The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company is undecided as to whether or not they will hold a carnival this year.

There is a large amount of expense attached to the holding of the carnival and there is doubt that enough money could be taken in to meet the expenses. The money made on the carnival in past years is what has been financing the Fire Company. Without this revenue the Fire Company will be hard up for finances.

There is no question about this organization being a valuable asset to the community and it is up to the community to support it if possible. A carnival takes a lot of work and there is a lot of expense, so why not raise money in another way. A lucky number dance would be the very thing.

A branch of the Masonic Order of Cambridge and the Loyal Order of Moose have used this method of raising money. Quite a few people in Kent bought tickets to the Moore dance in Philadelphia and probably very few attended.

If the prizes offered at the dance were valuable enough, many people here would buy tickets that would not attend the dance.

DIES SUDDENLY AT ROCK HALL

Russell Lowell Sewell, assistant postmaster at Rock Hall, died suddenly Monday morning, about seven o'clock, of a heart ailment from which he had suffered for many years. One of the leading Republicans of lower Kent Mr. Sewell had just assumed the duties as assistant postmaster on the first of July.

He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Florence Jones; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Standford and Mrs. Bertie Kaiser, of Baltimore and Mrs. Elwood Kendall, of Worton. Three half brothers, Marion, Charles and Benjamin Sewell, all of Rock Hall also survive.

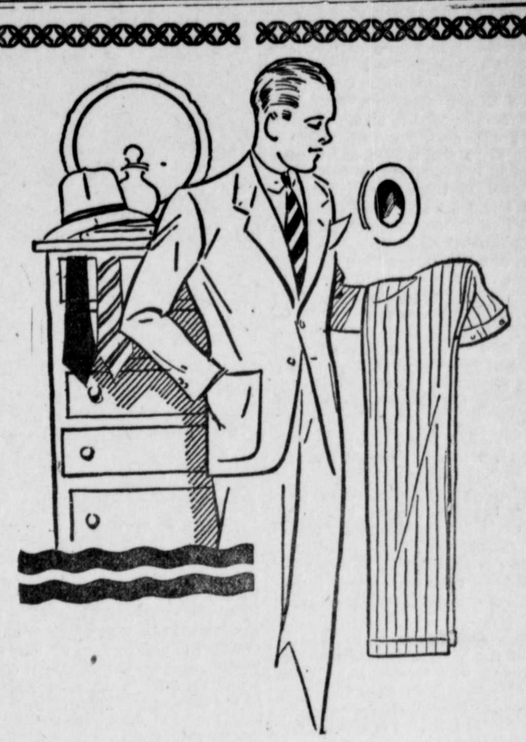

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2.30 p. m., in Rock Hall Methodist Episcopal Church with the Rev. W. S. Grant officiating Interment was made in Wesley Chapel cemetery. W. H. Good and Randolph Burgess were upndertakers.

"Almost, but not quite" is a sad commentary, if an intended "thank you" was left unsaid. A thousand good intentions never could overtake the omission of one "thank you."

LOST 100 CHICKENS

Mr. and Mrs. W. Irving Walker lost about 100 chickens last week, about one-half of them were old fowls and the rest were this years hatch. They disappeared very misteriously.

—Mr. Harry S. Russell parred the local golf course on Friday of last week. This is the first time the course has been parred by an amateur. Par is 34.
