WHERE THEY PLAY AUGUST 27

Sudlersville at Chestertown
Church Hill at Barclay
Cecilton at Rock Hall

A rally by Rock Hall in the third inning which gave them a three run lead and another in the fourth was enough to defeat Church Hill who was held scoreless until the ninth inning. A rally by Curch Hill in the ninth which netted 2 runs was short of overcoming their oponents lead.

FLOWER SHOW PROGRESSING

TO BE HELD IN WASHINGTON COLLEGE GYMNASIUM SEPTEMBER 9TH AND 10TH

Although flower gardens throughout the county are suffering for lack of rain, plans are going forward for the Second Annual Kent County Flower Show to be held in Washington College gymnasium on Friday and Saturday, September 9th and 10th.

The show last year was held in the old Chestertown Armory and that building was filled to capacity with an abundance of flowers of all colors and descriptions. The affair was such a decided success that large floor space was needed and Washington College has offered the gymnasium for this year's show.

Entries for the show will be received by Miss Mary Nicholson, Chestertown, and all prospective exhibitors have been urged to get entries in early.

There will be a special children's exhibit for children up to and including 14 years and special classes for 4-H Club boys and girls. The classes:

FURROWS

BY JOSIAH ALLEN WEATHERBY

This here presidential campaign is about to git under headway. But things ain't quite fixed up yet fer the republicans to do much oratin. But the signs is about to show up. The stock market is showin some life and that is fer the purpose of makin it appear that the depression is over. A few weeks ago there wuz a flurry in Wall Street and a lot of people thought that wuz the turn. Well, it might have been turn, but it wuz the turn in the republican tactics to start givin out their political bunk. But the main reason fer that little flurry wuz to put a little money in the pockets of the boys that has to make their spendin money out of stock speculation. They had about run out of pocket money and needed to pick up a little on the side.

And this last little flurry is fer the boys to make a little more to replenish their pocket change and also to make it easier fer the republicans to holler that good times is on the way back. They'l be sayin that all we need now to make good times come all the way back is to re-elect Hoover and a republican Congress. They ought to do like they did in the nineties and in nineteen hundred and say vote fer Hoover and a full dinner pail. And the stock market is pickin up fer that purpose. We all want to vote fer a full dinner pail, but Mr. Hoover ain't done much in the last three years to fill up the dinner pails of about ten million workers in this country. And as long as he sticks to the things he has been doin fer the past three years them dinner pails ain't goin to be filled up.

But you listen to what the republicans is goin to say in their campaign speeches. See if they don't try to make is appear that Mr. Hoover has saved the country from complete ruin. They are goin to give him credit for everything good that has happened in the country and deny him the blame fer the bad things. But folks, don't be fooled. The biggest pork-barrell that has ever been put over on the American people is the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. It is mainly pork fer the bankers and railroads. But it puts Mr. Hoover in the light of a benefactor. He is doin all he can to save the banks and the railroads at the expense of the tax payers. Another big pork-barrell of Mr. Hoover's wuz the Federal Farm Board. That wuz supposed to be one of his benefactions. Well, it ain't helped nobody much but the people that has jobs under the Board at fat salaries and the speculators. These last fellers needed some help fer they ain't had very good pickins since 1929.

Another right good-sized piece of pork-barrell legislation wuz the Hoover dam. It wuz anther benefaction to the poor peple in the southwest. Some of the bonus boys that wuz sent home from Washington wuz put to work there under the soldier preference rule. That ought to git some soldier votes fer Mr. Hoover. He'll need a lot of votes this fall.

But the old prosperity returnin gag is goin to come pretty soon now, and by October the republicans will be shoutin it from the housetops. And if Rosevelt is elected business, including the stock market, will drop off, just to show the people that they made another big mistake in electin a democrat to be president.

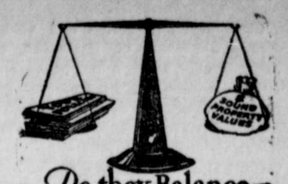

The republicans is havin to resort to a lot of tricks to git votes. They are havin young Teddy Roosevelt to come all the way from the Philippines to stump fer Hoover so that people won't think they are votin fer a member of OldTeddy's family when they vote fer Franklin. Well, Franklin may not be the bustlin kind that his illustrious cousin wuz, but he is a good man to vote fer any way. But hard times ain't goin to end, no matter who is elected in November.
