HIT AND RUN DRIVER FINED

SENTENCED TO $200 FINE AND 60 DAYS IN JAIL

E. J. Bishop was fined $200 and sentenced to 60 days in jail by Magistrate Robert Moffett on Thursday of this week on charges of failure to stop following an accident and turning out the lights on his automobile in an effort to avoid arrest.

Bishop while driving his car down High street, Chestertown on Saturday, July 23rd, ran into William White, Jr., 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William White.

Bishop did not stop his car but shut his lights off and turned into a side street and escaped. He was arrested two days later by Sherif Vickers in Ahoskie, North Carolina, and brought to the Kent County jail.

The White boy was rushed to Easton hospital in a serious condition, suffering with a fractured skull and other injuries. He has since returned to his home here and is getting along nicely.

LAYING 1200 FT. NEW MAIN

CONSTRUCTION WORK STARTED FROM CULP MILL WEST HIGH STREET

Construction work has started on the laying of a six inch water main from the main at Culp's mill out toward Brook's Mill, a distance of 1200 feet. This distance will carry the main to the milk station.

The construction of this main will be a valuable addition to that section of Chestertown, not from a standpoint of abundance water supply by also as fire protection. It will afford fire protection for that section known as "The Path," at the present time there is a small pipe line as far as Brook's Mill but it is not large enough to meet the demand or afford fire protection.

Mr. William Sutton has the contract for the construction work being the only bidder on estimates sent out by the Chesterown Water Board.

NOW AND THEN

ADVICE TO A YOUNG FARMER

BY ROBERT P. TRISTRAM COFFIN

Build your house upon a rise,
Make friends with your arms and thighs.

Dig your spring below a pine,
Plant a morning-glory vine.

Have your bedroom face the dawn,
Have windows with no curtains on.

Though fields lie ready cleared a score,
Cut thickets down and make one more.

Sleep an hour in the sun,
Talk to your cows when milking's done.

By all that's good, be much alone,
Use no man's plow-horse but your own.

Plow as soon as hylas peep,
Mow before the crickets cheep.

Never hope to rise in life
Until you have brought home your wife.

Never trust your corn to grow
Before you have a son or so.

There is no rain to match a mother,
Sons and seeds help on each other.

Giving Bossy the Works.—The farmer's rosy-cheeked, bobbed-haired daughter came striding along the lane from the farmhouse. She was clad in grimy overalls; from the pockets bulged bunches of cottonwaste and sundry tools. One hand carried a bag of tools, the other a wrench.

"Where are you going, my pretty maid?" jokingly asked the squire's son, who met her.

"I'm going a-milking, sir," she said.

The squire's son looked surprized.

"But the tools—what are they for? he asked.

"Trouble, " sighed the girl, "with that dashed new milking machine that father has just installed in the cowshed."—Young Men.

It is told in Scottish history of an experience of James V, of Scotland.

Being intensely interested in the welfare of the farmers he disguised himself as one, and went into the fields. The peasants, seeing him, began to torment him, but a country lad came to his rescue. The King was so grateful to the boy that he presented him with the lands of Braehead, with one condition only; that when a monarch should visit the place, he should be offered a basin and towel. This ceremony was performed at a visit from both George IV, of England, and Queen Victoria.

The bonus seekers have at last left Washington and their unsanitary camps have been burned. There are many sad stories told of their ragged, hungry condition, but the workers of the world wonder why they did nothing for themselves, why they were willing to accept doles and why they did not improve their condition even if out of work they could carry water and keep themselves clean and not threaten the city with disease.

There are few editors who have been more written about than Horace Greely, the renowned editor of the New York Tribune. But his wife was even more eccentric than he. Having strong opinions she insisted upon her friends doing as she wished them. Hating tobacco using, one day while going down to Staten Island on the ferryboat, she walked calmly up to a passenger who was smoking, snatched the cigar out of his mouth, and flung it overboard.

'Mrs. Greeley had an antipathy to kid gloves. She would never put them on. She had a bout with Margaret Fuller on this subject. We all met on the avenue, and instead of saying good-morning, or some such human salutation, Mrs. Greeley touched Margaret's hand with a little shudder and exclaimed, "Skin of a beast! Skin of a beast!"

'"Why, what do you wear?" inquired the astonished maiden from Massachusetts.

'"Silk," said Mrs. Greeley, reaching out her hand.

'"Silk!" Margaret just touched it and shuddered, crying, "Entrails of a Worm- Entrails of a worm!"

At another time Mrs. Greeley gave her friend some advice about raising her children:

"Let see" said her friend, how many children have you?

'"I have two," she replied.

'"And how many have you had?"

'"Nine," she answered.

'"Then thank you," the friend said, "but if it is all the same to you I think I'll bring up my children my own way."

'"Oh, very well," she exclaimed. "I didn't raise children for this world but for the next!"

Now that we have to pay 3 cents for a stamp we are longing for the little silver 3 cent pieces of "old Lang Syne." They would be handy and light to carry.

SEVEN ACRES OF BERRIES

HOWELL POINT FARM GIVES EMPLOYMENT TO 60

About seventy five years ago, many of Kent County's acres were planted in raspberries and blackberries of various sorts. Then as the market became glutted, the plantings were discontinued. There is now a growing demand for such small fruits, and the markets are fairly firm. Mrs. Evelyn Harris, near Betterton, has about seven acres already planted, part of which are in bearing. If any are interested in co-operating with both planting and marketing and will notify her at once, very low prices for number one planting stock can be obtained from the firm now furnishing the Cherry Trees for the roadside plantings. This will have to be done immediately to get this best stock. Several farmers are also planting rhubarb for early spring markets, so as to furnish truck loads for better transportation.

The packing house at Howell Point Fruit Farm is putting out around 1200 cases daily of green and half ripe tomatoes. Through these operations 60 persons are given employment.

SHORE COUNTIES TOWN TAX RATE

WORCESTER, ONLY COUNTY ON SHORE NOT REDUCED

Worcester county is the only county on the Eastern Shore whose tax rate has not been reduced for the coming year. Reports from that county state that the unforseen expense in the Euel Lee case prevented an anticipated reduction.

In spite of the recent million dollar bond issue in Kent county for roads, the tax rate here is only third from the highest on the shore. The 20 cent reduction over last year's rate is next to the largest reduction on the Shore, only being beaten by Wicomico county which made a 25 cent reduction.

The rates in the nine Eastern Shore counties are as follows, showing the 1931 and 1932 rates:

	1931	1932
Caroline county	$1.50	$1.30
Cecil county	1.30	1.20
Dorchester county	1.80	1.70
Kent county	1.67	1.47
Queen Anne's county	1.50	1.37
Somerset county	1.75	1.60
Talbot county	1.46	1.35
Wicomico county	1.70	1.45
Worcester county	1.45	1.45

With two exceptions the Kent county rate is below that of the counties on the Western Shore and Southern Maryland.

Of the 23 counties in the state 20 have materially reduced the tax rate.

TO VOTE ON BOND ISSUE

CECIL COUNTY TO DECIDE MILLION DOLLAR ROAD ISSUE

Governor Albert C. Ritchie has ordered inserted in the Cecil county papers, a proclamation calling attention to a referendum of Senate Bill No. 75, known as the $1,000,000 Road Bond Bill for Cecil county, passed at the last session of the Maryland Legislature. After the bill had been passed and signed by the Governor, the citzens and taxpayers of this county petitioned, according to the Maryland Consitution, for a referendum on the bill, and it was granted.

At the coming election in November the voters of the county will be called upon to decide the measure. If there is a majority vote for it, then the bill becomes a law; if the majority is against the bill, then the measure is defeated.

Practically three thousand persons petitioned the Governor for a Referendum on the measure, and the opponents of the measure allege that they could easily have obtained double that number. If the measure should become a law, it will result in an increase in the county tax rate from 12 to 15 cents on each $100.

THE TWO DUYERS

Les and Ned Duyer, known to the radio world as "The Two Duyers" the boys from Dixieland, entertained the Kiwanis Club, of Havre de Grace at the Colonial Hotel on Tuesday evening in a fifteen minute program of songs and jokes. "Les," who for many years has furnished many laughs in this section as a blackface comedian, made a hit with the Kiwanians when he lifted an electric fan from the piano and placed it in front of him upon the table for his "radio" announcements.

Mr. Duyer and his son Ned have been broadcasting for several months over Station WDEL, Wilmington, Del., and WCBM, Baltimore, and have taken a prominent place in the radio world.

Leslie Duyer was originally from Chestertown and handled the blackfaced comedian rolls in local shows while here. He was a printer in the composing room of the Transcript and learned his trade in ths office.

CHICKEN THIEVES IN COUNTY

COMMISSIONERS OFFER $250 REWARD FOR THEIR ARREST

Chicken thieving on a large scale has become such a menace in Kent county, that the County Commissioners have offered a reward of $250 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the gang who has been operating in Kent county during the past two months.

Local authorities are convinced that the thieving is being done by an organized gang who are experts at taking an entire flock without making any noise or leaving any trace behind.

The thieving has gotten beyond the stage of stealing a few chickens and when the gang visits a roost they take the entire flock while the farmer is asleep. They make no noise and leave no clue, not even a feather, and their activities are scattered over such a wide area that local authorities are baffled as to just how to catch them. Their organization evidently includes the handling of the stolen chickens in the various markets. It has become a racket in Kent county and every effort is being made by local authorities to cope with it.

FEDERAL REVENUES INGREASE

INCOME TAX AND CUSTOM DUTIES DECREASE

The effect of the new billion dollar tax bill was reflected for the first time on Wednesday in the Treasury statement for August 1st, which showed miscellaneous internal revenue reported that day amounted to $2,631,125, as compared with $1,139,500 for the same period last year.

Miscellaneous internal revenue, under which the new taxes will be listed, declined steadily in July as compared with last year. This was brought about because the first payment of tax under the new revenue act, that for the last nine days of June, was not due to be paid over to collectors of internal revenue until the en dof July.

While the amount for those nine days is not expected to be larger it will bring a gradual increase, in the Government income and cut down the $265,807,533 deficit which faced the Treasury at the end of the first month of the 1933 (the present) fiscal year.

While the miscellaneous internal revenue showed an appreciable increase, income taxes continued to decline, only $627,759 being reported on August 1st, as compared with $996,454 the same day last year.

Customs duties also continued downward, returning $1,171,347 on the first day of the month, as compared with $1,683,958 on the same day a year ago.

—The Blakeney bungalow, in Queen Anne's near Chester bridge, was sold at public sale last week by John D. Urie, Esq., Attorney, to Mrs. Mary L. Gordon for $1,064.

KENT BOYS 4-H CLUB ACTIVITIES

KENT WELL REPRESENTED AT CLUB WEEK — WILLIAM COMELLA HONORED

Kent County was represented at the Boys' and Girs' 4-H Club Week at the University of Maryland by twenty members of its boys' 4-H Clubs and ten members of the Girls' 4-H Clubs.

This annual Club Week gives much inspiration to those who attend. Representatives of nearly every county met at the University at College Park on Thursday, August 4th, returning to their homes on Tuesday, August 9th. Each of the "Five Glorious Days" were crowded full of interesting and worthwhile activities—the morning is being given over to demonstrations and classes, which were directed by the Extension Specialists. There were classes for Dairy, Swine, Poultry and Forestry Club members, and a discussion group for local leaders and older club members. The older group discussed such problems as "Farm Tenantry," "Farm Taxes," "Leadership," Extension service, etc., under the leadership of competent men.

The afternoons were taken up with Tribe Meetings, games, and recreation.

Monday, Aug. 8th; the entire group visited Washington. After seeing the Zoo, a picnic supper was enjoyed in the park and a very inspiring farewell service, which brought out the beauty of service, was conducted by "Daddy Jenks" and Miss Emerson. Everyone enjoyed the week and came home with an enthusiasm to carry the 4-H Spirit onward.

Boys who attended full time were: Herschel Carroll, Elwood Morris, Walter T. Morris, Frederick Cornelius, George Carter, 3rd., Victor Hendrickson, William O. Comella, Robert Fogwell, Bayard Sutton, Wilbur Morris, and Assistant County Agent Sutton.

Boys who attended part time were: Walter Rees, Jesse Hurd, Norman Sutton, William Carroll, Frank Sutton, Mike Freeman, Clarence Sutton, Albert Wiliams. Ask them about it!

Schedule Of Meetings For Week Of August 15th

Wdnesday, August 17th, Millington Boys' 4-H Club at the home of Helen Semans.

Thursday, August 18th—Farmers' Picnic when 4-H Certificates will be awarded Club Members.

Kent has the honor of supplying one of the tribe leaders—Bill Comella. George Carter, 3rd., was elected Secretary of the Mohawk Tribe and did a very good job.

The evening program called for Vesper services at 6.30 and Camp Fire at 7.30 except Sunday night, when the "All Star Consecraion Service" was held. At this time those who have done outstanding work in leadership and project work are chosen as members of the "All Star" Organization. William Comella and Ruth Legg each received this honor this year.

Each day an assembly was held in the Auditorium when distinguished speakers brought the group valuable messages, announcements relative to the Camp were made, songs sung and all enjoyed the meeting together.

BIBLE RACKETEERING IN CHICAGO

Good times and bad, the Bible remains the world's best seller, and petty racketeers are using that fact in a lucative easy-money scheme, investigators said today.

Obtaining names from obituary columns, the operators visit a widow, express surprise at learning her husband is dead, and tender their sympathy. Then they remind the bereaved that the departed "ordered" a Bible. The widow usually pays—double price.
