WHY SAVE?

Saving money, just to have it is, of course, better than not saving at all, but the joy and satisfaction of saving money for a definite reason puts content and enthusiasm into our lives.

Here are some sensible reasons for putting money aside in a separate account where it will be ready when needed.

A few dollars saved each month may help take the "ax" out of taxes.

Insurance is a wonderful protection for the family in case life's plans are interrupted. Premiums are no hardship if they are saved in monthly installments.

Vacations are needed, but are much more pleasant if cash has been saved for the expenses.

The music of wedding bells may be much sweeter if the habit of saving has been cultivated.

Home, whether it be the humble vine-clad cottage or the more pretentious palace, is made possible by saving.

Yours for service,

Third National Bank of Chestertown
