Hover has showed the world what sort of statesman he iss. He ain't intereted in helpin the poor people of this country at all. He seems to have fergot all about bein poor once in his life. All of his policies has been to help the rich. His Farm Board jest made a lot of money fer the speculators, and now his Reconstruction Finance Corporation has been set up to help the railroads pay back their debts to the bankers.

I don't see no help fer the farmers of this contry except the big ones that can use factory methods. The republicans ain't never done a thing to help the farmers, and if the farmers vote fer the republicans this year they ought to have to put up with bad times.

The only strong thing about Mr. Hoover is his organization. Mr. Dawes is a lot stronger man than Hoover, but it ain't certain that Dawes is a lot stronger man than Hoover, but it ain't certain that Dawes could be elected. Though he would run better than Hoover.

The platform, as usual, will have a lot of stuff in it that don't mean nothin. Ferinstance, the tariff plank. What good is high tariff goin to be with all the other countries high tariff too? Well, things will sort of equalize here if all the foreign markets is shut off. It might help the farmers a little. The big farmers can't sell so much outside and the little farmers can eat what they make, so they won't be hurt much. But the republicans is goin to have a lot to say about the tariff and prosperity in this campaign. But it seems to me that if high tariff is so good to bring prosperity we ought to have had a lot of it durin the last three years. But we had the highest tariff and the least prosperity that we have had fer a long time. But a lot of people will continue to believe the republican bunk about high tariff bringin prosperity.

Well, there is a lot of republican bunk that ought to be uncovered, and I'm a thinkin if things continue much longer like they are goin now some of it will be showed up.

The next show will be the democratic convention.

Yours truly,
JOSIAH ALLEN WEATHERBY.

SHOPPING JEFFERSON'S

Dear Lookers, Thinkers and Shoppers:—

Well, now lets all draw a deep breath and settle down to the serious business of enjoying the summer,—what with the Bi-Centennial Celebration over, and all our pictures in the news-reel, and the Seniors at the college launched upon the troubled sea of life! (Sounds just like the Commencement orators, doesn't it)

Anyway turn your minds with relief to things that count—such as the new undies at Jefferson's,—very, very new,—they look as fragile and cool as sea foam, but are actually very durable and practical. And white too, for a change, which is smart and VERY ladylike for summer—besides they're edged with that new two-way stretch mesh elastic—you've read about it I know, so now go and see it—these grand little affairs are only a dollar for panties and $.75 for brassiere—you'll want three of each at least.

And if you're tired of hearing me talk about stockings—well, it's just too bad because you MUST listen to this—it's a motto, "By their hosiery ye shall know them"—the smart ones, that means, who keep up with things—so hist! Do YOU wear ROUND mesh stockings? THAT'S the latest dope—well, well, sneak out the back door and get some at Jefferson's this minute.

What do you pay for your hats? $15? $10? $5? Afraid to go lower? Well you certainly should be usually—but these new broad-brimmed white hats at Jefferson's for $2.95 are as safe to buy as government bonds (or don't I mean that?) Anyway they're grand! So cool, so charming, so different—and do I have to tell you what a broad brim does for us women? It's one of the wiles of the Enchantress—so go get you one.

LYDIA LEE.
