Two little girls whose mothers gave them permission to "go wet their feet" waded into the surf at Lewis Beach shortly before noon on Sunday and were drowned. They were four and five years old and were from Pennsylvania. Dressed in their bathing suits, they left the cottages where they had been spending a vacation with their parents, and were not seen again until their bodies were pulled from four feet of water where it starts to break on the beach.

The re-opening of the Citizens Bank of Hurlock has been approved by the stockholders who have signified their approval by voting 356 out of 500 shares of stock in favor of the proposed plan. The charge would be amended to make the new stock $10 instead of $50 a share and an exchange of the present stock may be made on the basis of a share of new stock for one of the old.
