WHERE THEY PLAY JUNE 25

Chestertown at Rock Hall
Church Hill at Barclay
Cecilton at Sudlersville

Chestertown failed to break the winning streak of Rock Hall at Chestertown last Saturday, when the latter won an eleven inning game 4 to 3. Rock Hall apparently had the game on ice with a three run lead at the beginning of the second half of the seventh inning, but Chestertown came through with three runs in that inning to tie the score. The game continued to the eleventh inning with neither side scoring and in the first half of the eleventh Rock Hall scored one run. Chestertown came to bat but were unable to score with two men on bases. Wheat, for Chestertown allowed Rock Hall 16 hits but kept them so well scattered that they only had a one run advantage over Chestertown's seven hits. Bill Loller, aside from holding Chestertown to seven hits accounted for three hits himself.

BOOK WORMS DESTROY RECORDS

While book worms have been at work in the clerk's office of the Court House searching through records of the early history of Kent county in preparation for the Bi-Centennial celebration here, book worms have also been at work in the record vault of the Register of Wills office.

The work of the former was constructive and seeking knowledge while the latter was destructive and seeking food. The former was welcomed praised, the latter was unwelcomed and destroyed.

When some of the old record books kept in a cabinet in the vault of the Register of Willis office, were examined recently it was found that book worms had eaten up part of the books. One of the old bond records, dating back to 1864, had a large section of the pages eaten away and other records were less damaged.

As the worms can only live in dark unventilated places these cabinets have been opened, ventilated and the worms destroyed.

SUDLERSVILLE CARNIVAL ENDS TONIGHT

CHESTERTOWN WINS BAND PRIZE

The Sudlersville Carnival is drawing large crowds from neighboring sections.

The annual firemen's parade was held Wednesday evening. The Chestertown Fire Company band won first prize of $20.

The comic parade Monday evening and the military display Tuesday evening by the militiamen of Company K, under the command of Capt. William T. Roe, proved popular attractions, and Friday evening the tug-of-war was the feature.

In the comic parade the judges complimented all entrants upon the excellence and originally of displays and found the awarding of prizes particularly difficult because of the keen competition. After careful consideration, however, they awarded the prizes to four divisions as instructed:

In the large comic group first prize went to the Sudlersville Early Settlers. Honorable mention also went to the Junior Sudlersville Fire Company, the clown group and the Volley Ball group.

In the small comic group first prize went to "The Unemployed" with honorable mention to the Colored Folks Carriage group, the Gold Dust Twins and the Bootleg Funeral Grup.

Sudlersville Community Club won first prize for its float with honorable mention to The Gypsy Group; the Garden Party and the Colonial Group.

The next individual comic award was to Abie's Clothing Shop, with honorable mention to Man Pushing Baby Coach.

The firemen's fete will close tonight, Saturday.

W. C. T. U.

At the request of the County President, Mrs. J. Leonard Price, all members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union living in or near Chestertown, are urged to meet on Monday evening next, June 27, at 8 o'clock at the Chestertown Methodist Episcopal Parsonage.

The Board of Engineers of the Rivers and Harbors Bill has passed favorably on the appropriation for the Ocean City Inlet, according to Col. Earl I. Brown, of the Committee. This is a distinctly encouraging development in the matter, since it had been previously understood that the inlet proposition could not be presented before the next regular session of Congress in December.

The lad who always is taking it for granted, because it has been daddy's way to provide things is missing much if daddy does not hear now an then a cheerful little "thank you."

Some find it extremely difficult to say "thank you" before breakfast. It should be worn like a garment, that is invested at daybreak and divested upon retiring.
