SHOPPING JEFFERSON'S

Last Call For Vacationers!
Last Minute Fillers!
Positively Last "Must-Haves"!

Whether you're going away or are being modern and staying home for your vacation, or are being like all vacationers and COMING home for a rest AFTER your vacation, there are sure to be some odds and ends of fillers you'll need to freshen up for the end of summer.

For instance you know you really do need another dress. One that you can wear now and during the fall too. And the very thing for you I noticed at Jefferson's today. A number of really unusual printed silks—not cheap and shoddy—good, beautifully woven silk, plenty heavy, and well-made with deep seams and honest-to-goodness hems. Most prints I can't thrill over, but these are the kind only the nicer city shops carry. One I liked awfully—a Navy blue and white all-over print. Trick little fan pleats in front. A dress you'd use a hundred times. Another charming little pick-up is a gray, blue and white print, soft and flattering as the mischief.

And for that extra dressy dress you need, look at the pale rosy beige triple sheer crepe, with a set in yoke of Alencon lace and a buttoned jacket. Only one left—it's been $15.75—but if you run fast you can have it for $9.75! Save six dollars and get a real knock-out.

A black and white silk suit with white blouse and scarlet scarf is worth giving an eye. It too stands alone—was $15.75, and is $9.75.

Now for some quick ones. White shoes, all at special prices. Linen Sandals closing out at $1.39. (These are so smart. You must have a pair). Children's barefoot sandals reduced to $1.59. A couple of pair of awning stripes for teeny fellows at 49c.

Need another traveling bag? See these: Black overnight bag, $1.10; week end bag, $5.00, (it's a beauty, too); and sturdy suit cases for $1.00; a metal motor trunk for $5.00.

And two brand new items. Ghillie-Tongue oxfords at $5.00, (really swell), and grand scrafs at 59c.

How's that for filling up your trunk?
